

Many Gifts Arrive For Baby At Shower

By VIRGINIA JONES
DAVENPORT 6-1617
Mrs. Carmen Nielsen was the guest of honor at a baby show.

er held last week at the home of the hostess, Mrs. Margaret Beavers, 2122 Middlebrook Rd. Many beautiful and useful baby gifts for the expected arrival were opened and displayed by Mrs. Nielsen. Refreshments of fruit salad, nut bread, coffee and tea were served by the hostess to guests Mesdames Camilla Helphand, Jean Loy, Estelle Van Wagner, Virginia Jones, Miriam Wassenberg, Iris Duncan, Gloria Henson, Lillian Johnston, Marie Foote, Joyce LeMue, Jeanne Braddock, G. O. O. Fischer, Wilma Brown, Dorothy Walwright, Ruth Peterson, Madeline Wray, Sally Beckersley, Kathryn Coster, Jo Devenish, Bertha McKinley, and Miss Mary Grace Daniels, all of Torrance, and Goldy Sayers of Bellflower and Ruth Allstrom of Los Angeles. Unable to attend but sending gifts were Mesdames Mildred Kyle, Millie West, Alberta Winnick, Dolly Wright, Margaret Kettering, Sue Hayes and Rose Larsen. Gifts also arrived from Mrs. M. Farrand of Omaha, Neb. and from Mrs. Nielsen's mother, Mrs. Ione Slaughter of Marceline, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wentz and daughters Suzanne and Cynthia are home at 1840 Marinette St. following a wonderful three week vacation trip to North Dakota. One of the many highlights of their trip was a tour of Yellowstone National Park. Most impressive to the Wentzes were the Black Hills of South Dakota, Mt. Rushmore and the unique town of Deadwood, S. D., which caught their eye—so much in fact, that we'll have to hold them down here to keep them in Torrance. While back in North Dakota, they visited many relatives and the girls spent loads of time on numerous farms. Sounds like a "super" vacation!

Made an error last week and this is pretty important. The school paper drive sponsored by Torrance Elementary PTA will be held on Oct. 8, all day, and gates will close at 6:30 p.m. This will enable everyone to get their papers to the school, as there will be no pickups. All papers must be tied prior to their delivery to the school grounds. For the first time, rags and old mattresses are also acceptable. Paper bags will be sent home with the children in order that the rags will be in a good container. The three upper grades will vie for prizes and also the three lower grades. Don't forget the date: Oct. 8.

"Happy Birthday Janice and Diana" was the greeting on the delicious iced birthday cake for the Trezise daughters of 1880 Marinette St. when they were honored on their birthdays with a party last week. Mrs. Lu Trezise, their mother, hosted the affair with traditional games being played. Game winners were Jack Murphy and Jean Christian. Other guests included Susan and Cynthia Wentz, Danny Tyler, Jean, Arthur and George Murphy, Caroline Guzman, Kathy, Debbie and Cindy Streit. Besides the gifts opened at the party, little Misses Nancy and Diane Wray were unable to attend, send theirs over.

Happily vacationing this week via streamliner are Howard and Olga Smith of Sepulveda Blvd. who will spend three weeks visiting relatives in the Midwest and Minnesota besides touring Washington, D. C. The trip was earned by Mr. Smith from the company he's connected with, and we hear tell he earned a similar trip last year. Sweet deal!

brag about — yessir, we have someone in our midst who won honors again this year at the Los Angeles County Fair in Pomona. Although her knitting, needlepoint and crocheting won third prizes this year, she did win all first-prizes last year at the Pomona Fair and also at the San Diego County Fair. The little lady who has done all this is Mrs. Thelma Segura of 1846 Reynosa Dr. A real bouquet to you, Mrs. Segura—we believe you're the only one in Kettler Knolls to enter the fair.

Speaking of the Fair at Pomona, the Chuck Herricks and the Dale Stantons enjoyed a trip to the fair shortly after it opened. Also visiting the fair last Sunday was the Zeke Trezise family.

Other folks at home this week following their vacation trip are Bob and Louise Yancey and daughter Martha of 1832 Marinette St. They visited relatives in Akron, O.; Virginia, and also toured Washington, D. C. thoroughly enjoying their two-week trip. Also accompanying them was Mrs. Yancey's mother, Mrs. J. L. Peterson.

Do any of you families have any white elephants that you'd like to get rid of before Oct. 31? Then hustle them down to the Torrance Elementary School where PTA members will pick them up for the school carnival which is to be held Halloween night. By the way, the carnival plans sound like it'll be a really swell affair again.

On the casualty list this week is Dan Cunningham, who ran a needle in his foot requiring two stitches. Donnis Walwright beat Dan's stitches by three when her foot had to be sewn up Saturday after it was severely cut while at a picnic. Hope the two "limpy's" will feel much better this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle LeMue of 2079 Reynosa Dr. enjoyed a visit from their hometown of
