THE TORRANCE HERALD

IS THE

ONLY NEWSPAPER

PUBLISHED AND PRINTED IN THE
CITY OF TORRANCE WHICH IS AUTHORIZED TO DISPLAY THE

UNION LABEL

OF THE ALLIED PRINTING TRADES

ON ALL NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING AND COMMERCIAL PRINTING

* The Allied Printing Trades Association Label (the bug) was ordered removed from the Torrance Press by the Board of Governors of the Allied Printing Trades Association because "conditions" were not "acceptable." This Board is composed of International officers whose experience qualifies them to judge such matters impartially and fairly. The Allied Label is emblematic that conditions acceptable to union labor are maintained throughout. The absence of the union label in the Torrance Press is the result of an impartial decision made by a qualified Board after a year of investigation.

The San Pedro Allied Printing Trades Council requests that you patronize those who are qualified to use the Union Label.
