

Nursery School Tot's Enjoy Pre-Halloween Festivities

A host of pre-Halloween festivities highlighted last week's tot's at the Alondra Park Nursery School. Mrs. Dorothy Nicol, instructor, reported this week.

All the children in the Wednesday morning class came in costume for refreshments of juice and cookies baked by Mesdames Edwin Wallenhurst, Robert Seaman, Daniel J. O'Brien, Gilbert Hernandez, Dolores Lauer, Joseph Josephic, Melvin Gee, Donald Huey, and Robert Smith. The costumed kiddies enjoying the fun were Kit Krissin, Mesdames Nicol, Robin Seaman, Nicki Anne and Joe Lehman, Howard Gellis, Richard Hernandez, Pamela O'Brien, Coy Lauer, Barbara Josephic, Nancy Smith, Shirley Gee, Ellen and Jo Ann Wallenhurst, Chris Huey, and Ann Nelson.

A baton routine done by Mrs. Norman Witsman to "Anchors Aweigh" highlighted the costume party held for the Wednesday afternoon class. Cookies, balloons, bubble gum, and candy were given to the children, but the fun was in the singing. The children, supermen, nurses, belles, and gypsies by the parents, Mesdames Julius Congelliere, W. A. Hrdlicka, Alvin Cherin, Joseph Pettyjohn, T. D. Wegener,

Charles Holmes, Robert Davis, Leticia Tuarantello, Joseph A. Iberri, Robert Relstab, Witsman, Al Andreiko, and Howard Jett.

Mormon Choir Gives Premiere Concert Next Saturday Night

Through the efforts of the Torrance and Gardena wards of the Mormon Church, residents of the Southland will witness the premiere concert of the 800-voice Mormon Choir of Southern California next Saturday night, Nov. 14.

Only 1200 tickets will be available for the historic first concert, to begin at 8 o'clock at the Inglewood High School auditorium, Chairman Fay X. Bybee, 17306 Crenshaw Blvd., said. The duets, at $5 and $2.50 each, may be obtained by calling ME810-4-3837 or FAirfax 8-2665.

This professionally-trained choir is patterned after the famous Tabernacle Choir of Salt Lake City, Utah, and the Saturday concert will be similar to the Tabernacle Choir's radio program heard every Sunday, Mrs. Bybee said.

H. Frederick Davis will conduct the two-hour program, and guest stars will include Delos Jewkes, prominent basso; Roxana Byers, concert pianist, and Ceeley Adams Brown, organist, all well-known performers on both stage and screen. Proceeds from the event will be turned over to the chapel organ fund, Mrs. Bybee said. Assisting her with arrangements are Lois Sponseller and Clarice Rentmeister.

and B. F. Bragg of Utah are grandparents.

Also born on Nov. 7, to Mr. and Mrs. J. Mujamoto, 4005 Del Amo Rd., was a second child, 7 lb. 14 oz. Richard. The new arrival has one sister, Sharon.

American Airlines Mechanic E. W. Sisk and his wife, 4803 Moresby Dr., now have three children since the arrival at 4:58 p.m. Nov. 8 of a 6 lb. 1 oz. son. Named Randall Malcolm, the new baby has a nine-year-old brother, William Ernest, and a five-year-old sister, Sheron Ivale. Grandparents are Messrs. and Mesdames Malcolm McNeil and W. H. Sisk, all of Rainy River, Ontario, Can.

A third child arrived to Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Fillman, 2601 Brian St., at 4:30 p.m. Nov. 9. Named Carrie Lynn, the little girl has an eight-year-old brother, Paul David, and a three-year-old sister, Deborah Pauline. Father is employed at Hughes Aircraft Co.; grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Fillman of Wilmington.

Slate Child Psych Talks

A series of lectures on child psychology will begin Wednesday, Nov. 18, and continue each succeeding Wednesday for 13 weeks at the Mental Health Service Center in San Pedro. Mrs. Jack Brown, public relations chairman, announced this week. Emphasis during the 10 a.m. to 12 noon lectures will be placed on explaining and clarifying the often misguided guilt complexes of mothers toward their children, and detail problems will be studied, she said. Classes are open to the public, and care will be provided for pre-school children accompanying their parents. All those wishing to attend may call the Center for reservations.

Crenshaw Students Talk of Parents

"What kind of parents do young people want?" This was the question answered by sixth grade students at Crenshaw Elementary School Wednesday of last week when the PTA held its regular monthly meeting at the school. Poems and musical numbers by the sixth-graders also featured the program.

CDA Names Mrs. Moore Vice-Regent

Election of a new vice-regent, Mrs. Thomas Moore, to take the place of the resigning Mrs. Robert Alford keyed last Monday night's session of Court St. Catholics. Catholic Daughters of America, held at the parish hall. Interest in philanthropy work also highlighted the meeting, with members voting a donation of $10 for a veterans' Christmas party at a Los Angeles hospital and hearing a report from Mrs. Lawrence Gitscher, social welfare chairman, that six packages, totaling 164 lbs., had been shipped to Korea to make a happier Christmas for war orphans. Final plans also were charted for the initiation, to be held Monday, Nov. 23.

Mesdames Bernard Harwood and Noel G. Hayward arranged the social hour following the business session.

Mrs. R. Bowers Receives Ritual

Mrs. Robert Bowers received the ritual of the jewels Wednesday night last week after completing six months of pledge training with Beta Sigma Phi, international business sorority. Ceremonies were conducted by Mrs. Harold Roberts, president.

PLAN INITIATION

Final plans for next Wednesday night's initiation of Beta Sigma Phi pledges will be made tonight at a brief 8 o'clock business session preceding a card party at the 2067 W. 220th St. home of Mrs. Robert Stewart.

Following a dinner at Brower's Restaurant in Long Beach, joining in the festivities were Mesdames Dolores Campbell, Jim Forgie, William Lafferty, Jack Morrison, Gene Stirling, Misses Oleta Hale, Marjorie Chambers, and Verna Porter.
