THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that testify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the individual is made a part of the church's character. It is here that we find the church's life and leadership in the hands of those who are called to the church in the "power" of the Holy Spirit. This is a day of reckoning. This is a day of exactness. This is a day when every man must stand up and be counted. Whether you are a watchmaker or a grinder of high-powered lenses... you've got to be good. God demands our best. He is not satisfied with average products. To be out of measurement means the whole of what you are doing is useless. Precision grinding is expected of you if you are to be trusted with the operation of this highly efficient machine. Spiritual Precision is necessary if you are to walk with God.

We also are to work in the field of sensitive minds, hearts, nerves and spirits. This is the realm of spiritual and eternal values. Flesh and blood persons are to be dealt with. Am I as careful in moulding the life of a child as in creating a watch, or a lens, or a pilotless plane? There is no better place to learn of the fundamental workings of God than at the little church on the corner. Here, you will hear the Master Workman, as he says, "Inasmuch as you did it unto one of the least of these, you did it unto me."

Nearly a century of living will be commemorated this afternoon when Mr. and Mrs. A. J. DeFields open their 1411 Crenshaw Blvd. home for a party honoring his grandmother, Mrs. Mary J. Smith of Redondo Beach, on her 93rd birthday.

Born July 1, 1860 in Deerfield, Ohio, Mrs. Smith was married at the age of 17 to a third cousin of Abraham Lincoln, who died two years later. She then married Alonzo B. Smith, and the couple celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary before Smith died in 1944.

After his death, Mrs. Smith moved to California with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. DeFields. The two women now make their home in Redondo Beach.

Until the last few years, when her sight has failed, the 93-year-old woman's favorite pastime was piecing quilts for her seven grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren, and six great-great-grandchildren.

Granddaughter Mrs. C. L. DeFields will bake and decorate a

A brief honeymoon at Ensenada, Mex., has ended for the new Mr. and Mrs. William Eckerley, and they are now making their home in Inglewood.

Service uniting the Harvey Machine Co. electrical engineer, who lived at 1963 W. 222nd St. before his marriage, and Miss Della Ann Hammons, daughter of Mrs. Aline Hammons of Hermosa Beach, was read at the First Lutheran Church in Inglewood Saturday of last week by the Rev. Henry Ernest Koch.

Frank D. Sclarotta, formerly of Torrance, served as best man for the groom, while Miss Diane Marie Delbosc attended as maid of honor.

For the quiet rites, witnessed only by about 20 close friends and relatives, the bride chose a navy blue linen suit with baby blue and white accessories. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Roses of contrasting yellow shades also formed the bouquet of Miss Delbosc, who wore a pink knit suit with white accessories.
