

FLASHY . . . Mrs. Merlin Cook shows the checkered, blue, black, and white taffeta lining a blue faille duster. Sparkling tinfoil set in glass buttons gives a gay note to the dressy topper, featured at Benson's.

MIRROR, MIRROR . . . Miss Glenda Wells, dressed in mauve poodle cloth jacket over matching wool skirt, sees by her reflection that the casual costume, which can be dressed up or down according to accessory taste, is the "fairest of them all." Suit is featured at the Gay Shop.

Harmony in Fashion Themes 'Jobie' Show

"Harmony in Fashion" will be the theme next Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 26, when Job's Daughters, Bethel 50, stage their annual salad luncheon and style show at 12:30 o'clock at the Masonic Temple on Sartori Avenue.

Kiddie fashions, back-to-school wardrobes for teens, and styles for the mature woman will be featured, with all clothes shown through the courtesy of four local stores, Squire's Children's Shop, Benson's, Levy's Department Store, and The Gay Shop.

MODELS NAMED
Job's Daughters, their mothers, and their younger brothers and sisters will show the ensembles, while Miss Carol Campbell, honored queen, narrates.

Included on the model list are Glenda Wells, Cathy Rohrdanz, Sandra Welby, Pat Mitchell, Deanna Ball, Jackie Krown, Jeanette Wright, Beverly Sowle, Linda Lane, Marilyn Edwards, Elizabeth Hedgecock, Judy Cook, Joan Thomas, Sandy Crabtree, Stevie McNeese, Terry Cook, JoAnn Allen, and Mesdames Merlin Cook, George Crabtree, and Glen McNeese.

Background music will be played by Kathy Curtis and Georgia Rhoads at the piano.

Temple decorations for the affair are being arranged by Sally Speck; with the assistance of Diane Allen, Pat McNeese, Judy Wolf, Claudia Smith, Leonard Sexton, Elizabeth Hedgecock, Allan Hedgecock, Kathy Curtiss, Linda Thayne, and Jeanette Wright.

ALSO ASSISTING
Other committees include Phyllis Swanson, Thayne, McNeese, Esther Van Wagner, Jean DuRant, Barbara Sandusky, and Wolf, serving; and Georgia Kinnamon, Speck, Smith, Phyllis Bryson, Allen, Rhoads, Sandusky, and Van Wagner, kitchen. Food is being donated by Knudsen's Creamery, Jim Dandy Market, and Avalon Sundries.

Misses Janie Moffatt and Susan Babcock will be hostesses for the afternoon. One of the highlights of the event will be the awarding of prizes donated by the following merchants: Howard's Jewelers, Billwood's, Allens Jewelers, LeKing's Shoe Store, Karl's Shoe Store, Gamble's Western Auto, National Home appliance, A.I. Photo, Parrish Stationers, Bakers, Renee's, McCown Drug Store, Trend O' Fashion, Hobby Shop, Frank's Furniture.

Gary's Jewelers, La Galeria Florists, Fischer's Hardware, Burke's Bargain Shop, Star Furniture, Lawson's Jewelers, Mayflower, Adams Dress Shop, and Avalon Sundries.

Torrance Girl Scouts Meet Philippine Miss

Torrance Girl Scouts who have been corresponding with Philippine misses during the past year got a chance to meet one in person last week.

The local Troop 1299, sponsored by Fern Ave. Greenwood PTA under the leadership of Mrs. Adam Krausser, honored Aida Lorenzo, one of the eight Girl Guide Rangers visiting in this area through the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund, at a Mother-Daughter tea. Event was held at the 1625 Elm Ave. home of Mrs. Gerald G. Grubb.

In addition to telling the girls about her home life, school studies, and customs in Cebu, Aida showed them several of her native dances.

The troop then entertained its honor guest with the singing of Girl Scout songs.

During her Torrance visit, Aida was the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Walton, 1415 Acacia Ave. She departed last Monday with her sister Rangers for the Girl Scout Camp Osito Rancho at Big Bear Lake and will enjoy a two-week outing there before returning to the distant Pacific archipelago Wednesday, Sept. 2.

