Carson St. School Schedule Revealed

By GWEN BARKAN

Most of the youngsters are shed once more and their comb at the tangles out of their hair because it's back to school to-morrow morning. Mrs. Wallace, principal of Carson St., reports a most restful vacation and gave the following schedule for sessions on the 14th: First, one and third grades, 8:00 to 12:10. Fourth, fifth and sixth grades, 9:00 until 11:20 for the first day, and then be divided into morning and afternoon sessions. The rest of the school will also resume normal schedules on Tuesday. The students will be glad to learn that all the teachers will be back, and at the same time sorry to learn that Mrs. Priegel, who is on maternity leave, will leave to wait a bit before returning. Mrs. Clasco Smith will be on hand once more. A new school nurse, Mary Ann Shong, will be added to the staff, and will be at the school all day Tuesday and Friday mornings. Dress making classes for adult education will be held at the school on Wednesday nights from 6:30 to 9:30. Those interested in attending are invited to come over to the class, or to leave their names in the office. Mrs. Wallace reported most happily that as yet there is no waiting list for kindergarten, but doesn't know just how long this ideal state will continue. We sincerely wish everyone a most successful year.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Eiter of Clarkston, Mich. have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Bragg, 21247 Carolale, and have been enjoying all of California as they visit relatives. The Braggs drove them to Upland over the holiday. Mrs. Bragg is their daughter.

Home again, brown, lean and better looking than ever is young David Cayton, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Cayton, 635 W. 214th St., who spent the summer on a ranch near Missoula, Mont. He worked as a farmhand, haying, working with cattle, and having a wonderful time. He left here June 21 and drove up through Salt Lake City, Utah and returned Sept. 8 via Boise, Idaho, on down through Klamath Falls, Ore. and the Redwoods and Northern California. Quite an ambitious summer for a youngster! David will begin his senior year at Gardena High this week.

Miss Enid Hyman, daughter of Mrs. S. Hyman of Berkeley, announced her engagement to Mr. Yale Barkan of Los Angeles, last Sunday evening with an engagement party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Barkan, 620 W. 214th St. (our house). It was a very gay affair and our little home fairly bulged at the seams to make room for all the good friends who came to wish them well. The lovely bride-to-be proudly displayed her diamond in its Tiffany setting which seemed made for her blonde beauty. As for the beaming, prospective groom, I'm sure he hasn't yet returned to earth! One fine friend even provided champagne and a toast was offered, with laughter and tears, as the little girl said it was just "fabulous!"

Another real nice little party

Those attending were Mesdames Pat Edwards, W. P. Carey, Stebert, Jas. Cayton, Sutcliffe, A. Barkan, Cargjorn, Brinlee and Robinson. Mrs. Carey crocheted one of her beautiful little sweaters and wrapped it as coming from "all your neighbors on 214th St." Certainly a lovely thing to do.

Also having company this week are Mr. and Mrs. J. Sutcliffe, 632 W. 214th St. Seeing the sights of Southern California are Mrs. G. Ouelette of Fall River, Mass. and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. Ouelette of Hayward, Calif. Mrs. Ouelette Sr. is Mrs. Sutcliffe's sister-in-law.

Youth Band, THS Band Invited to Western Review

The Torrance Area Youth Band and the Torrance High School Band are among the selected bands to receive an invitation to the forthcoming 13th Annual All-Western Band Review, to be held in Long Beach Nov. 28 at 2 p.m.

The All-Western Band Review is staged annually on the Saturday following Thanksgiving.

The event attracted the maximum allowable entry list of 75 competing bands.

The trophies will be awarded in eight divisions, as follows:

and attracts entries from the highest rated musical organizations of the Western States. Half a million people are again expected to line the streets of Long Beach to witness this unique musical marching review.

Invitations are being mailed this week to a select group of qualified bands. Last year's event attracted the maximum allowable entry list of 75 competing bands.
