North Torrance Mourns Passing Of Principal Donald Robison

By ADALINE CORTEZ
DA 4-6678

Residents of North Torrance find themselves stunned and painfully aware of the hopeless emptiness that comes from losing a friend in Donald Robison, principal of Carr Elementary School, who died suddenly last week.

That the life of a man of such constructive leadership and such a gift for instilling warmth and enthusiasm in those who worked under him and with him, should be ended in its prime, is difficult to accept.

The floral offering sent to the funeral by Carr Elementary PTA Executive Board symbolizes how we all feel!

Mrs. Robert Payne, of 2066 W. 160th St., was rushed to Centinela Hospital for an emergency appendectomy last week. Her daughter, son-in-law and grandchild had just arrived for a visit.

Delbert Alford, of 17230 Atkinson Ave., spent two days in Gardena Hospital recuperating from a heart attack suffered after an evening of square dancing.

Swimms Barn was the stage for a potluck dinner Sunday night, as the North American-sponsored square dancing beginners and advanced classes met for the first time.

In the crowd I spotted the Bob Richters, Ed Collinses, Dave Dyers, Paul Claytons, Peter Bruces and Ralph Gasteluma.

The Mike Orozcos, of 16820 Wilkie Ave., have a new son, Steven Michael.

Steven was born at Queen of Angels Hospital on Oct. 5 and weighed 6 lbs., 13 ozs.

Steven has one brother, Danny, and two sisters, Cindy and Teri. Cindy is now in an orthopedic hospital for treatment of her left leg. She recently had polio.

James Derry, 6, son of the James Derrys of 17017 Glenburn Ave., was stricken with polio on Labor Day and is now allowed to visit his parents on week-ends. Mrs. Derry states that he is kept so busy he does not have time to be homesick. She further stated that the only long faces one sees at the center are on the visitors.

Clint Beeton, former president of the NTCIA, was presented with a table model cigarette lighter by the group.

He is really to be commended for his work in sitting together and expanding the membership.

Heard around that the group is planning a real whinding party in celebration of their 51st anniversary. It will be Nov. 6 at the Club Alondra and there will be a six-man orchestra. Tickets cost $1.50 a person!

The fish pond committee for the coming Country Fair at Carr Elementary held a fund-raising luncheon Oct. 5 at the J. Heran Cortez home, 17516 Corise Ave.

A Mexican theme was carried out in food and table appointments.

Present were: G. McDonald, Lynn Hale, William Sale, J. R. Allison, E. Matson, W. Towell, R. Gastelum, M. Crosley, H. Ferrin Jr., Maxwell, E. Morgan.

Cub mothers of Pack 761-C met to elect officers on Oct. 5. They are: president, Margaret Donley; vice-president, J. Johnson; secretary, Louise Hudson; treasurer, Florence Porter. Chairmen are: ways and means, Doris Enright; hospitality, B. Johnson; craft, Lee Kalkok; publicity, Adaline Cortez; mother contact, Jerry Bronson.

No matter what the weatherman said, there were showers this week!

Helen Clayton and Anne Collins hosted a baby shower at 17107 S. Atkinson Ave. for Millie Osnes last Friday.

The table wore a canopy of yellow and green streamers and was centered by the most unbelievably beautiful cake these eyes have ever seen.

It was a white banninet with a baby lying in it, covered with a yellow and green patchwork quilt. Nutsups were yellow and green baby buggies.

Present were: Marge Bertrand, Janis Beeton, Nelly Sanger, Dorothy Robbins, Betty Johnson, Ruth Towell, Phyllis Considine, Betty Muir, Mary Elsie Bursen, Marjorie Clayton, Jerry Bronson, Adaline Cortez.

Mrs. Melton Hunter, of 16715 Falda Ave., and Mrs. Joseph Hall, of 16711 Falda Ave., spent a few days in San Francisco and returned home with Mrs. Allen Smith, who together with sons Allan and Larry will be house guests of Mrs. Hall for a week.

A lot of children getting older this week!

Winnie Gastelum, of 17609 Emmanita Ave., marked his eighth birthday with a wiener roast in their beautiful patio.

He received a big thrill when he opened a gift from his parents, consisting of a complete football uniform.

Guests were Larry Sepulveda, Jerry Creeley, Mike Towell, George Beckham, Claudia Weeks, Pamela Fletcher, Judy Towell, Eric Cortez, Jody Hensley, Wayne Farris, Jan Osnes, David Bruce and sister, Lorrie.
