Teenager Receives Second Degree Burn

By SUE BURK Frontler 5-4549. Hello again, friends. Lots of congratulations go to the Gaines family of Bindewald Rd. Yes, the nice old stork dropped his bundle of joy at 5320 Bindewald on the 28th of October. The baby girl weighed 5 lbs., 8 oz. upon arrival at Harbor General Hospital. Proud parents are John and Ann Gaines. The big smiles on the faces of Grandpa Gay and Grandmama Trudy Bustus say clearly that they are proud of little Monica Ann, and sister Susan just says, "My baby."

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thorne and son, Charles, this past week were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Therman from Abington, Mass. The Leathermans stopped for a short visit on their tour of the United States. Do hope sunny California tops them all, for where else is there plenty of sun, fun, and downright good eating. Come again soon, folks.

Also, visiting in the home of Mrs. Nicce of Zakon were Mr. and Mrs. Errol L. Sanders of Los Angeles. We hear that you really enjoyed the visit, but wished you hadn't sat up so long drinking black coffee. Sorry to hear that Mrs. Nicce's nephew, Richard Sanders, was shipped out to Korea this past week. Richard had lived with his aunt since he was 12 years of age and she says, "It just as if he were my own son." Well, best of luck to you Richard and also to auntie. We're very proud of our boys in uniform.

Happy to know that Jim Clark is up and around after his operation of a few weeks back. Barbara states that she didn't have to use a ball-bat over his head after all; for he is a pleasing patient, not fussy at all.

A surprise birthday-handkerchief party in honor of Mrs. Geri Grierson was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Renz. Refreshments were served.

ed to Mmes. Myrtis Nix, Lois Leonard, Betty Mitchell, Helen Wilber, Sue Burk, the honoree, and the hostess, Alpha Renz. The credit for the idea of a handkerchief party goes to Alvin, and a cute idea it was too, for her majesty received many beautiful hankies, with best wishes attached. Happy birthday greetings, Geri.

Two messes over this weekend were Priscilla "Finney" Grierson and Butch Burk, both of Zakon. Causing two mamas to worry over the pre-school agers was a slight touch of upset stomach and virus. However, the babies are both in fine shape now.

Terribly, terribly sorry for a sweet little teenager on our street. Upon trying to light a gas vent in the oven of her neighbor's stove, Aileen Kau received second degree burns. With singed eyebrows and lash eyes, scorched hair, her right hand in blisters, our gal was still eager to attend regular classes at Seaside School on Monday. She told us that she will do her work orally and to the best of her ability. Miss Kau came to the United States recently from Hawaii and likes our country very much. Her friends all say that from now on she will be known as the girl with undaunted courage. The wishes and get well soon go to a wonderful girl, Aileen Kau, who thinks more of learning than of a blistered hand.

Involved in automobile accidents recently were Mr. H. H. Patterson of Macafee and Jim Clark of Zakon. No, the boys didn't ram their own cars to gether, but both suffered good-sized losses in each case.

Visiting last week-end were the Holstins of Zakon, who tripped off to Hemet to spend the time with Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Fitzpatrick and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Holstin and family. Merle said that the family just gossiped and enjoyed all the beautiful scenery. Floyd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Holstin of Hawthorne, also visited in Hemet over the week-end.
