

DR. BENJAMIN A. KOGAN
... New Health Officer

Dr. Kogan Named District Health Officer in Area

A former chief of public health and welfare for the State Department's High Commission in Germany has been appointed District Health Officer of the Torrance Health District, it was announced yesterday.

Appointment to the local district of Dr. Benjamin A. Kogan was announced by Dr. Roy O. Gilbert, County Health Officer.

Dr. Kogan will succeed Dr. Gerald Heidebreder who has been filling the position on a temporary basis.

Dr. Kogan was born in Canada in 1916 and received his doctor of medicine degree from Wayne University in 1943. Two years later he was granted the degree of doctor of public health from the University of Michigan.

After a period of private practice as well as service with the Oakland City Health Department, he entered the foreign service of the State Department and served two years in Germany. Dr. Kogan is a Fellow of the American Public Health Association.

With his wife and two children, Dr. Kogan expects to establish his home in this area soon.

The Torrance Health District includes the cities of Torrance, Palos Verdes Estates, Redondo Beach, Hermosa Beach, and Manhattan Beach.

Reservists End Summer Training

Captain John F. McVey, 820 Kornblum Ave. and 1st Lt. Scott F. Albright, 2512 Sierra St., completed summer training as members of Detachment A, 9861st Engineer Unit Training Center, Los Angeles Army Reserve unit, at the Presidio of San Francisco Saturday, Aug. 7th.

Under the direction of the 30th Engineer Base Topographic Battalion, members of the reserve unit received on-the-job training in surveying, photo-mapping and reproduction.

Captain McVey served in Europe during World War II after graduating from The Citadel, military academy in Charleston, S.C. He is now a sales engineer with Dresser Stacey Company in Los Angeles.

Lieutenant Albright, a graduate of Manual Arts High School, Los Angeles, is employment manager for National Supply Company.
