Eastern Star Initiates Two

Two candidates, Gertrude Martin and Mona Williams, were initiated into Torrance Chapter of the Eastern Star, at ceremonies last Thursday night at the Masonic Temple.
 "If I should not be able to be present when you initiate again, I want you to know that I have enjoyed working with you this year very much," Deputy Grand Matron Edna Babcock told officers during Good of the Order.

Althea Smith, worthy matron in 1952, presided as worthy matron in the absence of this year's leader, Joan Simpson. Taking Gwendolyn Barrett's place as chaplain and Lois Babcock's station as Star Point Ruth were Alice Ruppel and Frances Feyerley, respectively. A number of visitors from

Following the farewell, the group gathered in the banquet hall for a refreshment hour arranged by Myrtle Clayton and her committee.

Local Women Grads Invited To AAUW Tea Next Sunday

All university women of this area are invited to attend a tea next Sunday afternoon, Sept. 27, at the San Pedro YWCA, 437 Ninth Street, from 4 to 6 o'clock.
 Members of the San Pedro Branch of the American Association of University Women will be hostesses at the event, and they will welcome all women graduates, especially those new to the community.

Miss Wanda Holmes, chairman of the membership committee, is making arrangements and asks that she be given the names of women interested so she may issue invitations. Torrance women may contact Mrs. Paul Truesdale, 3285 Danaha St.
 Mrs. W. Madison Taylor, president of the San Pedro Branch, members of her executive board, and branch sections will receive guests at the afternoon event. Highlighting the program will be flute numbers played by Arthur C. Lytle of Redondo Beach.

Plans for the membership tea were completed at a recent meeting of the executive board, held at the San Pedro home of Mrs. Orville Brown. Those attending the event will have an opportunity to learn the aims and purposes of AAUW.

Membership in the Harbor group is open to graduates of colleges and universities approved by the national organization. Those institutions which have high academic ratings, maintain academic freedom in administrative bodies, give recognition to women on the faculty and in the administrative staff, and make adequate provision for women students are on the list.
 The American Association of University Women is a national and international organization. It offers a member an opportunity to join with other college graduates in making education a more dynamic influence, the president said. Through it, she continued, women in a thousand communities are working together in a program which widens their own horizons, helps build better communities, and takes action on vital national and international issues.

tract Bridge Section, which also meets monthly for dessert and card play.
 Members interested in music meet one evening a month at the home of their leader, Miss Louise Mansfield of San Pedro, former music teacher at San Pedro High School.
 The Juniors have extra social activities and also undertake civic and charity responsibilities.
