Ardath Avenue Children to Present Christmas Plays

Ardath Avenue Players, composed of children under 12 years of age, all living near 164th St. and Ardath Ave., will present two one-act plays, "Why the Chimes Rang" and "Christmas is a Birthday Party," at the McMaster Park, 174th and Yukon, for their families and friends on Dec. 4 at 7:30 p.m.

Epsilons to Hold Party

Epsilon Sigma chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha International sorority will hold its annual Christmas party in conjunction with their Secret Sister Night this evening at the home of Wanda Pilgrim, 10023 S. Wilton Pl., Los Angeles.

A short business meeting will be held before the party. Each guest will bring a gift for her secret sister and names will be revealed at this party. New names for secret sisters during the coming year will be drawn. Christmas ideas will be exchanged and guests will bring Christmas cookies, cake, candies or other delicacies.

At the November meeting of the local group, a basket for a needy family at Thanksgiving was planned. Each member brought canned goods for the basket and a committee composed of Martha Sherwood, Christine Manweiler and Willa Lee Harris packed and delivered the basket.

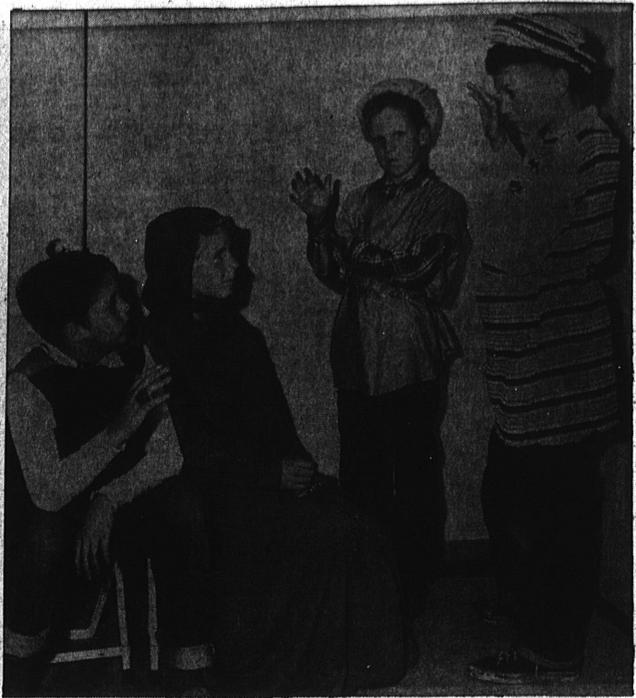

Children participating in the "Why the Chimes Rang" are in an age group of 8 to 12 years. The cast includes: Holger, Tommie Swain; Steen, Don Mattingly; Berfel, Larry Moore; old woman, Janice Leech; priest, Raymond Legere; richman, Paul Legere; rich lady, Linda Knox; writer, Diane Madrigal; young girl, Jeri Rae Green; princess, Susie Swain; king, Michael Cox; angel, Leora Galin; singer, Sandra Wegener.

Dancing bells are LeVada Galin, Janey Hendricks and Nicky Hendricks; Christmas tree, Steven Widner; presents under the tree, a doll, Emily Habit; and jack-in-the-box, Ted Wegener; Madonna, Kathy Knox; and angel, Terry Keldrauk.

There will be no admission charge, but contributions will be accepted for future plays.

A party will be given for the children after the play. Mrs. John Mattingly is chairman for the party. Sets for the play are being designed by Raymond Legere and costumes are by Mrs. Charles Emge, Mrs. Bruce Dunpace, Mrs. Alex Keldrauk and Mrs. Walter Swain. Alex Keldrauk will handle the lighting and Theo Wegener, the sound.

THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS . . . is captured by these Ardath Ave. Players as they rehearse for the annual production of two one-act plays. They are, from left, Tommy Swain, Janet Leach, Don Mattingly and Larry More. The plays are given each Christmas season by the children under 12 years of age who live in the Ardath Ave. and 164th St. neighborhood. The two plays will be presented at McMaster Park Dec. 4 at 7:30 p.m. under the direction of Mrs. David Osterback.
