'Y' Holiday Club to Open

Because there is no snow at Mount Waterman, the YMCA trip scheduled for next Monday will go to see "Hansel and Gretel," Secretary Stan Roberts announced.

Sign-ups for the Y's Holiday Fun Camps are still being accepted, he said.

Swimming will be held at the San Pedro YMCA on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons is planned, with trips to various points of interest on other days.

Trips to the Ford Motors assembly plant in Wilmington on Thursday, and to the International Airport and Oceanarium on the following Thursday are included in the program.

Boys will meet at the Torrance YMCA each day with their lunch, and must bring towels on swimming days. Larry Lippin, co-ordinator of last summer's Day Camp staff, will assist Roberts.

4 Arraigned

Four men, charged with the robbery of Market Town and three other markets last summer, were arraigned Tuesday in Los Angeles Superior Court.

Arraigned were Dave Sherman, 53; Russell E. Lane, 74; Charles Miller, 58, and Raymond J. Wagner, 51, all of Long Beach. Included in the charges were robberies at Market Town, 15017 S. Crenshaw Blvd.; two Long Beach markets, and a store in Santa Monica.

FANCY FOOTBALLER . . . Larry Olen, All-Metropolitan Conference guard on the 1950 El Camino College football team, proved himself a champ in a new field recently. He was adjudged winner of the semi-annual hairstyling contest sponsored by the college cosmetology department. His model was Miss Beverly Cherin, of 16714 Ermanita Ave., a student at the college.

SCHOOL WITH AN AERIAL TWIST . . . Reading, writing, social studies, geography, art, and science were brought into a recent project of Stewart Westcott's sixth grade class at Carr School. The model airport and accompanying murals are inspected by Marsha Frost, Barbara Haynes, Tom Toomey, and Ray Ault. In studying the airplane industry, America's second largest, the group studied weather conditions, geographical requirements of flying, and then read and wrote stories about their work, and built the small airport as an art project. The group also visited Torrance Municipal Airport.

Auto Fleet Available to Ohio Group

A fleet of 1955 DeSotos has been assigned to Ohio State University for use by OSU officials and the Buckeye football squad while they are here for the New Year's Day Rose Bowl game. It was revealed here this morning by George Whittlesey of Whittlesey Motors.

Whittlesey said the 20-car fleet would include four-door, convertible, and hardtop DeSotos in the Ohio colors of scarlet red and gray. The officials received the cars Friday.

School OKs Bungalow Bid

A low bid of $181,780 for ten double bungalows for the Torrance School District has been received, school officials said today.

J. E. Burrell and Sons were low bidders.

This will take approximately 1600 students off double sessions, he said. The buildings to be placed in critical attendance areas throughout the district, should be done by the end of April.

The square foot cost of the building will be about $7.50.

Civitan Will Sponsor 'Scoutmaster' Movie

Torrance youngsters will get a Christmas gift from the Civitan Club tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

All interested kids can attend the movie, "Mr. Scoutmaster," and four color cartoons free of charge at the Stadium Theater. After the show, Santa will distribute candy to those attending.

Rotarians Will Hear Colonel James Bell

Col. James Bell, of the Salvation Army, will be guest speaker at the Rotary Club meeting Thursday in the Woman's Club. Funds will be collected for the Salvation Army by club members.