Mrs. Roberts Surprised With Birthday Fete

Coming as a complete surprise to Mrs. B. W. Roberts, 1609 Amapola Ave., was the birthday party given in her honor at the 4101 Via Cardelia, Palos Verdes home of Mr. and Mrs. John Oursler Saturday night last week.

The honoree and her husband were dinner guests of the Ourslers. Later several friends dropped in to surprise the birthday woman with congratulations and a gift, a table lighter.

Dancing in the picturesque patio climaxed the evening festivities.

Sharing in the fun were Messrs. and Mesdames Baker Smith of Redondo Beach, Harold Guttenfelder, J. K. Steinbaugh, Sid Hopkins, Gil Derouin, Del Dryers of Rolling Hills, R. A. Bingham, Kenneth Figgins, Oursler, Roberts; and Mrs. Dorothy Rojo.

VISIT GRANDMOTHER

Sharon and Tommy Brase, grandchildren of Mrs. Belva Brase, 2185 Bopder Ave., now are enjoying a three-week vacation visiting their maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ray Yocum, in La Fayette, Colo.

DUAL DUTY . . . Right for classes and dates is this lime wool, softly tailored frock shown by Miss Judy Cook. The dress, featuring real mink fur on the belt, is from Levy's Department Store.

Seaside To Plan Fall Fund-Raising

Budget and finance committee of Seaside PTA will chart money-making activities for the new school term when they meet tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock, at the 5342 Sarynne Lane home of the chairman, Mrs. E. M. Sacks.

Announcement of the session was made last Wednesday evening when the executive board held its first session at the home of the president, Mrs. R. G. Parke. Included in the group were Walter Rehwoldt, new school principal, and Lloyd G. Jones, vice-principal.

Mrs. Sacks was ratified as budget and finance chairman at the meet following the resignation of Mrs. Margaret E. Pollard. Other leaders ratified were Mrs. G. W. Steele, treasurer, who previously served as chairman of the safety committee and will take the place of Mrs. W. C. Shockency; and Jones, who assumes the auditor's position formerly held by Earl W. Eckert.

Executive board also accepted the resignation of Mrs. Donald Blanchard as health and dental health chairman.

A teachers' luncheon will be staged by the PTA on Sept. 10, Mrs. Lorne Bristol, chairman, announced. Assisting her in planning the affair are Mrs. Richard Naumann, Eugene Courtney, and Walter Daniels.

Another social activity being planned by the group is a get-acquainted breakfast, slated for Sept. 28. Mrs. W. C. Strittmatter will be chairman of the event.

Room mothers are still needed, reported Mrs. Paul Roettger. Anyone interested in serving may contact her at Proler 6-1531.

The Social World

AGNES BOLTER, Editor

HOWDY PODNER! . . . Dusty Walker, popular television star, gives a cowboy handshake to members of Boy Scout Troop 219 Dennis Silveira, left, and Joe Montez.

HUNGRY . . . Scoutmaster Ernie Swift, center, gets ready to put away a plateful of food after a hard evening's work supplying servers at last Thursday night's Boy Scout Supper held at Sav-Mart. Two Scouts also about ready to eat, Sherdean Swift, standing, and Michael Duchring, are at the table waiting for the crowd to polish off the last bite.

Over 1000 Eat Supper With Scout Troop

Over 1000 local citizens helped out the Kiwanis Club's Boy Scout Troop 219 and enjoyed a sumptuous meal at the same time last Thursday night when they attended a supper at the Sav-Mart, 23401 Western Ave. Dusty Walker, popular television star, vocalized cowboy songs to his own guitar accompaniment during an entertainment hour from 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock. Guests watched the artists while eating supper in the mart patio.

