

Police Officer Daly, New Bride Establish Home Here

Arriving home, 726 Portola Ave., with his new bride, the former Miss Gwen Busche, Tuesday was Police Officer Robert E. Daly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Heckler of 1211 Kornblum Ave.

The pair flew here from Denver following a brief honeymoon at Glenwood Springs, Colo. The nuptial knot was tied on Wednesday, July 14, at 6:30 p.m. at the Central Presbyterian Church in Denver.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Busche of Aurora, Colo., was given in marriage by her father. She was gowned in white lace over satin with a matching lace bridal jacket, and her fingertip veil was fashioned of silk vision. Her white prayer book was topped with a single white orchid.

Sunlight and summer sky tones formed the color scheme in her bridal entourage, with Mrs. Al Calahan, matron of honor, wearing yellow and Mrs. Margie Ferge, bridesmaid, gowned in blue. Both gowns were fashioned of lace over taffeta, and each girl carried a carnation bouquet matching her hair coronet.

Alfred K. Fogdich took the honor position as Daly's best man, while Glen Hodgson ushered. Ceremonies were performed by the Rev. Oscar L. Lutz following traditional organ solos, "Because" and "Together."

Friends congratulated the new pair at a post-nuptial reception at the Towne House Supper Club in Aurora.

Daly, a graduate of Banning High School, also attended Harbor Junior and El Camino colleges. His bride is a graduate of Aurora Senior High School.

Miss Reynolds To Wed L. Hall

VARIED FILMS SCHEDULED FOR AUSSIES

Names of documentaries and travelogues to be shown by the Australian Club of Southern California Saturday night, July 24, were released this week by the group. The films will be presented at 8:30 p.m. at the W. Walters Recreation Hall.

A general film about Australian life, named "Australia Today," will give a picture of the country. Scenes of the beach, mountains, industry, sheep farms and noted scenery are included in the film.

"Walk About" is the name of a show about the Aborigines and their way of life. "Story of a City" will tell the history of famous Sydney, and Melbourne's past will be explored in "Place for a Village." Another city, Perth, will be discussed in "West Gateway," and the last presentation will be "Coral Wonderland," with shots of a huge barrier reef. The evening is open to members of the club and their friends.

Four Receive Civic's Five Show Awards

Four awards were given to members of the South Bay Civic Light Opera Association for participation in five shows at a dinner party, held after the production of "Knickerbocker Holiday" at La Venta Inn Sunday evening.

Recipients of the five show pins were Pauline Anderson, who was in charge of the usherettes during the current production; Patsy Bangs, the feminine lead in "Knickerbocker Holiday"; Gall Bennett, who was a dancer in the recent hit; and Earl Brown, honored guest at the party and superintendent of the Redondo Schools.

The group is making plans for a new production, "The Desert Song."

Brunch to Aid AFSIS Pair

Walteria PTA board members will lend helping "hands across the sea" when they serve brunch at the school kindergarten room on July 27.

Proceeds from the get-acquainted event, priced at 35 cents per person, will aid the two foreign exchange students who will attend Torrance High School next fall under the auspices of Torrance Chapter, American Field Service International Scholarship.

Melon balls, hot rolls, and coffee will be featured on the menu, and transportation will be provided, Mrs. Glenn Karhu, press chairman, reported.

TOWNSEND CLUB DANCES TOMORROW

Modern and old-time dance rhythms will be on the agenda for members of the Townsend Club tomorrow night when they hold their regular Friday night social at the Womara's Clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave. Members will dance from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m., and refreshments will be served.

T. Simonsons Host Dinner

Sizzling steaks were served to 18 guests at the Ted Simonson residence on 1610 Greenwood Ave. last Thursday night, when members of the popular Torrance couple's bridge club gathered in the back yard for a pot-luck barbecue.

After a dinner of picnic fare, the group spent the evening playing cards. Enjoying the evening were Messrs. and Mesdames Simonson, Cecil Smith, Paul Clark, Jack Phillips, Stewart Todd, John Lie Van, Frank Curry, Rae Elosson of Lomita and Bob Curry and Mrs. John Sousa.

CRESTLINE OUTING ENJOYED BY MILLERS

Mr. and Mrs. John (Jack) Miller of 1724 Date Ave., returned Monday after spending four days at Crestline.

