

Boys' Week To End Tomorrow At NHS

Tomorrow ends Boys' Week, harbor, newspaper offices, etc. (Finally, when!) Mike McGee temporarily routed Mr. Barnett from his office (better watch your position, Mr. Barnett). Other positions which were taken by boys are: vice-principal, Duke Blakesly; registrar, Jimmy Wright; counselor, Louie Sims; and librarian, Claire Hutton. Many Gauchos were excused from school Tuesday to visit various businesses, industries, the Narbonne students finally received the results of the Iowa tests Monday.

The Senior GAA had a sign-up for the second ten-week sports yesterday. Softball and bowling are the sports. The semi-annual GAA Banquet will be held Friday, June 4.

Dorothy Scaries accompanied

Laura Tolbert and her family on a trip to the San Gabriel mountains last Friday evening. Hey, Dorothy, what's this about you standing on a bridge with Laura's dog and leaning a little too far out above a stream? What happened? Laura and Dorothy arrived safely home, a little tired, Sunday evening.

Paula Dixon, Donna Beane and Mr. and Mrs. Beane motored to Newport Beach over the weekend for a really "crazy" time.

Sunday afternoon the Knights and Ladies had a picnic at Orange County Park. Bicycling, boat-riding, games, gossip, and food were enjoyed by all there. The Knights and Ladies would like to thank Mr. Cobbs for providing the coles.

Marge Cullinan and Yours Truly visited the Science Fair at Los Angeles County Museum last Friday and saw some exhibits made by Narbonne students Don Myers, Jim Flagg, Deanna Weiss, and Gordon Rousong.

Narbonne's Talent Show has been postponed until May 12 and 13. On Wednesday, May 12, Narbonne students will see the show, with the theme of "McCowdiga's Travels," during an assembly period. Tickets will be 25 cents. The whole community will be invited to the Thursday evening performance. Tickets will be sold for 50 cents. The performers have been preparing tediously for the show for several weeks. It could be a great show.

Five of our Gaucho gymnasts qualified for the city semi-finals. They are: Lyle Devore, Johnny Sampson, Ronnie Lane, Bob Isom, and Vic Martinov. The whole team deserves a lot of credit for their wonderful spirit.

Tickets for the Junior and Senior Prom, May 28, will go on sale for $2.20, starting May 12. The theme is "Orchids in the Moonlight." The band is yet to be chosen.

Pat McNeese, A-9, is Narbonne's brand new spelling champ! Janice Chambers, A-12, and Jerry Coulter, A-11, took second and third places respectively. Other winners by class are:

Seventh grade: Earl Kilgore, Sherry Jones, and Gary Lewis. Eighth grade: Ellen Anderson, Bob Baker, Carlene Buck, Gary Lee, Mary Hagen, Roberta Clark, and Kenji Matsumura. Ninth grade: Pamela Adams, Carol Hellerud, and Pat McNeese.

Tenth grade: Pat Edwards, Gregg Hornaday, Eddie Lewis, Gene Wood, Colleen McCormick, and Janice McNeal.

Eleventh grade: Pat Taylor, Tom Shery, and Don Davis.

Twelfth grade: Janice Chambers, Sharon Babb, and Gloria Johnson.

What was probably the last Senior High Sports Night was held last Friday evening. Many prizes were awarded and a great time was had by all. A band composed of Jim and Orville Balcom, Henry Brink, Gary Cope and Guillermo Burrola, played some really hot jove.

Narbonne has some fine students entered in the American Legion Essay Contest. The senior high students, along with their teachers, are to be congratulated. They are Danny Marsh, Marie Traunfelder, Janice McNeal, Nancy Maxwell, Donna Reekers, Joyce Ende, Joe Sitts, and Don Myers. The junior high contestants are Mary Robinson, Anita Friedrichs, Edward Kauble, Joan Henley, Jim Flagg, Darlene Davis, Pamela Adams, Geraldine Daniels, Lynn McFarland, and Pat McNeese.

NARBONNE NOTES — GAL 2 Hey gals, Cotton Day is May 11!

Tomorrow, the A-12s have their Senior Picnic at Santa Catalina Island! How's that for class?

Yesterday, two teams from the Senior GAA played softball against Chadwick School in a tight game.

Lyle Braughton for the Senior High and Kei Kimura for the junior high won the auto-graphed baseballs in last Thursday's Booster Tag Drive.

"Gaylords" has been chosen the A-11 class name and emblem. The class is making the final vote on sweater color this week. The money for the sweaters must be in by June 16. Pull-overs with service charge, and emblem are $9.75 and the coat sweaters are $10.25.

Tomorrow the cafeteria is having a special "Cinco de Mayo Luncheon" with real Mexican food.

Seaman Lands In San Diego Award Tender

Scheduled to arrive in San Diego from the Far East aboard the destroyer tender USS Prairie recently was Gary N. Winn, metalsmith third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ora L. Winn of 3923 Torrance Blvd.

While based in Sasebo, Japan, for ten months, the Prairie service over 500 ships, furnishing supplies and spare parts, manufacturing parts, making repairs, providing medical and dental care, and offering the services of chaplains.

In the Far East, the Prairie was the flagship of the Commander of the UN's blockading and Escorting Force. In San Diego, the tender will be the flagship of the Commander of the Pacific Fleet Cruiser-Destroyer Force.

Enlistment Quotas For Navy up, Says Recruiter

Enlistment quotas for the U. S. Navy have been increased and waiting time between application and enlistment has been reduced according to Clifford E. Findley, ENC, USN, recruiter for the South Bay area, who is stationed at the Naval Recruiting Station at 1822 Market St., Gardena.

Chief Findley reports that there are a few vacancies for immediate enlistment and advises all young men who are interested in a career in the U. S. Navy to apply at the station, which is located in the VFW Memorial Hall in Gardena.
