Reflections

By J. HUGH SHERFEY, JR.

"I'M RETIRED"
"What a joke that is," rumbled Mark Flaker's big, deep, happy laugh. "I was going to fish, and eat, and let the world slide by." His old eyes twinkled and his hands opened. "One can't do that. Nature exacts a price and that price is mental and physical activity. I've changed my way of living, but not the payment."

"I'm clumsy with a saw but I've made shelves and two picket gates; I'm nursemaid to carrots and onions; I'd forgotten the sparkling exhilaration of conversation; I've never had time to know my family; I'm getting acquainted with my grandchildren. I haven't been fishing. Too many jobs to loaf. We go to bed when we're tired and arise when we are rested and the days fly by. I'm retired, yes, but I've never worked harder, been busier, nor happier in my life."

"Retired? Graduated is a better word, to something more interesting." (Ed. note:—Mark Flaker was a Telephone Executive; moved here and is one of the happiest men I've ever known.)

HORSE DECLINE

National Electric Bows to Merchants

The Carson Merchants continued to look like the pick of the Class A Softball League here Thursday night as they pounded out a 4-1 victory over the strong National Electric squad at Torrance Park.

Pitcher Tony Monzo put a fat one in to Franklin Schmidt, who led off for the Nats and Schmidt doubled to center field. Nick Dellan singles the next offerings to score Schmidt, and Monzo dropped the curtain. Bill Dietlin doubled in the second inning to be the only other man to reach first base during the game.

Win in Fifth
In the meantime, the Merchants scored Bill Greer in the fourth inning to tie up the game, and pushed across three runs in the fifth frame to go ahead 4-1.

Dow Chemical continued to push for top honors in the Class A League by knocking off Colard-dwelling National Supply 6-2 in the other league fray Tuesday. Dow went ahead in the second inning and scored in all but the fourth. Rusty Brooks let the National team down with two singles during the evening while Dow batters collected two round-trippers, a double, and six singles off the slants of Art Huntzman.

Laforteza was the owner and operator of a farm at 18715 Crenshaw Blvd., and had lived in Torrance for 11 years. He was born in the Philippine Islands.

(Service Manager)

Howdy Folks:

We have such good news for you this week, that even our Service Salesman, Everett Eickland is wearing a big smile because the Imported car business has grown to the extent that they need more room, so they are moving all the Imported car service to 700 Pacific Coast Hwy.

This gives us adequate room and mechanics to work on your car. No longer will you have to stand and wait while Ray lubes an M. G. So bring your car on in and Everett, who has been associated with Studebakers for 5 years, will gladly take care of your needs. This is National "Get the Dents Out" month, so bring your car in to Bacon's Service, 1200 Pacific Coast Hwy., Hermosa Beach, and see what a good job we can do in smoothing out those dents. See ya soon!

We watched Jimmie grow!

- Jimmie was a shy little kid when he started out as a newspaperboy. He didn't have much "get up and go". In fact, he was even a little afraid of meeting and talking to folks on his route.
- Within a couple of weeks, Jimmie got over some of his bashfulness. He enjoyed chatting with customers when making collections. He's learned the value of money from first-hand experience.
- In competition with other boys, Jimmie is finding out how to "sell" and conduct a business of his own. He wins extra rewards. He makes greater route profits. He even carries his own insurance.
- Jimmie has developed into the kind of boy you like to meet. And, he is continuing to learn principles that will pay big dividends in later years.
