Friday is Blue Jeans Day for Narbonneites

By ADRIENNE SIDWELL
Hey, girls, don't forget, tomorrow's the big day! Blue Jeans Day! Wonder who's going to be the lucky queen and princess who will reign over tomorrow's last football game to be played on our field against Jordan.

Many Narbonneites are still talking about the Armistice Day speaker who spoke last Tuesday on the place of sports in the building of our country. Also the a cappella choir sang some very beautiful selections.

Joe Stitts is being congratulated on his recent run-off election for A-11 class president. Joe will take over the reins until the W'55 graduation of his class.

A grand time was had by the "gang" last Friday night. They celebrated Joyce Bernhardt's birthday by stuffing themselves on Mexican food in Long Beach. Later they took in a drive-in movie. At midnight the "gang" went to Joyce's home for a "slumberless" slumber party.

Girls: Today, the Girls League is having another one of their special programs at noon. The best of luck to Nadine Naida and Ray Lutz, who were recently married.
Congratulations are in order to the very popular Bill Butler and Bonnie Schroeder, who revealed their secret marriage of last July. Bill is president of the B-12 class and Bonnie assistant secretary. The old story of the president marrying his secretary!

The really great cross-country team travels to Gardena for its next meet on Wednesday of next week.
Hey Gauchos, Narbonne plays host to San Pedro in the Marine League basketball opener next Wednesday. Why not come out and watch that casaba? It promises to be a thriller.
