Sorority Will Send Gal to Camp

One Torrance girl who perhaps otherwise might not have the opportunity to share in such an experience will enjoy summer camp, thanks to Tau Delta Omega sorority.

Members voted to defray all expenses of sending a local gal to camp at their June business meeting, held at the Sonoma St. home of Mrs. Pearl Sandie. Capturing prizes for racking up high scores in the card games which followed were Mesdames Mary E. DeVore, Helen Smith, and Cicilia Mumford.

A motor trip to San Fernando Valley highlighted last Tuesday for the sorority.

Memories of Long Ago Color Marriage Ceremony Uniting Lou McFarland, S. Reynolds

Memories of the past were many Saturday of last week when Miss Lou Ann McFarland and Stephen Foster Reynolds said "I do" at the bride's home, 2009 Arlington Ave.

For the officiating minister, the Rev. Charles Swift Sr., also conducted ceremonies uniting in marriage her parents, the Melvin a McFarlands, 23 years ago and her sister, DeDe May, with Donald Delvin last May.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss McFarland chose a powder blue organdy frock with white accessories and a lavender orchid corsage surrounded with delicate white lace. White accessories also were chosen by her only attendant, Mrs. Delvin.

The bride, a senior at Torrance High School, will make her home with her parents while her husband completes his Army service. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren W. Reynolds, 2440 N. Neece Ave., Walteria, he graduated from THS last year.

Halldale PTA Seats Salcido As President

With Mrs. William Brocklebank, president of Lomita-San Pedro Council conducting, Mrs. E. E. Salcido was seated officially as 1953-54 president of Halldale PTA Thursday of last week.

Installed to assist her were Mesdames E. N. Reese, first vice-president; Amanda Bonwell, second vice-president; Fred Schimmel, recording secretary; David Goolsby, treasurer; John Andrade, financial secretary; Walter Schwass, auditor; William McAllister, historian; and Ed Campbell, parliamentarian.

Introduction of the graduating class by Mrs. Bonwell highlighted the program, which also included a musical interlude presented by the sixth grade chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Adams.

9-Day Groom Enters Army

The Army called young Dwayne just nine short days after his marriage to Miss Ethel Craig at quiet ceremonies in Las Vegas on June 9.

The son of Mrs. Gertrude McCormick, 1552 W. 203rd St., 20-year-old Witty has been employed at General Motors Corp. He is a graduate of San Pedro High School.

His 17-year-old bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Oriani, 22213 Meyer St., is a junior at Narbonne High School. For the simple wedding rites, she chose a light blue suit accented with a corsage of red roses.

News of the marriage was revealed Saturday night last week when Mrs. McCormick honored the new Mr. and Mrs. with a dinner at her home. Relatives and close friends attended the affair.

JUNE BUSY MONTH FOR BPW CLUB

An evening of food and fun in Chinatown, a section breakfast, and a district luncheon have made the month of June a busy one for members of the local Business and Professional Women's Club.

Nearly all of the members motored to Chinatown last Monday night for dinner and a tour of the picturesque sights in the quarter.

Six club leaders gathered at the El Segundo Woman's Club on June 7 to attend the first section breakfast to be conducted

Attend Federation Class

Mrs. Virginia Beck, president of the local BPW club, will attend the second session of a four-week course on "Federation Orientation" next Tuesday, June 23, at Long Beach.

Joining with her in the study group will be Herma Tillim, Helen Parrish, Molly Marshall, and Hilda Monroe.

ed by the new section chairman, Zada Ramsey, who is a past president of the local BPW. Enjoying the meal and participation in a workshop on membership were Bessie Tufts, Virginia Beck, Helen Parrish, Mary Toombs, Evelyn Lynch, and Gertrude Taylor.

That same afternoon, Mesdames Herma Tillim, Toombs, Lynch, Tufts, Beck, and Arvilla Owens attended a Los Angeles Sierra Mar District luncheon at the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach. A workshop on "Key to Beach, Fuller Living," showing visually and orally how clubs can coordinate all chairmen into one project for one year, "Our Town," followed the luncheon.

Local members will continue this discussion when they hold their next meeting at the City Hall on July 6, 7 p.m.

SCHOOLEYS HONOR DAUGHTER MARLENE

Daughter Marlene's graduation from Torrance High School provided incentive Thursday night last week for Mr. and Mrs. Homer H. Schooley to hold a reception at their 2517 Eldorado St. home.

Mrs. Schooley used navy and white tapers flanking a center table bouquet of red roses to carry out the color motif of the graduating class.

Among the 85 relatives and friends attending were the honoree's grandparents, Mrs. Martha E. Riggle, 2655 Eldorado St., and Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Schooley of Redondo Beach. Cities represented on the guest list included Claremont, Pacific Palisades, Compton, and Hawthorne.

GISHES HAVE VISITORS

M. and Mrs. F. H. Gish, 2836 W. 175th St., have been entertaining several out-of-town guests this past week. Visitors at their home have been Airman First Class James Cruppen of Luke Air Force Base, Ariz.; Richard Cruppen of Wichita, Kans.; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cruppen of Hutchinson, Kans.; and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gish and son Richard of Murdock, Kans.
