CSEA Splits

Donation Fund

The California School Employees Association split its donation fund between the "Chuckie" Smith fund and the senior class party at its last meeting, it was reported Monday. The meeting was held in the Fern Ave. School cafeteria Thursday and nomination of officers and selection of delegates shared the agenda. The CSEA contributed $45 to the fund for the Walteria child who is dying of cancer "Chuckie" Smith, and gave $50 toward the senior party.

Lomita Navy Man Attends Communications School

Attending the U. S. Naval Interior Communications Electrician School in San Diego is Charles D. Kline, fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Kline of 638 Harbor Hills, Lomita.

Students at the school are taught the care and maintenance of shipboard navigational equipment. This includes electrical and magnetic compasses such as the synchro units, gyro-compass systems and related equipment. Graduates of the school are generally assigned to shipboard duties upon completion of their training.
