

Cards Win First Little League Pennant, All-Star Game Slated

The Elks Cardinals snapped out of their slump Sunday and beat the Kiwanis Dodgers 9-6 to win the first pennant in the first season of Little League baseball here.

If they had lost the game Sunday the Cards would have tied up in a tie with the second-place Builders Giants, whom they led by a mere half game.

The Builders topped the Cards 7-6 in an extra-inning thriller Saturday. A team made up of All-Stars from the other five league teams will meet the champion Cards Sunday, Aug. 16 at 2:15 p.m. Three players from each of the other five teams will be chosen and the All-Star squad will be managed by Jim Nix, manager of the second place Giants.

Giants vs. Cubs
The Giants, trying desperately to stay in the pennant race, managed to score one run in the last of the eighth inning to tie the Cubs 7-6 Saturday and move to within half a game of the league leaders.

Ronnie Moore pitched the entire game for the Giants. Jimmy Martin of the Cubs took four for five, including a double and a homer. He drove in five of the Cubs' six runs.

Cards vs. Dodgers
Gary Brimley pitched his Cardinal team to a pennant with a smooth 2-hitter Sunday as the Cards dumped the Dodgers 9-6. The Cards raked six hits off

Dodger hurler Emil Capik in the second inning to score all nine runs. The Dodgers played tight ball in every other inning, executing a double play—George Downing, short, to Bill Bartleson, third base, to Timmy Richardson, first base—in the game.

Braves vs. Dodgers
Wildness and errors on the Dodger side gave the Braves a 14-8 win over the Dodgers Saturday in a playoff of a previous tie. Dodger pitchers walked 12 Braves.

Pirates vs. Braves
Ricky Boucher gave up 11 hits but his Pirate teammates managed to score an 8-7 win over the Braves and give Boucher his fifth straight win with no losses.

He fanned seven and walked one, while Brave chucker John Keith gave up nine hits, whiffed ten and walked five. Bruce Kittrell smashed a homer and Gary Desmond whacked a triple in the slugfest.

Class 'A'

Merchants had the bases loaded on two walks sandwiched around a hit by Bujan, but Al Bernardo went out to first, runners holding, and Tony Monzo grounded short to first for the third out.

Dow Chemical vs. Midland Rubber
Rusty Brooks, nursing a back injury, lasted only two innings in this game and his teammates could do little to quell the new league leaders' rampaging bats as the Midland Team squelched Dow 8-0.

Midland started in mercilessly on Brooks in the first frame. Hank Camou got on an error, Ron Rowlin singled, Earl Nelson smashed one that got through the shortstop, and Ray with a booming triple to center. Armants eliminated the rally.

After four runs in the first, Walt Peterson moved from first base to replace Pitcher Brooks and held the Midland nine until the sixth, when they bounced an error to tally three more runs.

Charlie Camou twirled a two-hitter for Midland, striking out four.

Pettit Headed For Charleston
Lefty Paul Pettit, the Pittsburgh Pirates $100,000 bonus baby, from Narbonne High School, has been released by the New Orleans Pelicans of the double "A" Southern Association and is headed for the Charleston, S. C. team of the South Atlantic "A" League, it was announced recently.

The lefty fireball ace was optioned to the Pelicans in June by the Pirates to bolster the southern squad's faltering pitching staff. He won three and lost five for the Pels.

THE CHAMPS . . . The Elks Cardinals, winners of the first pennant in the first year of Little League Baseball in Torrance, pose for posterity. Will one of these boys be cleating the sod at Yankee Stadium a few years from now? Only time will tell. They are, first row (l. to r.) George Greer, Ronnie Campbell, Lloyd Daniels, Kenny Gates, Tommy Coleman, Timmy Wayt, and Jimmy Coyle. In the second row, William Brunner, exalted ruler of the Elks Lodge No. 1377, which sponsors the Cards; Mike Andrews, Steve Humphreys, Dennis Harvey, Nat Hart, Gary Brimley, Ray Wilson, Bartley Mullen, son of "Moon" Mullen of Notre Dame football fame; and Tom Coleman, team manager. In the third row are Phil Humphreys, father of Steve, team coach, and Tim Wayt, Sr., coach. Not pictured is Lloyd Brummet. The Cards had a tough battle this year, winning the pennant on the last day of play.
