Scouts Will 'Rough It' for Work on Camping Merit Badge

By SUE BURK
FR. 5-4540

Scoutmaster Richard Naumann will lead his scouts of Troop 726 "into the wilderness" for a week-end outing on Nov. 27 and 28 at El Retiro Park. The boys plan to work on some of the things needed for their camping badge. To earn a camping badge, a boy must have camped out in the open, providing his own food, heat, and comfort, for 20 days and nights. The boys also announced they will hold their Christmas Tree Lot Sale again this year.

Bad luck seems to have dogged the Walter Anshley family recently. Son Steve Donald received serious injuries while at play. Just a few days later, Walt Jr. received back and chest injuries in an auto accident.

The Seaside Parent-Teachers Assn. will hold a meeting with parents hoping for a big turnout of parents. For Thursday night PTA meetings, the Girls Glee Club, under Mrs. Bridgman, and the band, under Mr. Petrie will give out a few choice numbers.

An interesting new program, "hobby time," has been started in Mr. Barro's room. Assemblies are being held every Friday at the school.

Company for the Isaac Bedrosians, of Zakon Rd., this past week have been Libby Watson and Chasie Harris. They also entered Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowles and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bowles with a barbecue. We hear the Bedrosians had lots of fun.

See lots of redecorating going on hereabouts. The Filigiano's of Bindaewald have completed their new living room with an ocean view. From their new living room they can see the lights of Los Angeles the airport and all the mountain ranges.

Who is ready for Christmas? Well, a few we know who have made a dent in their Christmas list are Mmes. Ron Hauser, Raymond Enriques, Bud Bedrosian, Phillip Wislon, Walter Wilshire, Johnnie Johnson, Floyd Benton, John Briener, Frank Burk, William Lane, and Greg Reger. Demonstrators at a toy party held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Greg Roger, of Doris Way, were Mrs. William Meyer, and Mrs. James Ryan, from Lakewood. After getting a close look at the toys the guests enjoyed coffee with chocolate and white cakes.

Another toy party of interest that took place recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Leonard, of Zakon Rd., guests included; Mrs. H. Long, Mrs. James Clark, Mrs. Jack S. Mitchell, Mrs. Calvin Manley, Mrs. Jeanne Blinner, and hostess Mrs. Lois Leonard. Demonstrator was Mrs. Kay Manley, of Long Beach, sister of the hostess. Guests enjoyed chocolate cake ala-mode with coffee.

We hear that Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lumsden, of Bindaewald Rd., recently took a trip to San Francisco to see old friends of the opera. Mrs. Lumsden used to cut quite a figure with her piano concerts but now is enjoying a quiet life here in our own Seaside. It is just a most wonderful experience to listen while she is at the piano.

Mrs. Mercurio, of Victoria Terrace, recently returned from a trip to the Culver City Hospital. Though still feeling mighty low, Mrs. Mercurio is at home to visitors.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Barnes and young baby, who recently moved into the old Sibley residence, at 5004 Macaffer Rd.

Although William Alexander Lane Jr. upset their plans somewhat, his proud parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Lane of 6229 Doris Way, were still overjoyed to greet the newcomer. Just 30 minutes before Lane was to begin a birthday party for his wife, the baby gave the first signs of his coming appearance.

Boys in Den 2 of Cub Scout Pack 726-C have been making bead-ions out of cigar boxes and are now doing bead work, according to Mrs. Peg Parks, den mother. Boys in the den are Bobby Russell, Robert Dennis, Timmy Rostger, Ronnie Bolins, Charles Thomas, Michael Talbot, Phillip Kaney, Chuekie Robinson, Robert Parks, and Paul Roccoforte. The group is sponsored by the Homeowners of Seaside Ranchos.

Taking a little trip to the Long Beach Plunge last Friday night were these Boy Scouts from Troop 726: Pat Rogan, Timmy Whyte, George Morris, Clifford Burk, Dick Graham, Robin Wood, Billy Gail, Mike Chalklee, Edwin Wood, Leonard Kklisel, Bud Heptig, Don Hoffman, and Bud Pool. The boys go grown into a pretty big fellow three times a month until they learn to swim, learn lifesaving, and how to swim fully clothed, also how to make air rafts out of trousers, etc. Under the direction of Mrs. Madge Graham, the boys have been doing very well.

Spending the night with Mr. and Mrs. Halsey and children of Zakon Rd., the other night was little Johnie Weber, now of Hermosa Beach. Johnie isn't little any more, though; he has grown into a pretty big fellow since his move from here about a year ago.

Birthdays greetings to Share! Heribst of Vanderhill Rd., and to her sister, Ginger, with birthdays on the 2nd and 9th. At the party given for Share were Dennis Berry, Carolyn Bledsoe, Betty Lou Mohon, David Pace, and Vivian Kearn.

Why don't you come to our games? This is a question that is pretty much in the open, since it is for the kids, what's the matter? Football game have been taking place on every Tuesday since way back. Two more games for the Sea Lions and the Seals will take place the next two following Tuesdays at Walteria. The last game for the Sea Lions will be held at Walteria next Monday, 18. Come on, pop, out there and fight it out with the kids. You'll enjoy it as much as they will.

Long ago residents of the Heights area came visiting the other day, having dinner with Mrs. Leonard Priestly and children of Vanderhill Rd., were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Keane, and daughter Erin, now of Garden Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Hogan, of Doris Way recently returned from a tour of the United States. Paul and Loretta, with their children Marie, Paye, Joe, and Pat, dropped in on the fiftieth anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Gauthier, their relatives in Corning, Ia. After relatives in Corning, Ia. After a nice visit with aunt and uncles they attended a family reunion of the Cronin family in Osceola, Ia., and saw many of the family for the first time in years. Representing states from coast to coast were nine living children and their families. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cotter Jr. of Rogers Springs, Wyo., and from their their visit took them to see Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cotter Sr. of Omaha, Neb. Last on the list of visiting of relatives were with Mr. and Mrs. Allen O. Ringnell of Wilcox, Ariz. Returning home the southern route, the Hogans visited many of the interesting cities along the way, including Mexico.
