North Torrance Tattler

174th St. Freeway Clearing Started

By ADALINE CORTEZ
MENo 4-6876
174th St. is being cleared for the building of the super-highway. Residents of North Torrance look forward to riding without the bouncing of bumpy roads; however, we shall all miss that fine pepper tree and the stately palms that once stood on Arlington Ave. and 174th. It's too bad that we have to give up some of our rural beauty in order to make way for progress.

Crenshaw Park needs $106 to complete its lighting program. Janis Beeson, chairman of the lighting committee, announces that despite the efforts of the lighting committee, one street has failed to cooperate and the residents of Crenshaw Park will be asked to give two dollars more in order to get the lights up.

For three years, Janis (Mrs. Alex) Bates and Ilene (Mrs. J. R.) Allison, have been plotting and planning a party to show Californians that "Oldies" know all the intricacies of social conduct.

Saturday, Aug. 8, J. R. Allison had a birthday and invitations were sent out in formal party packets asking friends to a Route 66 party. Forty-five guests arrived at the 17059 Glenburn Ave. address of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Bates to find signs leading them to Oakdale Junction (patio). One sign read: "Caddo, Okla. Pop. 230—Come Fall."

At Oakdale Junction the two hostesses greeted their guests in smartly faded jeans and straw hats.

The punch table was covered in a burlap cloth that has been in the Allison family for generations. Two watermelon halves serving as punch bowls, were centered by a cake showing Route 66 from Oklahoma City to Los Angeles, with tiny Model T Fords driving back along the route to hometowns of some of the guests.

Prizes for Best Sharecroppers went to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Collins. Mrs. Collins was dressed in a black and white checked ankle-length cotton with matching bonnet, while Ed wore a shirt matching Mrs. Collins' dress, a straw hat, jeans, and a black mustache.

Juanita Alford proved to be quite an expert with the Bull Durham. She took home the prize for the cigarette rolling contest.

After signing the WPA work order (guest list) guests were put to work turning the crank on the ice cream freezers.

At the bean line everyone was served first, second, and third helpings of beans and corn bread.

Square dancing and parlor games kept everyone at Oakdale Junction until the wee, wee hours.

After hearing rumors of big department stores and supermarkets being built in our vicinity we were skeptical when we heard of the swimming pool being built in the backyard of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Balkman's home, 17024 Crenshaw Blvd. But it's true! The pool will be completed this week. The lucky lady, Mrs. Balkman, was feted this week with a pre-baby shower by Mrs. Mickey Huss, 17420 Elgar. The gifts were presented to Joan Balkman in a decorated doll buggy.

Twenty-two friends of Marjorie Baucher arrived at her home at 17040 Crenshaw for a baby shower given her by Helen Wood and Joyce Smeitzer.

Another boy has been born to the George Champies, 17603 Patronella. The name, Charles John. The Champies now have two boys and a daughter.

"Bloomer Girl" is presented by the South Bay Light Opera Company. Dorothy Dallas (Mrs. Hugo) of 17675 St. will have the feminine lead. Mr. Dallas is a professor in the department of business administration, College of Arts and Science at El Camino College.

Helen and Reese Holbrook attended the Shrine-Hi Football Classic and Pageant at the Coliseum as guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Colson of China Lake. Friday night. Others in the party included the James Colsons, also of China Lake, and the Arthur Raigs of Puente.

The family dined at the Chalon after the game. Helen's parents will remain with her for one week.

Along with other week-end widows, Ruth Towell, 17612 Ermanita, has stayed home while her husband, Wendy, follows the call of the fish and stream and golf courses. Sneaking out of bed Saturday, Ruth dressed in stealthily silence and left her husband and two children asleep, picked up two friends and started a day with breakfast at the Ambassador, shopping on the Miracle Mile, and lunch at Farmer's Market. They drove back to Crenshaw Center for more shopping, and at the end of the day arrived home, broke and tired, but oh so happy!

The Ralph Gastelum family, 17507 Ermanita, is back from one week's trip which led them to the Oregon Caves, Ronnie and Lorrie are delighting the children on the street with their tales of camping, deep caves, fishing streams, and all the excitement of their trip.

While Bob and Audrey Richter, 17224 Crenshaw Blvd., were at Lake Convict near Bishop, where they spent a week, they caught their limit of fish every day. Young Dean, Vickie, and Judy were along.

A pink party seems a fitting celebration for a little girl who, legend says, is made of "sugar and spice"; so Patty Poulson, 4312 W. 178th St., celebrated her tenth birthday with 15 of her friends in a setting of pink balloons, pink streamers, and a pink cake and ice cream.

Sonja Pesola, 17030 Fay Smith, was hostess at a wienner bake at Playa del Rey to 18 of her classmates and friends. Chaperoning the affair were Mrs. Helen Seigrist, Mrs. Betty Peitsmeyer, and Mrs. Laura Pesola.

Another North Torrance beauty has entered the Miss Torrance contest. Patty Pierce, 17217 Casimir, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pierce, is as lovely a brunette as Miss Sandra Lea Constance is a blonde. Poor judges!

Dorothy and Pat Leninger, 4301 W. 179th St., along with their sons, Johnny and Jerry, have spent a week at Lake Tahoe and Yosemite. The Jack Mitchells, 3409 W. 175th St., have picked up their new Pontiac in Pontiac, Mich., and write from Connecticut, Mr. Mitchell's home state, that they will soon leave for Mrs. Mitchell's family home in Iowa.

After visiting her sister, Olga Moss, 17008 Ermanita, for the past seven weeks, Mrs. Gaby Grand of New York will return home tomorrow. While in California, she and the Moss family have visited Yosemite, Laguna Beach, the Huntington Library, Mt. Wilson, Knott's Berry Farm, and other points of interest in the Southland.

Another visitor from out of state is Mrs. R. E. Hatchett of El Paso, Tex., who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Francis Stoeckle, 2612 W. 175th St.

When anyone mentions that people on 178th St. love their neighbors like a sister, they aren't kidding! Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson and son Bill, of Spokane, Wash., have moved next door to her sister, Mrs. A. R. Irvine, 4239 178th St. They bought their home from the Ed Gilhams.

On the same street, Mr. and Mrs. Peter La Rosa of Chicago bought the home of Peter's sister, Ann Sumerick, who is moving to Western Knolls, Mrs. George Ahrendt, also a sister to Peter, remains across the street from the La Rosas.

Charles Miller, son of Rev. Miller of the Hope Evangelical Church, took his choir to Griffith Park for a day's outing at the zoo and observatory. Mrs. Miller chaperoned Sally Collins, Don Alford, and Lee Tussing.
