

Legion Auxiliary President Fetes Officers, Chairmen

A tape recorder gave a note of grace and an amusing climax to last night's dinner party, given by Mrs. Carl Ross, American Legion Auxiliary president, to honor her officers and chairmen.

Guests bowed their heads to "The Lord's Prayer," recorded by John Charles Thomas, before the meal, and laughed continuously when the hostess surprised them with a taped review of the festivities at the close of the evening.

Gilded balance scales entwined with spring flowers highlighted table decor at the annual fete. Each of the 15 place settings was marked with an umbrella formed of vari-colored handles.

After the president had presented each guest with a gift in appreciation for her services during the past year, card games were enjoyed in the rumpus room. Winning top honors were Mesdames James Wilkes, Harry Green, E. K. Cunningham, and Clarence Youngken.

'Stork Story' FROM TORRANCE MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

Birth records at Torrance Memorial Hospital last week showed the sexes evenly divided. Two boys and two girls were born.

Messrs. and Mesdames Donald F. Watson, 20520 Elliot Ave., and Arthur M. Denny, 1223 1/2 W. 219th St., are parents of the new sons, while the Thomas H. Herrins, 1630 Crenshaw Blvd., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Vasquez of W. 235th St., are parents of new daughters.

The Watson infant, their first, weighed 7 lbs. 8 oz. when born at 8:31 a.m. June 8. Father is a bricklayer with Stauffer Chemical Co.; grandparents are Messrs. and Mesdames Leo Wasner of the Elliot St. address, and M. C. Ward of Concordia, Kans.

Six lb. 9 oz. Tom Arthur, son of the Denny's, was born June 13, joining a seven-year-old half-sister, Gayle Carol Johnson. Father is a painter with American Latex Co.; Mrs. Tom Kommer and Mr. and Mrs. Art Denny, all of Gardena, are grandparents.

Newest addition to the Herrin family is 5 lb. 5/8 oz. Masz Frances, whose father is employed at Richfield Oil Co. Born at 1:54 a.m. June 13, the baby girl has one brother, George Thomas, and three sisters, Catherine Elaine, Valerie Ann, and Janet Louise. Mrs. Ida Earle of Torrance is the grandmother.

The Vasquez infant, born at 9:05 p.m. June 17, joins a five-year-old sister, Dolly Victoria, and a 17-month-old brother, Charles Anthony. Named Arlinda June, she weighed 5 lbs. 6 oz. Father is employed at Columbia Steel; Messrs. and Mesdames Charles C. Vasquez of Lomita and Joe Perez of Thermal, Calif., are grandparents.

Girl Scouts Honor Dads

Dad came into his own last week when the Girl Scouts of Troop 1299, sponsored by Fern Ave.-Greenwood PTA, held a potluck social at Torrance Park to honor their fathers.

As a token of the evening, each father received a photo of his daughter.

Also honored was Mrs. Margaret Clayton, one of the co-leaders who is leaving the troop. The retiring executive received an orchid corsage from the girls and a gift from the Mothers Club.

Following the presentation, Mrs. Earl Brainard, field executive, invited Mrs. G. D. Arrasmith to succeed Mrs. Clayton.

Awarding of 73 badges to the 20 girls in the troop highlighted the program, which also included a review of the year's activities, a short skit showing the do's and don'ts of Scouting, and the singing of campfire songs. About 75 attended the social.

REBEKAHS TO INITIATE

New members will be initiated into Trio Rebekah Lodge next Wednesday night when the group holds an 8 p.m. meeting at the California Hall in Lomita.

Using pink and green, the Rebekah colors, as decoration motif, the Lodge entertained courtesy officers on Friendship Night Wednesday of last week. Among guests attending were Amelia Osterberg, past president of California; Elizabeth Tappin, past president of Arizona; and Rachel Walker, district deputy president of District 10.

Highlighting the program were vocal selections by Kay Curry, accompanied at the piano by Dennis Hudson. In charge of the affair were Bertha Fern.

Women Get Posture Tips Tomorrow

Rhythm of movement will be the theme of the next class in charm to be offered to women in this area at the Torrance YWCA tomorrow at 11 a.m.

The girls will learn how to sit and walk gracefully, and generally improve their posture through a talk and demonstration by Mrs. Edith Dahlen, who is conducting the course.

As this is part of the Y-wives program, volleyball, ping-pong, and other sports will be available for those wishing to come to the Y at 10 a.m. A brief business session also will precede the charm class.

Arrangements have been made for the supervision of pre-school children during the class sessions. Last week members of the group were given exercises to correct various figure faults. At future sessions, hair styling and make-up will be considered.

Harbor PTA Awards 'Life' To Principal

Assistance he has given Harbor City PTA and its members during the past year won Principal Winston Scott an honorary life membership, the highest award which can be bestowed by a PTA, last week.

Presentation of the award highlighted a luncheon held last Thursday by the unit in honor of the school faculty and staff. Also receiving recognition and a farewell gift from the PTA board at the affair was Mrs. Eunice Ball, first grade teacher, who is leaving with her husband for Alaska this summer.

A small slate inscribed with a verse telling the plans of each guest for summer vacation formed the base for nut cups marking each place setting.

Honored guests attending were Dr. M. Dickinson, school physician; Scott, John McClintock, Emiel Porter Jr., John Young, Harold Ball, William Cleary, and Mesdames Julia Bush, Mary Griff, Marion White, Alice Gosdill, Violet Crawford, Manuela Matute, Julia Cucci, Cleone Isom, Gertrude Crum, Ball, Fern Richards, Ida Ellis, Myra Davis, Marjorie Willacy, Amy Jenkins, Anna Christensen, Hattie Wilkins, Frances Barron, Julia Border, and Nina Hudson.

New Remedial Reading Class Starts Monday

Help for children who have difficulty in reading will be given for the next six weeks, beginning Monday, June 22, at a remedial reading class to be sponsored by the Compton Counseling Service at its headquarters, 408 N. Culver St. First session, to be held at 10:30 a.m. Monday, will be devoted to acquaint mothers with the course. The following Tuesday, at 9 a.m., tests will be given to determine the children's reading ability and type of problem.

One-hour classes five days a week will follow, with Mrs. Luvena Sparks, a certified public school teacher in the elementary grades and a member of the service staff, conducting. Further information may be obtained by calling NEWmark 2-8812.

Temperance Group To Meet Tomorrow

The Rev. Arthur Bello of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church will be the speaker tomorrow when the Women's Christian Temperance Union holds an 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. meeting at the First Baptist Church. Mrs. Maude Obarr, who currently is attending an international WCTU convention in Vancouver, Canada, will give a report of the meeting at the July session.
