

Mustard Seed... and FAITH

If a "mustard seed amount" of faith is placed in God, one can do great things. It is also of some value to have faith in one's self. With faith in ourselves, our fellows and God, we can span streams, move mountains, change the course of rivers and make ourselves masters of our universe. But no man can do it alone.

ONCE man learns the goodness of God and that it was He who created the marvels of the earth, then his accomplishments will be greater. At your church you will learn that "all things work together for good to them that love God." Here we see God and man working hand in hand against the flood. He gives us strength, He gives us courage, He gives us the know-how. Like the giant earth-moving machine God waits for men of faith. He waits for men to serve Him with the kind of faith that moves mountains. How much faith do you have?

Where Else? Bride-elect Dorothy Goad Finds Shower Gifts in Tub

"Where else do you think you'd find a shower?" a sign asked Miss Dorothy Goad of Lomita when she discovered many gifts for her trousseau piled high in a bathtub at the 2030 Cabrillo Ave. home of Mrs. Paul V. Jones last Wednesday night.

The popular bride-to-be, who will marry Navyman Wesley Smith of Torrance on Sept. 11, followed a ribbon from room to room in search of the gay packages.

Silver wedding bells, a bride doll and her attendants, and a sugar-plum tree decorated the living room, where guests joined in playing games. Prizewinners for the evening were Maxine Omohundro, Olive Radespouch, Margaret Foster, Etta Smith, and Lillian Dye.

Caroly Goad presided at the punch bowl centering the lace-appointed refreshment table. Silver candle holders bearing lighted tapers flanked either side of the bowl, and yellow baskets filled with mints and nuts added a bright touch. Individually decorated cakes in the shape of hearts and bells were served buffet style.

Guests at the pre-nuptial event were Grace Goad, Radespouch, Edna Henderson, Etta Smith, Omohundro, Caroly Goad, Margaret Foster of Redondo Beach, Marcella Smith of

What's Your Score? Psychologist Devises Way To Test Homemaking Skill

What makes a really good homemaker may be debatable, but Ernest Dichter, psychologist, has come up with a test which may help to provide a few answers.

Writing in the September issue of the Journal of Living magazine as part of a symposium on home life, Dr. Dichter lists a series of questions for every woman who takes care of a home and family. Allowing one point for each yes, Dr. Dichter feels that a score of eight is excellent, while a six score just passes.

1. Do you run your home for your family? Answer yes only if you don't allow your tastes to completely dominate your family's.
2. Are you resourceful? Can you make simple repairs yourself?
3. Are you a good organizer? Do you run your home so that your chores leave you time for rest and leisure with your family?
4. Are you imaginative? Answer yes if you try new recipes, often have little surprises for your family.
5. Are you a good cook? Do your family and guests compliment you on your meals? Do you know the nutritive values of food for health?
6. Are you tolerant? Answer no if you insist on neatness and order even at the expense of the comfort and relaxation of your family.
7. Are you considerate? Do you remember things your family likes?
8. Are you self-possessed? Answer no if you go to pieces when unexpected company arrives, or the cleaning woman doesn't show up.
9. Are you companionable? Answer yes if you and your husband and family share one or more hobbies together.
10. Are you neat? Answer yes if you keep yourself and your home ready to be seen with pride, not apologies, by outsiders and your family.

Dinty Moore Dinner Begins New Legion Tradition Here

Following the Dinty Moore dinner, prepared by Reggie Laland, the men viewed some of the more hectic bouts fought by Sugar Ray Robinson during his career, then enjoyed a half-hour musical session conducted by Eddie Spliers and his Western combo.

Twenty guests filed membership applications with Benny Kidner, adjutant.

About 125 men gathered at the Legion hall for the event, originated by Commander Gordon Arnold and under the chairmanship of Clark Morris, second vice-commander. All officers assisted with arrangements.
