Church News

Rev. Oelschlager Will Remain in Present Pulpit

The Rev. Karl S. Oelschlager has declined to accept a call to a Los Angeles church, and will continue as pastor at Park View Lutheran Church, he announced this week.

The decision was unanimously approved by the church council.

This Sunday, newly elected church officers will be installed during the 11 a.m. services. Philip Woodward will become president of the church, while Hubert Hickam will be vice-president, and Marvin Meyers will be treasurer.

Other officers to be installed are Gene Clark, elder, two years; John Humphrey, elder, one year; Milton Bulan, trustee, three years; Otto Hanson, Hubert Hickam, and Marvin Meyers, deacons, two years; and Galen Benning and Gottlieb Derheim, deacons, one year.

GOSPEL SINGERS... The Seminars, students at the California Baptist Theological Seminary at Covina and recent winners on the Church Talent Hour, will conduct services Sunday evening at the First Baptist Church.

Baptists Slate Quartet, Billy Graham Picture

A Billy Graham movie tonight and special music by the Seminars, quartet which won the Church Talent Program contest, this Sunday are slated at the First Baptist Church.

The movie, "Souls in Conflict," based on Graham's recent London Crusade, will be shown at the church tonight at 7:30. Open to the public, the movie features Colleen Townsend Evans, George Beverly Shea, Cliff Barrows, and Donn Moomaw, former UCLA football great.

Baptists Tell Sermon Topic

"Suffering for Christ" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. George F. Cain at the 11 a.m. services at the South Bay Baptist Church Sunday, while he will discuss "The Power of Prayer" at 7:30 p.m.

Bible testimony and "singspiration" will precede the evening message. A Sunday School attendance contest will begin this Sunday, with details announced at the 9:45 classes.

Reservations for the Conservatory Baptist Assn. of Southern California banquet in Los Angeles Tuesday, must be made with the pastor by Sunday evening.

Those planning to attend the Junior High Camp, at Forest Home Jan. 14 to 16 should contact the pastor by tomorrow.

The study of the "Tabernacle" will continue Wednesday night at the Prayer and Bible Study group.

"The Seminars" gospel quartet from the California Baptist Theological Seminary at Covina, will sing for evening services Sunday night at 7:30. The group won over seven other contestants, on the Church Talent Hour last October. The public is invited.

Church of Christ Topic For Sermons Revealed

Sermon topic for 11 o'clock Sunday morning services at the Church of Christ, 1217 Cravens Ave., will be "In All Due Respect," and at 7 p.m. the topic will be "Knowing Your Direction," it was disclosed today.

The evening sermon will be beamed to the youth of the congregation.

FIRST IRONWORKS
First Ironworks in the United States was established at Saugus, Mass., about 300 years ago.

Mental Health Talks Slated

The second in a series of sermons on "In Christ, the Way to Mental Health" will be continued this Sunday at the First Methodist Church.

The Rev. John L. Taylor will talk on "The Basis of Jesus' Authority—He Loved the Abiding Virtues," at the 11 a.m. services. In a series of lecture discussions at 10:05 a.m., Mrs. Dorothy L. Law, consultant in religious psychology and HERALD columnist, will discuss "Learning to Meet Your Child's Needs." A film, "Over-Dependency," will be shown at 7:30 in the evening.

Christians Plan Double Session Sunday Services

Double sessions of both Sunday School and church began last Sunday at the First Christian Church, the Rev. Harry Milton Siggel announced. Services at both 9:30 and 10:50 will be held from now on, he said. Sunday School classes will be held at both times, but junior and senior high and adult classes will be held only at the earlier hour. Nursery classes for children under three will be open at both services.

At 3 p.m. Sunday, a service of dedication for new babies will be held.
