

Scout Mothers Hold White Elephant Fete

By URE BURK
FR 5-4549

The Scout Mothers Club carried out its monthly meeting at a white elephant party given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Muldoon of Sharynne Lane in the Rancho. Ticked with their white elephants were Meses Ruth Slavens, Yvonne Raiche, Bonnie Evans, Kitty Ender and her young daughter, (Beth Corrine) Madge Graham, Helen Morris, Mildred Nelms, Jane Parent, Margaret Whyte, Janet Wood, Virginia Bartholic, Sue Burk, Marian Colby, Laverne Sedgwick, Alma Kissell, Virginia Naumann, Isabelle Gaul, and our lovely hostess, Mildred Muldoon. New members of the club welcomed by our president, Madge Graham, were Ruth Slavens, Yvonne Raiche, Virginia Bartholic, Marian Colby, and Laverne Sedgwick. Topping off a very nice evening, the ladies enjoyed two delicious cakes, (chocolate and yellow) and coffee. The next meeting will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham of Sepulveda Gardens at which time officers for the following year will be chosen.

A little birdie told this reporter that she is happy that her little gardens will no longer be known as Cesspool Hollow, for Sepulveda Gardens is at last getting sewers. We're happy for you, all of you in the gardens.

Frank Parent has returned from a trip to San Diego that brought him good luck. Frank and a couple of old cronies went fishing and brought back a pretty nice catch.

Best wishes this week go to Bobetta and Harry Dean Holstein and Larry Caudill of the Heights

Family Service Group to Install Officers Today

Three new officers are to be installed to the Harbor Area Advisory Council of the Family Service of Los Angeles at their annual luncheon at the Lomita Elementary School today.

The new officers will be: Mrs. Jane Rye, 6515 Via Slena, San Pedro, chairman; Mrs. John Parks, 1822 Acacia Ave., Torrance, secretary; and the Rev. Robert Wells, 24719 Woodward Ave., Lomita, vice-chairman.

Luncheon speaker is to be Carl M. Shafer, executive director, Family Service of Pasadena. His topic is "The Family Agency and Preventive Mental Health."

More than 100 Harbor residents, including representatives from the 14 Community Chest agencies in the area are expected to be on hand to help this Community Chest-sponsored agency celebrate its 23rd birthday.

Main purpose of Family Service is to help families with problems that may arise during the course of daily existence. Family Service offers counseling to families whose unity is threatened.

It also offers service to adolescents, older persons and to unwed mothers.

Family Service is located in the Community Chest Service Center, 1427 S. Pacific Ave., in San Pedro.

who have suffered pretty much with a case of tonsillitis.

Many happy returns to John and Alma Kissell of the Rancho who recently celebrated their 16th anniversary in Palm Dale, where they enjoyed a lovely dinner.

Saturday, May 15 saw a very lovely and prosperous bake sale at the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church of Redondo. It was sponsored by the First Watch of Mariners, Couples Club, with the purpose to send students to conference schools. We are happy to know the sale was a big success. Through this item may we express many thanks to the hundreds of donations from residents of the Seaside area. (Reported by Janet Wood of Seaside Ranchos).

Best wishes also go to little Jill Martin of 5307 Reese Rd., who received a cracked skull in a fall off the back steps of her home. Three stitches were taken in little Jill's head to close the wound. Do hope she is feeling much better by the time this breaks into print.

Our thanks to a lovely little lady of the Rancho, Mrs. Wilks, who gave the Parent-Teachers Association something to be really proud of in her historical report this year. The history is in verse form and believe me the verse is beautiful and done very well.

PGA Parke, president of the PTA of 68-54, and the board members join me in thanking the Torrance Herald for the many nice write-ups and pictures of this past year. Also, we would like to express our best wishes to Mrs. Welliver and her PTA board for the following year and hope them every success possible.

With the hot and heavy battle of the primary election for student body officers at Seaside School over and done with, the general election passed with very little arguments. Chosen for the following officers by a majority vote were Mike Ballcliff for president, Richard Powell as first vice-president; David Pace as second vice-pres-

45 to Die in Traffic Over Holiday--CHP

California's motorists approach the Memorial Day weekend holiday with the best traffic safety record in recent years. "Let's keep it that way," urged the California Highway Patrol this week.

At the same time the Patrol cautioned motorists that 45 persons are expected to die in California traffic during the holiday according to the estimates of statisticians.

Highway Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell announced that the Patrol will continue to emphasize safety enforcement to discourage accident-causing violations and offered a five point program for motorists in order to help them stay alive in the heaviest traffic of the year thus far:

1. Be sure the car is in safe mechanical condition before starting.
2. Never plan a trip longer than can be made with safety.
3. Travel in the proper lane at a speed consistent with the flow of traffic.
4. Do not drive when overtired or sleepy.
5. Never drive after drinking.
6. If holiday highway users will manage their driving to comply with these five points, we can create a pleasant surprise for the statisticians and also make this Memorial Day a time to honor the dead and not time to join them," Caldwell commented.

To Honor Four At Driver Meet

Presentation of four honorary memberships into the California Driver Education Association annual convention to be held will be a highlight of the first at California State Polytechnic college May 29-31, according to Dr. Marshall Crawshaw, director of Adult Education in Torrance and president of the Association. Receiving memberships will be Dr. Roy B. Simpson, state superintendent of public instruction; Dr. M. E. Muschitz of Sacramento, department of education; Assemblyman Earl W. Stanley and Judge A. J. Bernhardt, former municipal traffic court judge in Los Angeles.

dent. and Maren Courtney will hold the office of secretary-treasurer. These children will take their offices next September starting the 1954-55 school year. Best wishes to these children-our future builders, planners and dreamers who will keep this beautiful country of ours living free and brave for the many years to come.

At least one lady of the Rancho area is excited and terribly happy this week. Eve Zer-vantian of 5131 Reese Rd. was the sweepstakes winner over 45 more entrants in a cake bake-contest sponsored by the Women's Clubs of Hermosa Beach. For the best all-around cake (flavor, decoration, texture and etc.) Eve won a gas range, a new 1954 model, given by the Redondo Trading Post. Eve's cake was made into a basket weave effect topped with yellow roses with a basket handle of candy frosting tied with a pretty candy bow. Her picture with the judges of the contest and her new range will appear in local newspapers and a national home magazine. We are happy you won Eve, and it is a shame indeed that we didn't get a taste of that beautiful cake.

Betty Walker and husband, Peg Parke and husband, along with many other gals who managed to drag their spouses out for an evening of fun were handsomely dressed and enjoying a night of square dancing at Seaside School the other night. Those present, too numerous to mention, really cut up the floor of the Seaside auditorium to the kind of square dancing that we hadn't seen in a long, long time; anyway, the kind I hadn't seen since I was in pigtails. After dancing the couples enjoyed doughnuts and coffee in the dormer room. Some fun, huh kids? That's all for now; see you next week and remember, call your news to Frontier 5-4549. I'd be ever so happy to hear from you!
