

Little League Lads Open Summer Season

By MARY and JACK WEBB

If you've noticed Junior rolling up his fielder's glove, there's a reason. Spring has sprung and the Little League is springing too. Last Sunday the League managers and officers met with the Little Leaguers at the home of Norm Hawkins, 176 Via Los Miradores, to hold the regular auction and bid for the boys who will play this year. The Little League Week was scheduled also for May 2 to May 16, terminating that Saturday in the grand parade with all players in uniform attending. On the side, the L. L. Mothers of Riviera have met and organized the concession stand to operate during the games. Duly elected officers for this year are Norm Hawkins, president; Ken Roberts, vice-president; Ray Griffin, secretary and players agent; and Ed Thorne, treasurer. Riviera boys bid for and bought last Sunday include Mike Scott, Jim Hawkins, Jack Parker, Patrick O'Keefe, Jim Portzer, Kirk Frost, Brian Griff, Gerry Keys, Robert Hole, Ronnie Shopper and John Dowling.

Mrs. Alex Hunt, Las Vecinas publicity chairman, reports this week that the club's welfare committee tripped to the Harbor General Hospital recently and looked over the equipment which Las Vecinas has given in the past year. Mrs. Leo Washington, welfare chairman, was accompanied by Mesdames John Diehl, R. W. Klock, and Alex Hunt. Among the items purchased and donated to the hospital are a kiln, hand looms, typewriter, weights, books, construction toys, vaporizer, and fifty dollars with which to purchase books.

former Rivierans Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brennan in their new home in New Jersey.

Talk about having visitors, let's take the John D. Smiths of 104 Paseo de Granada, for example. His folks, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Smith of Denver, Colo., visited very recently for a four-day stay. Right on their heels came their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Gifford of Lynn, Mass., who currently are with them for a three-week vacation. The Smiths have taken them to Knott's Berry Farm, the Farmer's Market, and other points of local interest.

Navy Lieutenant John Boniface and family of Calle de Arboles moved from Riviera recently when he was transferred to the Philippines; wife and three children accompanied him to his new island station. They had lived here for over a year.

NEW NEIGHBOR DEPT. Meet Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Katz, 532 Calle Mayor, who moved into Riviera recently from Newhall, out at the end of the San Fernando Valley. Mr. Katz is an engineer and manager of the firm Building Fasteners, Inc.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Tomam, 538 Calle Mayor, last March 31 at St. Luke's Hospital in Pasadena, was an 8 lb. 3 oz. girl whom they have named Mary Ann. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Zajec of Ontario, Calif. The Tomams are semi-nomads to Riviera, having moved here in January from Ontario. Mr. Tomam lived here previously as a bachelor and returned with his bride. He is an electrical foreman for the Edison Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Moore, 500 Calle de Arboles, have sold their home here and are moving to their new home on Via

Four Films Slated for Camino Lecture Series

In presenting its tenth in the current lecture-film series, El Camino College will offer four films Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in Room 8 of the Administration building.

Pictures to be shown are "Evolution of the Motion Picture," "Foot of Happiness," "Paint on the Coral Route," and "Korean Backgrounds."

The Administration building faces Crenshaw Blvd. between Redondo and Manhattan Beach Blvds., and no charge is made for the film presentation, according to Dr. William H. Harless, director of instruction on the college campus.

Edwin Parr Returns From Mediterranean

Edwin R. Parr, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Parr of 2725 Greenwood Ave., and husband of the former Miss Dorothy J. Warre of Torrance, returned to Norfolk, Va., April 17 from the Mediterranean aboard the heavy cruiser USS Albany.

The Atlantic Fleet ship left here in January for a tour of duty with the Sixth Fleet. She visited Portugal, France, Italy, Greece, Turkey, and Spain.

la Selva in Palos Verdes Estates. They are the owners of Moore's Market in Palos Verdes and Seaside.

And don't forget Saturday May 1, says Mrs. Ross Dorsett, proxy of Riviera PTA, for that's the date of their big carnival at El Retiro Park, commencing at 11 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wing, 516 Via Monte de Oro, have been battling the mumps at their house; their son Chris having returned to school after a siege of them. And of course the chickpeppox bug is making its rounds. As we said earlier, spring has sprung, and along with it, lots of children's diseases.

On a lighter side, Las Vecinas has scheduled its annual April Showers ball for Friday, May 14 at Portuguese Bend Club, 9 till 1 a.m. One important change—the title has been switched to "May Flowers" ball; more appropriate, ya know. So reports Mrs. Alex Hunt, publicity chairman for the women's group.

Honors have come to the family of Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Wurtz, 216 Via la Circula. Their daughter, Judy Wurtz, in competition in creative writing at Marymount of Palos Verdes, won first prize for the junior school division at Marymount and formal recognition by the Marymount School headquarters in Tarrytown, N. Y.

Discussed at the last meeting of Riviera's South Bay Community Christian School PTA was a tea to honor teachers at the school. One hundred fifty guests were expected at the social event which will be held Sunday May 16 at the Redondo Beach Woman's Club. Guests of honor at the tea will be Mrs. A. L. Trier, wife of the school principal, and Mrs. Joseph H. Tuttle, 1699th as well as the school in sponsoring capacity, and the teachers. Faculty includes Mesdames William Pollinger, Winston Styles and Arthur Paige; and Misses Eleanor Bradley, Marie Joyce Musung and Viera Graves.
