Emil Capik, of the Dodgers, started on the hill for the All-Stars and was relieved after two innings by John Keith, of the Braves, who pitched for two-thirds of an inning. Paul Moir, Giant hurler, worked the last eight and one-third innings. Bruce Kittrell, Braves, batted in two of the All-Stars' four runs in the eleventh. George Downing, Dodgers, and John Parks, Pirates, were added to the All-Star lineup, after Gary Desmond, Braves, became ill and couldn't play.

Amateur Astronomer Wins 'Scope Honors

By ADALINE CORTEZ

"A smile is the candle in the window of your face that shows your heart is at home."
I heard these words at a district PTA workshop this spring, and looking at so many tired and bored faces these last days of summer has brought it back. It's just a wee bit too early for the pre-school lift, and too late for the carefree life of summer. However, looking at tired and bored faces makes us all the more bored and tired, so light the candle!

You'll find Clarke Harris, 17010 Crenshaw Blvd., high in the clouds these days!
Mr. Harris was singly honored by his colleagues, the Western Amateur Astronomers, at their Fifth Annual Convention held on the UCLA campus. He was awarded first prize for his telescope at a Star Party held on Mt. Wilson Friday night. There were fifty other competitors. His telescope is a 6-inch F-8 Newtonian reflecting telescope, 600 power, and represents two and one half years of work.

An election was held by the executive board of the North Torrance Elementary PTA and a new president elected. Mrs. F. Stoedle will take the office held by Mrs. Ott Fagnano until her resignation at the board meeting Aug. 12. Mrs. William O. Wilson, 2835 W. 176th St., was elected secretary and Mrs. Joe Brandon was appointed executive chairman. The board met Mrs. Demmar, the new principal.

Brownies of Troop 1871 are planning their Fly-up ceremonies and electing officers at a luncheon to be held at the home of (their leader, Mrs. Robert Payne, 2060 W. 160th St., this week.

The Canasta Ladies met at the home of Wanda Hart, 4247 W. 181st St., on their hostess' birthday and presented her with a rooster planter of Early American design.

First prize went to Vivian Talmadge, while Jeanne Meyers consoled herself with the booby prize.

Mrs. Lyle Tussing will return from a trip to Iowa to find that she has been elected president of the Alpha Society. Other officers are: Mrs. Bert Johnson, vice-president; Mrs. Jack White, secretary-treasurer. The ladies of the Alpha Society have elected to sell Christmas cards in order to raise money for their building fund.

All fingers are crossed at the home of Mary Louise Payne, 2060 W. 160th St. and Patsy Kelly, 17020 Delia Ave., as they await word regarding their audition for Hollywood Opportunity. They did a Soft Shoe tap in costumes of the 80s.

The girls also danced for the stretcher and wheelchair patients at Sawtelle Veterans Hospital on the same program with Alibi and Elmer, radio and television stars.

In every gathering in North Torrance the chief topic of conversation seems to be the astounding success of the newly formed Fuchsia Society.

The membership goal is set at 100 and there is every intention that they will make it! J. J. Littlefield, noted Southern California garden consultant, who appears on a TV program on Sundays, has expressed his interest in the club and will speak at the next meeting. Money-raising events scheduled for the near future include a pie sale to be held Aug. 29 at Manor Market. This will buy a coffee urn.

Last week's speaker Pat Burke, combined a humorous account of pests and how to be rid of them, with more serious advice. He emphasized the fact that "if you buy a $5 plant, plan on digging a $6 hole to put it in."

Charles and Curtis Blumfield, 2047 W. 161st and David Schirmer, 2803 W. 163rd St., have returned from a week's camping trip with the Gardena YMCA. This was the first summer camp experience for both mothers and sons. Needless to say, all are glad the boys are home.

Ruth and Peter Bruce, 2128 W. 174th St. and their three children David, Judy and Peggy have returned from a visit to their families in Kansas City, Kansas.

Bill Wright, 18328 Roslin Ave. was wined, dined and danced on his birthday by fifteen friends. Surprise of the evening was when they presented him with a patio chaise lounge.

Two little girls entered the mysterious realm of the teens this week.

Patsy Jean Gilbert, 4246 W. 181st., celebrated her birthday at a party held in the streamer-decked garage of her home, with dancing and games. Billy Wright Jr., Donna Baruch and Diane Gray won first prize on the scavenger hunt.

Carolyn Barrie, 4307 W. 179th St. and nine friends extolled the day in a flurry of balloons, streamers and the blowing of horns, at a lawn party held at her home.

Three other little ladies celebrated their birthday this week: Elfin Patricia Hodges, 17824 Cerise Ave., fairly glowed as she opened her gifts of dresses, dolls, books, games, puzzles and countless other things on her sixth birthday. Snappers and serpentes entertained her 12 guests until the white cake with the blue candles and ice cream were served.

Lorrie Gastelum, 17607 Ermanita, dressed in pastel orchid gaily greeted her tiny friends in the lovely patio of her parents' home and ushered them to a fish pond where the fish had miraculously turned to airplanes, watches and other toys. Lorrie may be a year older (4) but she is compensated by the gift of a stroller, a big doll and a space man.

Popular Claudia Weeks had a party that every child on Cerise Ave. participated for one week and will talk about for many more. She took the crowd to the show after they cut and ate the chocolate birthday cake and ice cream.

Seven, Claudia feels, is a wonderful age! She has a new 45 r.p.m. record player to prove it. A note of sadness crept into our street (Cerise Ave.) this week with the news of the death of Mrs. Richard Ruoff's mother in England. Mabel was a war bride and so popular on the street that her neighbors and friends feel her loss even though they did not know her mother.
