READY FOR USE . . . The maze of pipes, valves, and towers pictured above is scheduled to be put into operation for the first time this week-end at the Sunset Refinery, 21000 S. Figueroa St. The unit, a thermal-cracking plant, has been under construction for more than a year.

Torrance Lumber Celebrates 16th Birthday Here

Celebrating his 16th Anniversary at the Torrance Lumber Co. this year is owner A. H. "Slim" Silligo, who purchased the popular Torrance lumber business in 1937.

Prior to Silligo's ownership, the yard had been known as the Montgomery Lumber Co. and it was an old established Torrance building materials concern.

Silligo, prior to purchasing the modern Torrance business, was manager of a large lumber company in Wilmington.

Assisting in the operation of the business is Helen Silligo who serves as the firm's secretary-treasurer.
