Santa's Helpers Needed to Make Merry Christmas for Children

By SUE BURK
FE 5-4549

Have you ever thought of who supplied the fruits and candies at Christmas time, when old Santa came around to see the children in his antique car? Santa Claus will need your help this year in supplying the children of the Seaside Heights and Ranchos. In the past the city has been able to contribute a small part towards the fund, but this year, as last, there have been a few homeowners who have had to foot the bill. Besides the cost of candies and fruits there have been rental costs on a Santa Claus suit, and gasoline and oil used. This year we are asking others to help us by donating a quarter to help buy the candies and fruit. Those wishing to help can leave donations at 5107 Sharynne Lane, or 5104 Zakon Rd.

Mrs. Kathleen Crane, of Oakland, is expected in the Jack Milson household on Blindwald Rd. this next week, to stay over the holidays. Visitors over the week-end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Burk were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Jeff Poor and sons, Dennis Lee and Danny Joe, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boyer and friend Kathy, of Gardena.

Visitors for Mr. and Mrs. B. Frank Renz, of Zakon Rd., were Mr. and Mrs. Robertson from Wilmington. The Robertsons spent all of Sunday with the Renzes.

Company for Mr. and Mrs. Bud Bedrosian, of Zakon Rd., were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wirtanen from Detroit, Mich. The Wirtanens are very recent newcomers.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Jack S. Mitchell over the week-end were Tommy Mitchell and friend, Mary Hayden. The Jack S. Mitchell family visited with Mrs. Roy Kilpatrick, of Van Nuys, over Sunday. Though Mrs. Kilpatrick and Mrs. Mitchell are cousins, they had not seen one another for about 15 years; so you know how exciting the trip must have been. Mr. and Mrs.

Larson, of Victoria Terrace, have recently returned from a week's trip to Provo, Utah.

On Nov. 21, the Stewardship Dinner was held at the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection in Hollywood Riviera. The PTR program is still in progress, with meetings held on Monday through, starting Nov. 29. Preaching services begin at 8:30 p.m., with Pastor Nelson as guest speaker.

Best wishes to Denny Cleveland and brother, Mickey, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cleveland, who have been prettysick little guys. Denny has the flu, while Mickey is abed with the mumps. Little Steven Donald Anzley, of Macaffer Rd., is much better following an accident while he was playing with neighbor children on his street. Mother, Mrs. Louise Anzley, says he is able to sit up and have visitors now. Father Walt Anzley received injuries in an auto accident two days after son Steve was injured.

Sorry to see Mr. and Mrs. Meedy and family, residents at 3202 Vanderhill Rd. for a long, long time, have moved away.

Mrs. Carl Hall of Victoria Terrace was recently installed as president of the Meadow Park Parent-Teacher Assn. Working with Mrs. Hall and the new board of the PTA, will be Mrs. William Poser, first vice-president; Mr. Ferris, principal of the school and second vice-president; Mrs. E. W. Dungey, recording secretary; Mrs. Helen Langford, corresponding secretary; Mrs. L. A. Barney, treasurer; Mrs. H. Mulkey, auditor; and Mrs. P. C. Raack, historian.

Brownie Troop 1119 under the guidance of Mrs. Laura Poser, of Victoria Terrace, held a recent treat at the 4930 Marion address, with their mothers as guests. Mrs. Poser has been director of this Brownie troop for quite a long while.

We understand that the Girl Scouts could use some new leaders and Brownie leaders. For information about how you can become a leader please contact Mrs. Poser either at her home address or by calling FR 5-2296.

The Scout Mothers Club held its November meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kiesel of Hollywood Riviera, where they also worked on ceramic pins and earrings for the Christmas tree lot sale. The Christmas lot will be in its usual place at Sepulveda Blvd. and Palos Verdes Blvd. The sale of Christmas trees will start on Dec. 11.

During discussions we learned that one of the ladies at the home in North Redondo had passed away, leaving a void in our lives. Mrs. Emma Wylie was very well liked by the other ladies at the home, and all the Scout Mothers Club. Present at the meeting to enjoy cookies and coffee were Isabelle Gaul, Bonnie Evans, Mildred Muldoon, Alma Kiesel, Marion Colby, Janet Wood, Elsie Westcombe, Virginia Naumann, Madge Graham, Sue Burk, and Margarette Whyte. The next meeting—a Christmas party—will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Colby of Victoria Terrace.

The Peter Jurisica, of Blindwald Rd., had to be satisfied with a consolation dinner instead of the Victory dinner they had planned in case their team won at the USC-UCLA football game Saturday.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of Zakon Rd. over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Maveety, of Lone Beach. Returning the compliment on Monday, the Johnsons visited in the Maveety home.

Sherry Myers passed her seventh birthday on Nov. 18 with many friends helping in the celebration. Guests were Susan Barrett, Rosemary and Betty McClune, Patty Dier, David and J. G. Varley, Larry Cooney, and Carol Brady. Helping to make this the most wonderful of birthdays, grandmother Mrs. Mani gold sent the birthday (a n g e l food) cake all the way from Detroit. Grandmother also sent trimmings for the room decorations and favors for all the little guests. The children enjoyed such games as charades and the donkey game, with Betty McClune walking off with the prize for planning the fall close to where it should be on the donkey. With the children enjoying all the different lively favors they also enjoyed with their cake lots of ice cream and cola.

At a toy party recently held in the home of Mrs. Virginia Johnson, of Zakon Rd., enjoying cake and coffee while looking over the line of toys Mrs. W. H. Alley, Mrs. Jim McClune, Mrs. Walk Anzley, Mrs. Greg Reger, Mrs. D. Gunther, Ann Russell, Mrs. H. Fullerton, Mrs. E. Mills, Mrs. F. W. Burk and the hostess, Mrs. Virginia Johnson.

There will be no classes at Seaside on Thursday and Friday of this week due to the Thanksgiving holiday. School will resume on Monday.
