Motorcycle Card Set for Carrell

Carrell Speedway has been concentrating this week on tomorrow night's A.M.A. motorcycle race card of 14 events. No action is scheduled for Saturday evening with all hands working on the gigantic 100-lap URA Stock Car Championships set for the night of Saturday, July 25.

Tomorrow night the cycle fraternity have a wild and woolly card on tap. Rumored to be back in action is Big Bert Brundage, the scourge of the speedways last year. Bert has been out of action since he fractured his ankle late last season.

Target for the night will be Battling Chuck Basney, the famed Mighty Mite and motorcycledom's Mean Man, who has been sweeping the Carrell cycle cards of late.

PARK SYSTEM
Largest metropolitan park system in the world is found in the national capital parks in addition to the adjacent areas.

Cards Go Ahead By One Game in Little League

The Elks Cardinals shaped up as the team to beat in the Little Leagues following last week-end's games, which saw the Cards establish a firm hold on first place in league standings by trimming the Lions' Cubs 2-0 to give them a one-game lead over the Harvey Braves and Torrance Builders Giants, who are tied for second.

In a game played Sunday at the Little League Park, the Cards blanked the Cubs with one hit and Card pitcher Harty struck out 13 in a sterling mound performance.

In another Sunday game, the Pirates unlimbered their potent bats on three Builders' Giant pitchers in a 22-3 rout. The Pirates garnered 16 hits in the win.

On Saturday, the Braves beat the Dodgers and the Pirates topped the Pirates' Gary Des...
