Tartars are once again back to the hard task of studying, after a wonderful two-week vacation. The gay holiday season was enjoyed by all, and some Tartars are even heard saying: "only five more months until summer." There are plenty of activities around Torrance High to keep all of us busy.

Next Wednesday the Girls League will have an exchange and call with Redondo Union High School. Talented girls from Torrance will perform for Redondo students, and they will entertain our Girls League. Between the morning and afternoon and calls, the visitors will be treated to lunch in the cafeteria by the league.

The Newport-Torrance Varsity basketball game a week ago Tuesday proved to be a very exciting one. The game was very close, with Torrance finally pulling ahead for the final score. Many Torrance rooters were present to cheer both the JV and Varsity teams to victory, even though it was vacation.

Tomorrow a basketball rally will be held at snack outside the cafeteria. The purpose of the rally is to put plenty of pep into students for the game at Redondo tomorrow night. Everyone should cooperate with the yell leaders, hand and song queens, so more of these rallies can be held in the future. Let's see everyone out to the game at 7 o'clock Friday night and show Redondo our good school spirit.

Winter Wonderland, the fabulous winter formal, will be held Saturday night at the Civic Auditorium. This is one of the nicest events of the year. There are only two more days left to buy your ticket. The Student Council has been busy planning this dance for weeks and hope to make this an annual affair.

The Youth Coordinating Council will hold a meeting Thursday night at 7:30 at the Red Cross Building on Torrance Blvd. toward Western Ave. All youth club representatives are urged to attend. New officers will be elected at this time.

Bright orange sweaters now adorn the members of the Coquette Y-teens. The club members just recently purchased their sweaters.

Two senior girls, Joan Leake and Judi Reid, were the recipients of two birthday parties last week.

Mike Lyman's Restaurant was the scene of one of the celebrations, as Joan and Judi's friends treated them to a delicious dinner, followed by a swell movie, "A Star is Born." Enjoying the evening were Peggy Wood, Pat Rogan, Connie Stout, Judy Wright, Pat Flanagan, Dana Cecil, Marylou Sage and the two honorees.

After the Newport-Torrance basketball game, Marylou Sage gave a surprise slumber party for the girls. The highlight of the evening was when Peggy Wood read her old diaries to the group. Later a birthday cake was served. Joining in the fun were Judi, Joan, Peggy and Marylou were Cynthia Easley, Ann Steinbaugh, Connie Stout, Pat Rogan and Judy Wright.

Over the holidays, Tartars attended many Christmas and New Year's parties. One of the nicest parties of the season was given by Ann Steinbaugh and Cynthia Easley at Ann's home. Eleven couples attended the gala affair. A delicious buffet supper was served the guests.

Pat Merritt's home was the scene of another Christmas party, on Dec. 22. Refreshments consisted of punch and sandwiches. Attending were Jim Houston, Joan Northey, Joan Blackman, Jeff Carr, Pat Hawkes, Connie Walton, Helen Sands, Cliff Todd, Charlene Todd, Dave Drazkowski, Grace Maddy, Ed Palmer, Diane Larson, Jim Palmer, Alice Albertson, and Monty Backstrom. The same gang had a terrific party New Year's Eve at the home of Jim Palmer.

Exchanging Christmas gifts was the high spot of the Marquette Y-teen Christmas party Dec. 23. The party was held at the YWCA and after the exchange of gifts those attending enjoyed dancing. A slumber party followed for the club members.

Torrance alumnus Jack Bee man gave a swell party New Year's Eve at his home. The gang had fun listening to records and blowing the tradition at New Year's horns at midnight. Attending were Pat Rogan and Jim Donnette, Cynthia Easley and Tom Smith, Peggy Wood and Ted Carrington, Joan Laskaris and Bob Hammack, and Jack and Jan Desmond.

Also gathering to greet the new year at Gerry Jacobs' was a group of Tartars. They were Alan Rainwater and Julie Carrano, Larry Lippincott and Sharon Stewart, Sherwood Tiernan and Barbara Carter, Joe Fazio and Joan Jernigan, Steve Peters and Sue Dukeman, and Linda Halburg and Gary.
