IT'S A MAN'S WORLD . . . and Bobby Schuchman had the most fun finding it out, when he paid the barber a visit on the day he was eight months old. He submitted to the snip snip of the scissors in a hilarious mood, and a barber, A. Fredrickson, gave him the finest of attention. Then came the clippers and the soothing drone had a delightful effect. . . Bobby slept through the ordeal. Bobby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schuchman, 1953 Reynosa Dr. He has two brothers and his dad is a teacher at the Torrance High School.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Is Given By Junior Choir

Junior choir of St. Andrew's Episcopal church held its second annual Mother-Daughter banquet at the church last Thursday evening. Members of the St. Mary Magdalene Guild served the dinner at tables elaborately decorated in the Valentine motif.

New officers of the choir are: Kathy Jones, president; Peggy Sprout, vice president; and Sharon Ricci, sergeant at arms.

Gifts of appreciation were presented to Miss Katherine Mills, choir director and Miss Peggy Sprout, past president. Other retiring officers were Nancy Humphreys, vice president and Naomi Newman, sergeant at arms.

The special guest list included: Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Bello, Miss Katherine Mills and her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Mills of Christ Episcopal church of Redondo Beach. Other guests were Mrs. Marjory Norman, chairman of the St. Mary Magdalene Guild, Mrs. H. C. St. Martin, president of the Woman's auxiliary and two guest soloists, Miss Janet Williamson and Leo Hughes.

Attending were Mrs. Ralph Sprout and daughter, Peggy; Mrs. Philip Humphreys and Naomi, Diane St. Martin, Mrs. Willis Blount and Mary Margaret Blount, Mrs. Merle Hinshaw and Diane Hinshaw, Mrs. Adam Krausser and Barbara and Ginny Krausser, Mrs. Paul Angeles and Paula, Mrs. W. A. Newman and Naomi, Mrs. John Ricci and Sharon, Mrs. Mary Chaplin and Kathy Jones, Mrs. Thomas Perkins and Devon, Mrs. H. A. Attridge and Dorothy, Mrs. Paul R. Albright and Patsy, and Mrs. H. E. Hall and Janet.

WEEK-END GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Steinhilber and children Sherry and Richy of Lancaster were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cunningham, 1923 Reynosa Dr., Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Steinhilber and their hosts were guests at a Valentine dance and buffet supper at the Northrup Recreation Club.

Baby Shower Given For Mrs. H. Brady

Mrs. Roland Petrat was hostess at a pretty pink and blue baby shower at her home, 2942 Opal Ave., last Thursday evening complimenting Mrs. Hugh Brady. Pink and blue flower arrangements were used at vantage points in the room and the tiny storks and booties further carried out the color scheme.

Several appropriate "baby games" were played with prizes to the winners. The honoree was then presented her shower of baby gifts which had been placed around a stork.

Refreshments in the party colors were served with tiny blue booties as the nut cups.

Guests attending the party were Mrs. Doris Routh, Doris Jacobelli, Ellen Emma, Dan Schmidt, Mary Lee Peters, Eva Huff, Joyce McGuffin, Juanita Jackson, Lou Burrows, and Helen Crooker.

Sending gifts were Mrs. Betty Momo, Mary Porter, Jean Clarke, Helen Osterlind, and Betty Hayes.

Club Hostess Entertains at Two Suppers

Mrs. J. H. Hull entertained her bridge club at a luncheon and afternoon of cards last Tuesday at her home, 1748 Manuel Ave.

In the games following the luncheon served at a flower decorated table, the first prize was won by Mrs. Frank Williams. Mrs. Lloyd Jones held the second high score.

Mrs. Hull's guests were Mrs. Douglas Baldwin, William Christian, Irene Day, Robert Dexter, Lloyd Jones, John Kemp, Frank Williams and C. Albin Smith.

The club will be entertained on Feb. 22 by Mrs. Lou Stillers.

JayCettes Are Incorporated

Incorporation papers for their club, known officially as JayCettes of Torrance, were secured during the past week. The articles of incorporation for this non-profit organization were filed in the County Recorder's office on Jan. 28. Handling the official procedures for the club in Los Angeles were members Mrs. Ed Karlow, Mrs. Fred Hansen, Mrs. Howard Percy and Mrs. Jack Smith. John A. Willd, formerly of Torrance, donated his legal services to the club. The incorporation papers bear the official seal of the Secretary of State.

