

Pastor Reveals Sermon Topics

"How To Settle Your Unpaid Account" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. George F. Cain, pastor, at the 11 a.m. Sunday service of the South Bay Baptist Church, in the Recreation Building, El Retiro Park. The subject of the Rev. Cain's evening sermon, at 7:30 o'clock, will be "Fruits of the Spirit," and a second time in Washington. The Win-Some Adult Sunday school class has scheduled a Monday night at 7:30 at the home of the class president, B. T. Lamb, 201 S. Juanita, Redon.

TWO OATHS

Chester A. Arthur took the oath of office as President twice, once at his home in New York and a second time in Washington.

$5440 Collected For Street Lights

By HELEN AMOS
FAIRFAX 8-1986

The mothers of the Girl Scout Troop 1293 got together Tuesday morning at the home of their leader, Mrs. Carl Osterlind, 2813 Sonoma. They discussed plans for the coming holiday activities. Mrs. Paul Brunner is the co-leader of the troop.

Mrs. Robert Church is the leader of the second troop from Madrona Ave. School, and Mrs. James Bishop is co-leader. The girls met after school Tuesday for their first meeting since the troop was divided.

There is another birth to report this week. His name is Glen Alan Parsons and was born Nov. 16 at the Torrance Memorial Hospital. Glen weighed 8 lbs., 11 oz. His mother is Mrs. and Mrs. Bill Parsons, 827 Coia. They have one other child, Paul, who is 14 months old. Mr. Parsons is employed by Douglas El Segundo. Mrs. Parsons' mother, Mrs. J. M. Wilkinson, is here from Texas to take care of her and the baby, and is planning to stay for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Voche, 827 Fonthill Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Burns, 926 Fonthill, have returned from a three-day trip to Las Vegas. As usual, they returned with empty pockets.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Bishop, of 3341 Opal St., were greatly surprised Thursday evening, Nov. 19. They were given a housewarming by the Naomi Circle of the Methodist Church. The women brought along pumpkin and apple pies and the coffee. They also gave the Bishops two lovely gifts for their home. Those who attended were Messrs. and Mrs. R. W. Flowers, L. M. Warné, T. M. Thornton, A. H. Champion, Don Harding, J. W. Lockhart, H. Littleton, and Mrs. A. Turner.

Any time you have need for a cake of any kind, size or shape, Donna Truesdell, of 1005 Felbar Ave., makes delicious ones. If you're going to have a party, birthday, shower or otherwise, contact Donna. Her prices are reasonable and she will make any flavor cake you desire and any decoration. Donna's phone number is FAIRFAX 8-0559.

We had a very interesting homeowners meeting Tuesday evening, Nov. 17. Frank Young of the Strout Realty Co. showed a very interesting travelogue to the group. Ted John, chairman of the street lighting committee, reported that $5440 has been collected so far. Coffee and doughnuts were served after the meeting. Next meeting in December we will have the nominations for the new officers.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hall and Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson from Salem, Ore., are spending the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. William Hall Jr., of 1220 Felbar Ave.

Mrs. William Crooker, of 809 Cranbrook, was given a surprise birthday dinner last Friday evening. The hosts for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davenport of Westchester. A turkey dinner was served, bridge was played and prizes given. Mrs. Crooker received some very lovely gifts. There were four couples present from Pasadena.

I received the results from the Cub Scouts Father and Son cake baking contest held last Friday evening at the Fern Ave. School. First prize went to Bill and Billy McDade, second, Bob and Bonnie Hagenbaugh, and third to Steve, Larry and Al Armistead.

Don't forget to call me this week and tell me about your Thanksgiving holiday.

A HAPPY THANKSGIVING TO EVERYONE.