During their stay they visited Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Winters.

Public Invited Threat to America Topic For B'nai B'rith Tonight

"Totalitarianism—Threat to the American Way of Life" will be the topic tonight at 8:30 o'clock when South Bay B'nai B'rith Women invites the public to its regular meeting at the Gardena Teen Age Center, 1651 Market St., Gardena.

Taking the speaker's rostrum will be Harvey Schechter, a representative of the Anti-defamation League who also is director of Civil Rights in Los Angeles. A question and answer period will follow his talk, and refreshments will be served during intermission.

Plans for a variety show, "Harvest Revue of 1954," will highlight the business session. The production is slated for Oct. 16 at the Torrance Civic Auditorium.

Further information may be obtained by calling Mmes. Bernard Yeglin at FA 8-4888 or Richard Schroeder at FR 8-1307.

TODAY

Moms-to-be To See Film

"Labor and Childbirth," a film, will be featured at today's 1 o'clock session of the Expectant Mothers' Class, to convene at the Torrance Health Center, 2300 Carson St.

The film, loaned by the County Health Department, is the story of a young couple expecting their first child and follows the prospective parents from home to the hospital stay, and home again.

Program is under the supervision of Miss Kristine Kawaguchi, public health nurse-instructor. There is no registration fee, she said.

Stay at Golden Gate Enjoyed by Figueredos

Returning this week from a four-day stay in San Francisco were Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Figueredo and children, John, Mary, and Margaret of 1730 Date Ave. The local family were guests of his grandmother, Mrs. Rita Silva, during their stay in the Golden Gate City. They also visited his aunts, Mmes. George Van Orschot and John Thorson, and toured famed Fleischacker Zoo and Fisherman's Wharf.

Scenery, Music Impress Duo on Visit to Hawaii

Hawaii's beauty and natural scenery were enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Connors of 2655 Monterey Ave., during their ten-day stay there this month. The Torrance couple returned from their trip Monday.

The popular duo traveled to the islands with a group of fellow Elk members from New York, New Jersey, Oklahoma, Texas and other states. A post-convention trip to Hawaii was announced during the Elks convention in Los Angeles, and the Connors decided to take the tour. They were entertained by Elk members on the islands.

VIEW FAMED BEACH

Honolulu was the first stop for the Connors, and they saw glistening Waikiki Beach there. From Honolulu, on Oahu Island, they flew to Maui Island and visited the Maui Palms Hotel. During this stop they saw an orchid show and were entertained at a barbecue. Hawaiian legends and songs were explained to them by their "boys" (guides), and the Torrance couple enjoyed the dancing and singing of an authentic Hawaiian group, the Mormon Choir. Friends on Maui gave the tra-

BPW Hears About Taxes

Various kinds of tax laws were explained to members of the Business and Professional Women Monday night, when Mr. McCormick, a representative of the Investors Diversified Services, Inc., addressed the group in meeting at the Western Club, Gardena.

The speaker covered inheritance laws, income tax laws, and gift tax laws in his talk. Mrs. Virginia Beck presided over the business meeting with 88 members present. Hostesses for the evening were Mmes. Molly Marshall, Herma Tillim, Allice Brady and Ellen Blackshere.

Because they were special guests, their friends took them to see Warm Springs, where the "Bird of Paradise" was filmed. Another barbecue was given, and from this tropical spot the Connors traveled by car to Hilo and the Hilo Hotel.

Streams of water falling from beautiful Rainbow Falls were viewed by the Connors during their stay at Hilo, but foremost in their memories was the luau given for them. From Hilo they again returned to Honolulu, and flew over the moonlit Pacific back to California. Impressions of great natural grandeur were gained by Mrs. Connors during her trip. She mentioned the exotic tropical flowers, and unusual tree formations seen during their tour. Hawaiian chants and legends gave a rich background for the ten-day visit to the Islands.

Traditional white lace over satin formed the bridal costume of Miss Gewn Busche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Busche of Aurora, Colo., when she became the bride of Police Officer Robert E. Daly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Heckler of 1211 Kornblum Ave., at July 14 ceremonies in Denver, Colo. Pair honeymooned at Glenwood Springs, Colo., and is now living at 726 Portola Ave.