Tuesday evening, Feb. 15, the club held its first dinner meeting. The affair was staged at a Waleria restaurant.

The JayCettes are renting an outstanding film on "Good Americanism." The film will be shown during the last week in February to each eighth grade class in the Torrance Unified School System, in conjunction with the study of history. This is the JayCettes public affairs project for the month.

Fireladies Entertain at Two Suppers

The Valentine motif was elaborately used in decorating a room in the Civil Defense building last Friday and Saturday evenings for the two pot luck suppers honoring Shifts A and B of the Torrance Fire Department given by the Torrance Fireladies.

Attending the affair Friday were: Messrs. and Mrs. Jake J. Benner, Wesley L. Christian, Gordon T. Clark, Richard L. DeArmitt, Sam R. Dial, Harry G. Drake, Sam A. Martin, Leo J. Palumbo, George Powell, Charles E. Reintama, Bill C. Stonecker, Frank Tuttle, James C. Wass and Walter R. West.

Present Saturday evening were Messrs. and Mrs. John Agapito, George H. Blahnik, Dan A. Davis, Ray Flagg, Robert Ketzorka, Vernon G. Langford, Milton P. Langrum, Jerry Loy, Sam A. Martin, Robert E. Moffitt, William Russell, Albert M. Salvide, Stan H. Sellers, James Wass, Harlan Whitacre, and Dean White.

Church Women Will Open Prayer Week on Feb. 25

The week of February 25 has been designated as "Prayer Week" and will be observed by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church. The weekly program is under the auspices of the United Church Women.

At a recent meeting of the society held at the church, the group heard an inspiring talk by Miss Edith Curl regarding her work as a deaconess at the United States Immigration and Naturalization facilities on Terminal Island. She was appointed to that post by the WSCS in 1952 and served there until a change in government policy closed such centers.

During the afternoon worship service which was led by Mrs. Roy Gore, included a solo by Mrs. Norma Dobrick. Rebecca Circle members served the noon luncheon at tables gaily decorated in the Valentine motif.

Schedules for coming events were set at the morning business conducted by Mrs. J. S. McMullen.

The district meeting of the societies will be held April 15 in Downey and an officers training day will be held in Long Beach, May 17. A Bible study class under the direction of Mrs. John Almond will be held for four consecutive weeks starting March 9. This will be followed by a study of "The City" under the leadership of Mrs. Lois Balsley.

Shower Fetes Mrs. Snyder

Mrs. Edward Snyder of 2767 Porto Bello, Torrance, was honored guest at a prettily appointed stork shower given by Mrs. Selmer Stein at her 2920 Perkins Lane home in Redondo Beach.

As the guests arrived, the co-hostess, Mrs. Kenneth Thompson, presented each with a corsage cleverly fashioned with a paper napkin folded to resemble a diaper and pinned with blue and pink ribbon.

The honored guest opened lovely gifts while seated in an armchair decorated with crepe paper streamers. Gifts were presented to her in a basket trimmed in the pink and blue colors.

Following appropriate games, refreshments were served at a table centered with a stork cake. Party menu was shell macaroni and tuna salad garnished with slices of hard boiled eggs, served with potato chips, olives, pickles, nut and mint cups. Places were marked by pink and blue flowered napkins, folded as "baby kimonos."

Enjoying the affair with the honoree, hostess and co-hostess were: Mrs. John E. Bryant, Dallas Noble, Lea Hampton, Albert B. Jones Jr., and John E. Kirby. Mrs. Ann Copenhaver was unable to attend. Lut sent gift.

LETTER CARRIERS

Auxiliary of the Torrance Branch of the National Association of Letter Carriers will hold their annual dinner and 1954 party tomorrow evening. The group will have dinner at a Long Beach restaurant and will then attend the theater.

DINNER GUESTS

Dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hull, 1748 Manuel Ave., on Saturday evening were Mr. Hull's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hull and daughter, Roberta, of Downey.
