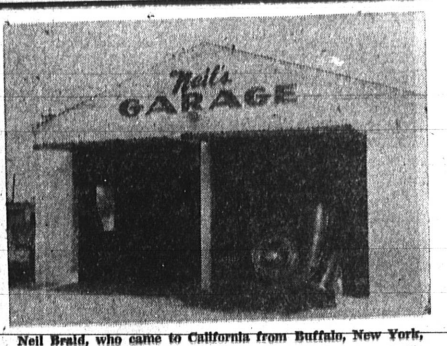
1954 TORRANCE BUSINESS REVIEW 1954

The above 24 foot trailer is one of the latest models built by King Trailer Co., 437 E. Carson Street. This trailer comes with a complete bath, electric-ice refrigerator, apartment size stove, choice of interiors and island bed or twin beds, both front and back doors, and panelray heat. This trailer is triple insulated and it's construction, as well as all trailers built by King Trailer Co., was supervised by Walter King, owner, Mr. King personally supervises the building of all custom trailers, also, and any size and type can be built to your specifications. Mrs. King handles the office details. By selling direct they are able to offer more quality for less money.

A complete line of stationery supplies for the home or office is carried by Parrish Stationers, 1423 Marcelina Avenue in Torrance. Mr. D. D. Parrish, owner, also handles rentals and repairs on all types of office machines and assures you that by calling FA 8-6074 or FA 8-1820 you will receive prompt attention to your telephone request. Parrish Stationers is also the place to look over that new office furniture you have been thinking about purchasing as they have a very fine selection. If they haven't in stock what you want, they will be glad to order it.

Complete plumbing service and repair is offered by Jay R. Ware at their new location, 24423 S. Hawthorne Avenue in Walteria. Mr. Ware, owner, recently completed the construction of his new building which is completely modern in every detail and offers not only working space for his employees but handles a complete stock of plumbing fixtures and equipment. Mr. Ware and his seven employees keep four trucks busy at all times on new construction as well as remodeling plumbing services.



Neil Braid, who came to California from Buffalo, New York, in July of 1953, opened his place of business known as Neil's Garage & Service Station, 20320 S. Normandy, in September of that same year. Mr. Braid handles all types of general auto repairing, including automatic transmissions. He is equipped to handle everything from tuneup to a complete motor overhaul as well as being an expert on foreign cars. Mr. Braid is married and has one daughter; he and his family live in a home directly in back of his place of business.