Climaxing the festivities was the awarding of over $100 worth of prizes donated by local merchants. Winners were the following:

Neve Cota, 2419 Sonoma Ave.; J. E. Schries of Hawthorne; Pat Grover of Middlebrook Rd.; Frank Montez, 1627 W. 209th St.; Ed Polston, 24461 Madison, Waveria; W. R. Bullock, 1650 W. 247th St., Harbor City; Mrs. Ernie Swift, 2019 W. 231st St.; Charlie Gotta, 1625 Cabrillo; and Dennis Vasquez, 2807 Madrid Ave.

Scout mothers who assisted representatives of various companies donating the food in serving were Mesdames Ernie Swift, Rupert Buckalew, Vaughn, R. M. Robertson, and Michael Gurrilo.

Moose Ladies In P. V. Church Set Wednesday Birthday Fete

Reminiscing of the past and renewing old friendships will be part of the evening's enjoyment when the Women of the Moose hold a potluck supper next Wednesday, Aug. 28, commemorating the 18th anniversary of the granting of the charter to the Auxiliary.

All charter members will be guests of honor at the 6:30 o'clock affair. Graduate Grand Regent Bessie Lovitt of Long Beach Chapter, who was in charge of instituting Torrance Chapter 44 back in August, 1935, also will be a guest of honor.

Committee in charge, chair-manned by Mrs. Leonard Swanson, senior regent, reports that plans are being made to make this the outstanding affair of the year. Entertainment hour featuring songs and skits will follow the dinner.

SENIORS COMPLETE RUMMAGE SALE

The Torrance Woman's Club completed a highly successful rummage sale last week, Mrs. Paul Vonderahe, publicity chairman, announced last week.

Assisting Mrs. A. E. Palmer, ways and means chairman, with the project were Mesdames Grover C. Van Deventer, Hugh Bowman, H. J. Osborne, John Keeler, Earl E. Clayton, and Nicholas Gregory.

Elaine Rehwoldt To Wed Compton Teacher Sunday

Picturesque Palos Verdes Neighborhood Church will be the setting next Sunday afternoon, Aug. 30, for ceremonies uniting Miss Elaine Rehwoldt, of Torrance and Newton S. Mettesel, psychology instructor at Compton College, in marriage.

The 4 o'clock wedding service will be read by the Rev. Richard Dawson.

escorting his daughter to the altar will be Walter Rehwoldt, who will serve as Seaside School principal and director of curriculum for Torrance City Schools in an advisory capacity next fall.

The popular Torrance High School graduate and present junior at Pepperdine College will be attended by Mrs. Carolyn Runco of Whittier, matron of honor; and Misses Erna Carstens of Torrance and June Anderson, college sorority sister, bridesmaid.

Miles Mettesel, an electrical engineering student at the University of Southern California, will be best man for his brother, while usher posts will be taken by James Halle, mathematics teacher at Torrance High School; Bob Gill, accountant at Fern Shoe Manufacturing Co.; John P. Shea, English teacher at Dorsey High School; and William E. Geismar, psychology teacher at Compton College.

Miss Rehwoldt makes her home with her parents at 1601 El Prado, White attending THS, she was a Tartar Lady Queen and member of the California

Learn Story Of Federation

Story of the American Federation of Soroptimist Clubs assimilation program highlighted last Tuesday's session of the Torrance-Gardena Soroptimist Club, held at the Western Club in Gardena.

Mrs. Addie Parks prepared and read the report to members and guests, Mrs. Frances Drake and Bernice Snow and Katherine Lynch of Lomita, both members of the Harbor club.

First order on the Bello club ways and means project was held.

Mu Phi Epsilon, professional music sorority, she was chosen Sweetheart of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, men's music group, at college last year.

An education major with a minor in music, the future Mrs. Mettesel will complete work on her degree next fall.

The benedict-elect, son of Dr. and Mrs. Milton Mettesel of Los Angeles, received both his B.A. and M.S. degree at the University of Southern California. At the present time he is commencing work on his Ph. D. dissertation in educational psychology, also at U.S.C.

He is a member of Epsilon Phi, honorary fraternity; Phi Delta Kappa, professional fraternity in education; and Acacia honorary service sorority; and social fraternity.

MISS ELAINE REHWOLDT Marries Sunday