

E. Moons Have Churchwomen New Grandson Are Kidnapped

Elmer Moon, an employee of the Torrance Recreation Department and his wife, 1024 1/2 Amalpa Ave., now have a quartet of grandchildren since the arrival on July 29 of a new baby boy.

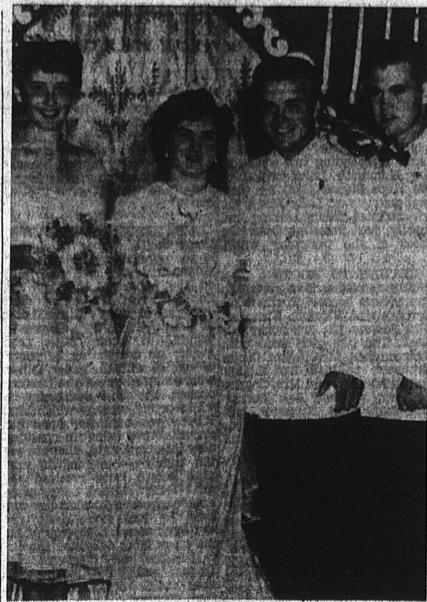

The 10 lb. 2 oz. infant, born at Torrance Memorial Hospital is their first child in the home of Mrs. William Moon, 2107 Carson St. He has been named Douglas Michael.

Father is employed as an interviewer at North American Aviation; maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Radford H. Farquhar, 2108 Carson St.

Nearly 40 members of the five guilds of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church were kept busy stitching for the fall bazaar last Thursday when they were "kidnapped" for a breakfast at the parish hall.

To carry out the international theme chosen for the bazaar, articles from various countries throughout the world highlighted breakfast table decor. In charge of arrangements were Mesdames Frank Church and Alan Moore.

Guilds represented at the event were St. Cecilia, St. Margaret, St. Mary Magdalene, St. Ann, and St. Elizabeth.

BRIDAL PARTY... New Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Lindsey, nee Carol Luann Hamilton, are shown with attendants, Mrs. Annette Traylor, matron of honor, and Charles Boydston, best man.

'Jobbies' to Stage Annual Style Parade, Luncheon Wednesday Afternoon

Newest in kiddie, teen-age, and mature woman's fashions for fall will be shown next Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 26, when Job's Daughters, Bethel 50, present their annual style parade and luncheon at the Masonic Temple, 1321 1/2 Sartori Ave.

Salad luncheon will begin at 12:30 p.m. and the fashion show, featuring merchandise from three local stores, Benson's Dress Shop, Levy's Department Store, and the Gay Shop, will follow the serving.

Girls of the Bethel, their little sisters, and their mothers will display the new modes, while description of each ensemble is narrated by Miss Carol Campbell, honored queen. Committee chairmen assisting Miss Campbell are Misses Sally Speck, decorations, and Susan Babcock, publicity.

The girls have been busy ironing out details for the event since their return last Saturday from a week's camping at Crestline. Activities at camp include swimming, church services, miniature golf, movies, and dancing at the Y.M.C.A. camp.

Child Growth Lecture Set

"Application of the Principles of Growth and Maturation in Child Guidance" is the topic for the sixth and final lecture in a series sponsored by the Redondo Beach Extension, Compton Counseling Service, to be held next Tuesday evening, Aug. 25.

Talk will begin in the counselor's office, south tower room of the First Methodist Church in Redondo Beach at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Dorothy Law, extension director, will be the speaker. In announcing the topic she said: "Using the information available in child growth and development in everyday living will be the aim of this lecture. Undertaking and use of these ideas can create more productive living."

Exceptional Children's Group To Set School Enrollment Date Soon

Approximate enrollment date for the school for mentally retarded children sponsored by the Harbor Area Exceptional Children's Foundation will be announced Wednesday, Aug. 26, when the foundation meets at its headquarters in San Pedro.

Making the announcement will be Mrs. W. M. Crow, chairman of the Training Center. Anyone interested may call her at TE 2-1380 or FAirfax 8-3445.

Plans for the meeting were made when the executive board met last Thursday evening. Also outlined were plans for a Foundation membership drive.

Madrona PTA To Stress Reading, Health This Year

Reading and health will be stressed in Madrona PTA programs for the coming year, it was decided at last Tuesday's board meeting, held at the 808 Cranbrook Ave. home of Mrs. William Crocker.

Joining in the discussion were Raymond Ellerman, new school principal; Mesdames Louis Dyer, president; Ray Otison, room mother chairman; Henry Burrows, art chairman; George Hurley, music chairman; and John D'Ornellas, publicity chairman.

Herald District Manager Weds

Walteria Miss

Don Gibson, district manager for the circulation department of the Torrance Herald, and his new bride, the former Miss Velma Lake, are now making their home in Redondo Beach after a short honeymoon at Elizabeth Lake Canyon.

The Torrance High School graduate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Gibson, 2270 1/2 Hawthorne Blvd., and Miss Lake, daughter of the Floyd Lakes of Walteria, exchanged vows last Sunday morning at 9 o'clock ceremonies in the Assembly of God Church, Wilmington.

The bride, who also attended Torrance High School, chose a sheer white nylon frock with pale pink and blue stripes, blue accessories, and a white carnation bouquet for her wedding costume. Her only attendant was her niece, Miss Janice Hallmark who selected a gold-flowered nylon dress, white accessories, and a bouquet of yellow roses ruffled in lace to match her dress.

Richard Gibson attended as his brother's best man.

LOCAL MISS, ASA MAN SAY VOWS

Candlelight ceremonies at the Garden Wedding Chapel in Long Beach united Miss Carol Luann Hamilton of Torrance and Carl M. Lindsey, member of the Army Security Agency, in marriage Saturday of last week.

Following a brief honeymoon at Santa Barbara, the groom will report to Camp Stoneman for departure orders to Manila.

For the 8 p.m. rites, the former Miss Hamilton chose a white satin gown with lace bodice and a bouquet of white carnations tied with matching satin streamers. Attending her were Mrs. Annette Traylor of Torrance, matron of honor; and Miss Barbara Comereski, bridesmaid.

Charles Boydston served as best man while James Worley ushered. Dorothy Tharpe, sister of the groom, circulated the guest book at a reception held immediately after the ceremony at the chapel.

The new Mrs. Lindsey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neale B. Hamilton, 11214 Figueroa St. She is presently employed at National Supply Co.

Lindsey is the son of Mrs. Hazel Lindsey of Wilmington.

SNAPPER

The boss says to get him a shot of a stork with the expression he wears when he's bringing a brand new baby. Well, I ask you, how innocent can a guy get and still run a business? I couldn't talk him out of it so I got the shot as you see, but if that stork had opened his trap, I'd have had a long drop.

You folks with both kids and cameras are missing a bet if you don't get a flash unit for that camera of yours for inside shots of those youngsters. You can keep a close record of every expression they get on their little pans—faces, I mean—and years from now you'll enjoy them all over again.

See you next week, SNAPPER.
