Jim Dandy Mkts. Celebrate 18th Anniversary

A four day fete celebrating the 18th anniversary of the Jim Dandy markets opened today at the local market, Torrance and Crenshaw Blvds., and free kiddie rides, coffee, cake, candy, orchids and food demonstrations will be the order of the day.

Free demonstrations and food samples will be given out today, tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday at the market. A rocket ship and a ferris wheel will keep the children busy while parents are sampling S&W coffee, cake from the Sugar and Spice Bakery, orchids from the Jolly Sugar Co., and cotton candy from the Tolly Sugar Co. On Saturday the circus motif will take over, with a clown and circus peanuts to be enjoyed by all.

MAY CREATE SPINSTERS
Parents who fail to give their daughters the proper emotional approach to men and marriage may be left with a spinster on their hands, according to family counselor Lee Graham.

New PV Course Solves Income Tax Problems

Want to learn how to file your income tax; make a will, follow a budget?

Palos Verdes College has added a course to its curriculum this fall which will teach all of these things plus many more of these things plus many more.

Entitled "Practical Business Problems Everyone Faces," the course will be required of all regularly enrolled students at the College, but will also be open to part-time adult students. Instructed by Jack Brown, CPA in the San Pedro accounting firm of Trousdale and Brown, the course will meet Tuesday mornings from 8:00 to 9:00 a.m. for the full school year. Other topics to be studied in the course are buying and selling of real estate, loans, bank accounts, rents.

Mr. Brown will also instruct adults who wish to know more about business cycles, foreign trade, economic policies of the Government, etc.

Registration takes place Monday the 14th at the College, and late entry is possible until Monday, September 17th.

Radio Series Starts Sept. 19

A new series of weekly 15-minute radio programs illustrating the power of prayer in everyday life will be released September 19 by the Christian Science church, it was announced this week.

The programs, which will be heard on about 600 radio stations throughout the world, carry the title HOW CHRISTIAN SCIENCE HEALS. They are produced by The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, according to announcement by Charles L. Rely, Committee on Publication for Southern California.

The opening program presents a shipyard worker who tells "International House Party," a two-day Regional International House Association Conference, is set for Friday evening, Sept. 25, and Saturday, 26, at Presbyterian Camp Grounds, Pacific Palisades.

An increase in circulation and registration at Carson Library, 654 E. 231st, N., Wilmington, warranted a corresponding increase in "hours open" this week, Librarian Mrs. Dorothy J. Barker announced. The library will add 1 to 5 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday and 9 a.m. to 12 m., 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday to its current schedule which is 1 to 5 p.m. and 6 to 9 p.m. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday.

Frederick Jagel, accompanied by Ruth Barrett Phelps, organist of The Mother Church, Commentator in the opening series is Harry C. Browne, for many years member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, and a former president of The Mother Church.
