

15 Scouts Get Honor Awards

Fifteen Boy Scouts of Troop 240, Waveria, received awards at a Court of Honor held recently, with parents and friends looking on.

Receiving Tenderfoot awards were Floyd Ramsey, Gary Thompson, Glen Postwick, Bob Butcher, Richard Hill, Gary Farfull, and Victor Pestoff.

Those who were presented with their second class pins were Dennis Lupin, Dennis Harvey, Donald Lipari, Pat Willey, and Robert Johnson.

William Butcher received his first class pin plus four merit badges, and Charles Adams got his star plus eight merit badges. Robert Walker, life scout, was awarded two merit badges toward the Eagle Trail.

Final winner was Robert Johnson, who got a prize cup for selling the "most Scout-O-Rama tickets. Star Scout Adams presented a demonstration on how to treat snakebite with ethyl chloride. Mrs. Elaine Pestoff, publicity chairman for the troop, announced.

2 Members of Scout Troop 761 First to Receive Star Awards

Roger Snell, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Snell, and John Simon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Simon, received Star Scout awards at Boy Scout Troop 761's Court of Honor held Thursday, June 25 at McMaster Park. They are the first boys who have been given these awards in Troop 761.

Mrs. Snell and Mrs. Simon received miniature duplicates of their sons' awards.

Trophies for the most tickets sold to Scout-O-Rama went to Roger Snell in the Explorer class, and Jimmy Snell and Michael Henderson in the Scout group.

Tenderfoot awards were presented to Steve Sandburg, Bruce Guilliano, Mark Low, Jim Azaro, Don Sheffield, Kenneth Mac-

Kenzie, Everett Harris, G. Camden, and R. Grace.

A piano solo, "Two Guitars," by Gene Caton preceded the presentation of Second Class awards to Robert Crabtree, Billy Verburg, Richard Finch, Elmit Eastcott, Wayne Winther, and Kenneth Begando. One-year pins were given to Begando and Winther, and Eastcott also received a two-year pin.

Mr. W. D. Caton presented First Class awards and merit badges to Joe Hedgecock, two-year pin and merit badge in carpentry; James Snell, one-year pin; Gene Caton, merit badges in music and angling; Donald Alford, two-year pin; Winkle Caton, merit badges in music and angling. This presentation was preceded by Mitchell Henderson's rendition of "Twelfth Street Rag" on the piano.

Carsonites Enjoy Safe, Sane Fourth

By GWEN BARKAN
FAIRfax 8-0359

From all appearances, the Carson district celebrated a most safe and sane Fourth—out the back yards were lighted a night with flares and Roman candles, while small spirits whirled hither and yon with sparklers.

One of the busiest young women we know is Miss Carol Clark, 22401 S. Moneta Dr. After receiving her bachelor of Arts degree from Long Beach State College in June, she secured a job as assistant playground director and has been busy six days a week ever since. Mornings find her opening the playground at El Retiro Park in Torrance, and afternoons at the Hollywood Riviera playground. Part of her duties entail the supervision of a group of fledgling swimmers Tuesdays and Thursdays at El Camino College. And Monday and Wednesday evenings she is typing. The rest of the time she is on vacation (7).

Speaking of playgrounds, the Carson St. School playground is open every day from 12:30 to 5:30 Monday through Friday, under the supervision of Robert Smith and his assistant, Miss Martha Hunt. A full program has been planned and all children are invited to enjoy it. The daily slate is as follows: 12:30-2 p.m., crafts; 2-3 p.m., specials (parties, talent shows, movies and roller skating); 3:30-4 p.m., story-telling; 4:30-5 p.m., play acting, folk dancing, fun with music; 4:30-5 p.m., organized games such as baseball, basketball, net ball and tournaments.

Toy loan will be open every Tuesday from 1 to 3 p.m.

July 2 was a very busy day for the ladies of the Women's Missionary Society of the Assembly of God Church. First the group, with Mrs. Etta Crause presiding, heard a most interesting talk on "Personal Witnessing" by Rev. Maeshow. A covered dish luncheon and a stork shower in honor of Mrs. James Northcutt followed.

Attending were Rev. Charlotte Shook, pastor, and Mmes. D'Edward, Wolfenberger, E. Mar-

Lockwood, M. Dubois, Trause, Smith, Borges, Howell, Jorsett, and W. Roller.

Mrs. Helen Howell and baby daughter are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Borges, 222 E. 220th St. Mrs. Howell is from Bellville, Ill.

Mrs. George Howell plans a dinner party and style show at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Borges, 222 E. 220th St., next Wednesday evening, July 15, at 7 o'clock.

Children attending the Catholic Vacation School at Nativity School from this area were Harry and Andrea Billings, Benjamin Delbenes, Libby and Kelsey Barkan, Jeanette and Diane DiPrete, Darlene Olguin, Vicky LaCombe, Olivia Robinson, Margaret Cayton. The children wound things up in fine style with a picnic last Thursday at the school, thanks to Father P. J. McGuinness.
