Donations Lagging in Campaign To Help Bring Santa to Seaside

By SUE BURK... Donations are lagging in the campaign to get funds to bring Santa and his antique car to Seaside Heights and Rancho this Christmas. Many people have contributed so far, but not enough to buy candy canes and apples for the youngsters. We are asking only for a quarter from each family. I wish to thank those people who have helped. If you can make a donation, contact Sue Burk, of 5104 Zakon Rd., for the Heights, and Bob Evans, of 5107 Sharynne Lane, for the Rancho.

Best wishes to Mrs. Dias, of 5307 Doris Way, who is still convalescing from an operation undergone several weeks ago.

Tiny one-year-old Lois Brady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Brady, of 5324 Doris Way, is in the Children's hospital in Los Angeles with pneumonia.

Now five years old is Betty McClune, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim McClune, of 5320 Doris Way. Betty celebrated her birthday Thursday last with a group of her little friends from the neighborhood. Eating pink and blue birthday cake, ice cream, and punch were Rosemary McClune, David and J. G. Varley, Robin Tomlinson, Donna and William Earl Burk, Susan Barrett, Lawrence Cooney, and Becky Bedrosian. The most comical game played was pinning the big red nose on the clown's face. In which J. G. Varley took the prize. Betty received many nice gifts, but most prized possession was a little play-nurse kit.

Another birthday in the McClune household honored seven-year-old Rosemary. At a birthday party given by her mother in which J. G. Varley took the prize. Betty received many nice gifts, but most prized possession was a little play-nurse kit.

Taking over Brownie Troop 308 is Jean Walker, of 4907 Mason Rd., in the Rancho. The troop is sponsored by the Las Vecinas Club.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. Richard Grerson, recently moved from Zakon, to Coral Manor, was shaken up a bit in an automobile accident Dec. 3, during the rainstorm.
