Kettler Kapers
Kettler Families Ending Vacations

Mrs. Jewel Holmes, of 23217 Falena Ave., last week opened her home for a gala summer party in honor of Mrs. June Grubbs and her mother, Mrs. Edith "Grandma" Radcliffe. The occasion was a farewell gesture to the Grubbs, who now call Palos Verdes their home, and it will indeed be a sad parting, for neighbors will certainly miss this popular family. A huge party was given for Mrs. Grubbs and Mrs. Radcliffe received a lovely lamp for her room. The two beautiful gifts were given by Miss Rowena Ellingsworth, Phyllis Morgan, Lorraine Stanton, Caroline Chandler, Margaret Triplett, Georgia Stroub, Bernice Howland, Helen Bell, Camilla Helgand, Barbara Kell, Thelma Setser, Viola Goree, H. Eberly, Wanda Palica, and Leona Wimmell. Visiting with the guests of honor and refreshment of ice cream and cake highlighted the afternoon party.

Vacationists "at home" now are the Jay Tylers, of 1848 Marinette St., who thoroughly enjoyed their trip through the states to visit friends and relatives in Oklahoma. The two weeks trip included fishing and swimming at every available spot through the states, making the trip a most pleasurable one.

Also home is the Norman Wolters family, at 1844 Marinette St., who had a fun-packed week at Crestline. Just a few things they did were swimming, boating, and horseback riding.

Canasta is still popular, for we find that Mrs. Helen Bell, of 23305 Falena Ave., had a party at her home on July 21, with Mrs. Bernice Howland taking first prize and Mrs. Bernice Moore copping the booby prize. Other guests were Mesdames Georgia Stroub, Jewel Holmes, Vivian Wise, Jane Lockett and Thelma Setser. Refreshments served by Mrs. Bell wound up the most pleasant evening.

The Howard C. Nelsons, of 1804 Marinette St., certainly enjoyed a wonderful trip. Traveling over 6500 miles, they and their son Howard and Sy Clark of San Pedro toured many states winding up in Minneapolis, Minn., their final destination and former home. Relatives and friends were visited and many points of interest were seen. The great national parks made many an enjoyable stopover for the travelers and they found time to swim every chance they had. They no sooner had returned home when they "took off" again, this time a day's tour of the Boy Scout Jamboree on the Irvine Ranch, which they couldn't miss. No stopping the young 'uns, for son Howard is now at Lake Elsinore for a two weeks' fling at water-skiing with friends.

A very pleasant and charming luncheon was given for Mrs. Joyce Le Mue last Wednesday noon at the home of Mrs. Marie Foote, 2080 Reynosa Dr. Sharing hostess honors was Mrs. Carmen Nielsen. Unsuspecting was Mrs. Le Mue, who thought the luncheon was just a get-together, but she found out that she was the guest of honor when a baby gift was given her by the hostesses and Mesdames Alberta Winnick, Virginia Jones, Margaret Foote, and Gladys Le Mue. Just plain old "visiting" concluded the lovely affair.

Guests at the home of Mrs. John Eisentraut, of 1760 Marinette St. for the summer are her sister Miss Elizabeth Moore of Knoxville, Tenn. and her nephew, Sonny Fendley of Benton, Ky. The guests returned with the Eisentrauts following a 5000-mile trip through Tennessee, Kentucky, and Alabama which the Eisentrauts took. Since the guests may not return home until school starts, they are thoroughly enjoying California.

"It was a very pleasant trip" voiced the R. C. Williams family, of 1751 Marinette St., who are home now following a two-week trip to Blytheville, Ark. Their many relatives and friends in Arkansas were visited and the different sights throughout the states drew the attention of the Williams' three sons.

Congratulations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lyons, of 1718 W. 234th St., whose first child was born on July 14 at Torrance Memorial Hospital. It's a boy and they chose John Leigh as his name. The little tyke weighed in at a healthy 8 lbs. 10 oz. Receiving the big news were grandparents Mrs. J. H. Glass of Jemison, Ala. and Mrs. Ida Lyons of Birmingham, Ala.

The big Soap Box Derby at Los Angeles last weekend was not without a contestant from Kettler Knolls, for Mike Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Elliott, of 1816 Calamar St., entered his "special car" and was sponsored by Paramount Builders Supply. Although he didn't get in the "winners circle," he had a very exciting day. The family also went along to root for Mike, and agreed it was quite a thrill. Best of luck for next time, Mike!

Special thoughts for happier days ahead are extended to Mrs. Albert Ely, of 2065 Middlebrook Rd., who journeyed to Tahoka, Tex. to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Anna Smith. Only five months previously, Mrs. Ely was in Big Springs, Tex., attending the funeral of a sister, Vicky Balch. Returning home, Mrs. Ely brought her father, Dee Smith, to visit here—then with Mr. Ely they toured the redwoods, this being Mr. Smith's first trip up Northern California way. Our best wishes to this family.

The Dale Stantons and the Chuck Herrons, along with 20 relatives and friends trekked in to the Fraser Lake area last weekend for a round of hunting. Must have had loads of fun...
