Notes on Narbonne

Gaucha Open House Hailed Successful
By Adrienne Sidwell DA 6-3703
Narbonne's Open House held last night was surely a big success with all the parents, kids, and friends. There was the Guild's Hobby Show, Spelling Bee among Narbonne Spelling Whizzes and parents, gymnastics exhibition, a show titled, "Fantasy In Bagdad," and many other fine exhibits on hand.

CONSTIPATION COLITIS and other digestive disturbances are being successfully treated with the GORDON DEXTOXIFIER. Also Swedish Massage, Cabinet Bath and Electrotherapy.

Just one more week to file student body applications. There are many fine offices in Girls League (for girls only!) and student body.

Girls, Girls, you are about to witness the most horrible event next week, Boys' Week, BOYS' WEEK! Mike McGee will temporarily take over Mr. Barnett's office. Many McGees will be visiting industries, city administrative offices, etc. Look's like the girls are going to have a big mess to clean up afterward! (Yes, I am a girl!)

This Sunday, the Knights and Ladies are going picnicking at Orange County Park. A swell time is promised.

Paula Dixon, Donna Beane, and Mr. and Mrs. Beane are motoring to Newport Beach Friday and Saturday.

A group of Gauchos, Marie Chullin, Lida Cardray, Millie Childs, Anett Grafe, Dorothy Searies, Marie Traunfelder, Laura Tolbert, and Yours truly, along with Miss Lancaster, and Miss Herwig, went fishing (?) off Redondo Pier last Sunday. The girls must have had a good time for they came home tired, fat, and sunburned! (Bet these gals were first to get sunburned this year!!) P.S. No fish was caught!!

There was a get-together at George Willis' home last Saturday night. Those seen having a great time were Tom Bailey, Jana Phifer, Malcolm Weyant, Linda Weise, John Callaway, Nancy Henry, Bill Blaine, Walter Bell, Sandra Cressey, Alma Cribbs, and the host, George.

SO POPULAR FOR ANY OCCASION

ARE THESE Hurricane candle holders and Jardenerie. An attractive centerpiece individually made of Masonite pressed wood, the Jardenerie will do wonders for your favorite plant, fresh flowers, and the like. The Hurricane candle-holders will add charm on your buffet or table. Suitable gift for future brides. The price of $3.59 includes tax, postage and handling. Allow 3 weeks for delivery. Send all checks to PANDORA'S NOVELTY SHOP, P.O. BOX 356, Lomita, Calif. No COD's, please. Candles (6 in.) and plant not included.

There was a get-together at George Willis' home last Saturday night. Those seen having a great time were Tom Bailey, Jana Phifer, Malcolm Weyant, Linda Weise, John Callaway, Gail Travers, Sharon Anderson, June McCann, Darlene McCann, and Rosalind Silavo went to a convention of the Future Homemakers of America last Saturday. All the girls echoed that the convention and the FOOD was wonderful.

Congratulations to Kathleen Foley, A-10, who has been at Narbonne for such a short while.

Attention all senior high students—The Lettermen's Club is planning to have a band on hand for tomorrow night's Senior High Sports Night. Loads of fun is promised.

Next Thursday, the Girls League is sponsoring Cotton Day. So come on, girls, let's get the old Singer out and make a new dress.

Don Myers, Mike McGee, Shirley Endo, Marie Traunfelder, Eve Petranovich, and Judy Patterson are the new Life Members of Senior Scholarship. Congratulations, kids, on a hard job well done.

Come on Gauchos, if you have any news of any kind, a broken leg, a sunburn, broken fingernail, bleached hair, a new car, engagement, or ANYTHING please contact me, either in the courtyard at sunset or noon or phone me, DA 6-3708.

See you at the Sports Night!

Four Gauchos in Zone Competition For Bank Awards

Next Thursday, Apr. 29, will be an important day for 23 high school seniors of this area, including four from Narbonne High School.

They will represent their schools in zone competitions of Bank of America's Achievement Awards program, Los Angeles City Schools Division, and the four who emerge as zone winners will receive cash awards ranging from $100 to $1000 each. Amount of the awards will be determined when they enter the finals next month.

All the students who participate next Thursday have already won achievement certificates, gold cups, and the right to represent their schools in earlier phases of the program.

In the competition from Narbonne High are Donald Burks, Myers, Jimmy D. Wright, James E. McGee, and Eve F. Petranovich. Gardena High School will be represented by Marian Helzman, Myrna Murawski, Beverly Taylor, and Dona Spears.

She won a $20 merchandise prize for the best decorated Easter-theme store window. Hope you like Narbonne, Kathleen!
