Pot Luck Planned By PTA At Park Tonight

By VIRGINIA JONES
Davenport 6-1617
The first big get-together for the Parent Teacher Association of Torrance Elementary School will be a pot-luck dinner this evening at 8:15 at Torrance Park. An annual affair, all families are invited to attend, and be sure and bring your own dishes, bread and butter and table service. Coffee will be served by the executive board of Torrance Elementary PTA and Mrs. R. E. Moffitt, president, says: "Come join in the fun."
Another PTA affair coming up is the paper drive on Wednesday morning, Sept. 30. If you need to have your newspapers picked up, call the school or any PTA board member.

A date that will be well remembered is Sept. 17, for that is little Judy McCutcheon's birthday. She was eight years old, but that wasn't all while skating near her home, she just happened to slip and break her arm, thus making her birth date very memorable. Her mother, Mrs. Betty McCutcheon of 1710

W. 23th St., said that she is getting along rather well, and we hope that she will continue to do so.
Speaking of birthdays, little Scott Triplett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Triplett of 1709 Calamar St., celebrated his fifth birthday with a bang-up circus celebration last Saturday, Sept. 19. Cliniko the Clown arrived with his popular merry-go-round and favors, and presented his many magic tricks for twenty youngsters in the Triplett backyard. Besides all the true circus acts, he blew up balloons just to add a little more merriment to the occasion. To top off the afternoon Scott and his mother served birthday refreshments and he received many wonderful gifts.

Hank and Alice Carlson and daughter Gwen of 23127 Huber Ave., are home this week from a very pleasant camping and fishing trip in the High Sierra. After fishing for several days and the fishing was good—they journeyed to the city of Paradise where they were guests at the home of Hank's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carlson. A two-way celebration was held on Sept. 13 at the John Wilson home at 2719 Martha St. when the Wilsons' children, John and Yvonne, noted their birthdays. John is now six years old and Yvonne is one year old. They both enjoyed their respective cakes and ice cream, and received "sweet" gifts from Eddie Foster, Michael Katzörke, Scotty Triplett, Floyd and Carmen Silvy, Mary Jean and Carol Ann Winklebauer, Theresa Hopper and Susan Palumbo.

The Falena Ave. home of Mrs. Bernice Howland was the scene of "busy women" last Tuesday evening, as they all were deep in the ol' canasta game. Mrs.

Vivian Wise triumphantly claimed first prize, and Mrs. Jackie Shelhart didn't turn down the hoopy prize. Other guests enjoying their "game" were Mimes, Bernice Moore, Jewel Holmes, Jane Lockett, Jo Devenish and Thelma Setzer. At the conclusion of the evening, a special treat of pineapple torte and coffee proved delicious.

This week Jack Moraine is home at 23204 Huber Ave., and explaining to his wife and children the grand time he had at their cabin in Northern California where he stayed for a week with his father.

A busy week was experienced by Bill Skill, brother of Mrs. Carmen Nielsen, last week—first he was discharged from the Air Force—then visited his sister and family at 2083 Reynosa Dr.—then explained to his home in Marcelina, Mo., where he was fondly greeted by the rest of the Skill family.

In a very short two months away, volunteers will be trying once again to reach a quota for the Community Chest. We have not been very good to date. Community Chest in Kettler Knolls in the past, and it's hoped that those pennies and dimes will be saved now so that we can be proud of Kettler Knolls. Your drive chairman for this area is Mrs. Camilla Helphand, who also hopes that volunteers will call her at Davenport 6-8119. Let's be good this year and give a little, huh?

Little Miss Barbara Johnson of 2024 Kathy Way really celebrated her birthday with a "bang." Her playmates Linda Fofse, Sharon Langruid, Margaret Davis, Margaret Riebold and Jill Eckersley joined her in the birthday celebration last Saturday afternoon, playing games with a centerpiece, a "Hallmark Dollhouse." Last Thursday evening her grandparents were in on a birthday dinner and to top the celebration Barbara, her parents, Betty and Don Johnson and cousin Ernie Funk, went to the Ice Follies on Sunday, which was really "out of this world." Their eyes were round with wonder as each skating act came on. There was even a "space man." All in all, Barbara had a wonderful birthday.

Hollywood Riviera can boast of its numerous sets of twins, but it can't beat our set of triplets, sons and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Musso, 1810 Schilling Dr. Named Mark, Janet and Jodie, they now are five years old and started school last week, attending Torrance Elementary.

Neighbors down Reynosa Dr. were seeing double last week at the Paul Clark residence. Their guests from Cedar Rapids, Ia., was the reason, for Bee home in Marcelina, Mo., who is the identical twin sister of Mrs. Betty Clark of 2043 Reynosa Dr. Bee and husband Julian took the Clarks by complete surprise last week and are spending their two-week vacation visiting here. They are seeing the California sights and meanwhile the neighbors are still endeavoring to say hello to the right twin.

A former Kettlerite, Mrs. Elaine Williams, called me last week and issued an invitation to all Kettler Knolls women to the Y.
