

Stork Kept Busy In Seaside Area

By SUE BURK

Our prayers... hopes for nice recovery... will with Mrs. Garrett Bustace of Bindowald. "Trudy" suffered a heart attack on the 8th of August and is still in the hospital. Wishes for a get well soon are expressed by all close friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Melvin Shrader and children, Nancy and Stephen. The Shrader's will be our new neighbors at 5351 Bindowald as they moved into the "Epp" residence. Mr. and Mrs. Epp and daughters moved to Lakewood Village in Long Beach two or three weeks ago. A sad farewell to the Epp family and a huge welcome to Melvin and Rose Ellen Shrader and children. We're sure you are going to like our neighborhood.

Company for Mr. and Mrs. F. Renz of Zakon were Mr. and Company for Mrs. Betty Paterson and sons, Jeff and Jay, of Macfee were Mrs. Martha Bradford aid son, Billy, from Inglewood. Also, visiting in the F. W. Burk home on Zakon Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Jeff Poor and sons, Dennis and Danny Joe of Playa Del Rey.

Going visiting this week to an old friend and neighbor who used to reside on Macfee were Mrs. Louise Ansley, Mrs. Betty Paterson, and Mrs. Sue Burk. The girls went to see Mrs. Pat Webster and children who now live in North Redondo. Happy to report to all that Pat and her children are very well and wish Another related birth announcement for Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Casey of 4718 Ave. C. The baby boy is named David Bruce, and weighed seven pounds and two ounces at birth on July 28th. Visiting at time of baby's birth was Mrs. Emmett Casey from La Habra. Congratulations to both happy parents.

A baby girl was left on the doorstep by Mr. Stork, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bunyard. Susan Kay weighed in at seven pounds and 13 ounces on Aug. 8th. Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Thorp Jr. who reside at 4803 Ave. C.

Also, birthday greetings to Gary Graham whose birthday on Aug. 25th brought him up to look back on 10 years. Guests at the celebration party were Donna and Harry MacFadden, Jan and Mickey Walker, Dennis Stewart, Rose Burt, Ann and Bill Gove. So happy birthday to you, Gary, and many more to come.

A double birthday party was held for Stephen Beard and Wesley Steele. Stephen was six on Aug. 31 and Wesley was six on Sept. 1. Guests included Gregory Carroll, Stephen Sibley, Susan and Lucy Steele, Butch and Donna Drake, Geraldine, Loetta of Dr. R. A. Larson, D. C. Ph. C., 1110 Sartori Avenue, Torrance. The children decorated their bikes with strips of crepe paper of different colors and made hats from paper bags as their games. The shouts of delight came when cake, ice cream and punch were served. Favors of snake whistles were given each child to take home. The gift most delightful for Stephen was a fishing equipment set given by his Mom and Dad. Wesley was tickled to receive a bicycle from his parents. May we wish a happy birthday to two little boys.

both four years old and Grace Marie is three. All the kiddies enjoyed cake, ice cream cones, and favors. Guests were: Jamie Hunter, Kenny Swanson, Jay Patterson, David, Mark, and Bobby Kessler, Clifford Berg, Donnie Pace, Michael Shanks, Clarence Snyder, Frankie Smith, Terry and Vickie Cobb. Happy birthday to all three kiddies and we know you were happy with your many gifts.

25 Alums Start Practice for El Camino Tilt

Twenty-five El Camino College Alumni grid greets met at the Stadium Field House last week and agreed on a practice schedule in preparation for the varsity season opener on September 19. Big gun of the Alums will be Jim Sears, All-American from USC who, along with Socko

Torres, of Redondo, will be the Mr. Outside and Mr. Inside for the eleven old men. Individual trophies for the outstanding back and lineman on the Alumni squad were on display and representatives of the donors, a local aircraft company, were on hand. Winners of the awards will be picked by local sports writers and will receive the awards immediately following the game. Practice sessions for the older squad began Monday and will continue for three weeks. Agreement was reached on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday worksouts beginning at 5:30. An additional Tuesday - Thursday schedule was also established for those who could not make the regular sessions. Equipment was issued Monday. Ken Barton, former all-Metro lineman, is acting as coordinator for the Alums.
