

PTA ACTIVITIES

Perry

Perry PTA will observe Founder's Day this evening at the school with the theme "Progressing and Progressing" being appropriately carried out in a radio skit "Queen For Her Day" written by Mrs. Kenneth McVey.

National PTA past presidents and past presidents of Perry PTA will be honored.

Members of the cast are: Mrs. E. Carelstrom, master of ceremonies; Mrs. R. E. Nelson, announcer; Mrs. Ted Jackson, Mrs. Ernest Underwood, Mrs. W. E. Boell, Mrs. Delmer Kern, Mrs. Gordon Lee, and Mrs. John Arensmeyer, national past presidents.

Past presidents of Perry school, who will be honored are: Mrs. A. B. Cowie, W. A. Wright, G. H. Blake, and A. L. MacKenzie.

Also on the program will be a panel composed of 7th and 8th grade students of Mrs. Isabelle Wagner and Jim E. Williams. The Constitution of the United States will be the topic. Students participating will be Garrell Klatt, Lewis Mutchler, Amol Capik, Ken Purviance, Garry Shrigley, Shara Gazay, Jolie Henderson, Brenda Thompson, Marilyn Akutagawa and Judy LeClaire.

The executive board of the Perry PTA met Thursday, Feb. 10 with Mrs. John Arensmeyer, president, in charge. The nominating committee submitted a slate of officers to be presented at the association meeting. The slate of officers for the council were also read.

Life membership chairman, Mrs. E. A. Schuster, made a report of her progress on life memberships to be awarded at the March association meeting. Proceeds from the recent "kidnap" breakfast held at the home of Mrs. Delmer Kern will go into the welfare fund.

Planters were given to the five teachers who were transferred to Greshaw school. They are: Robert Blevins, James Allen, Mrs. Bernice McMahon, Mrs. Margaret Brennan and Richard Welte, vice-principal.

Crenshaw

Crenshaw PTA has planned a skating party for Monday, Feb. 21 from 7 to 10 p.m. at the Torrance Roller Rink. Tickets, which include skates, are on sale at the Crenshaw school or may be purchased from Mrs. Rae Eyston, 18918 Haas or Mrs. Margie Chapman, 3240 W. 188th St. Tickets will also be available at the door.

ENTERTAIN GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Haslam, 1519 Anapola Ave., had as their houseguest for several days last week, Mrs. Haslam's niece, Miss Loretta Harris, who teaches art at the University in San Diego. Other recent visitors at the Haslam home were their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Haslam and son, Harold, of Firebaugh.

FERN-GREENWOOD

The monthly meeting of the Fern-Greenwood PTA was held on Thursday, Feb. 10, at 7:30 in the Fern Cafeteria. As the guests of honor and members entered they were entertained by the Fern-Greenwood orchestra under the direction of Mrs. Merlyn Wille. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. R. E. Murphy, and the pledge of allegiance was presented by Boy Scout Troop 728. Don Ogren sang "A Prayer of St. Francis" as the inspirational.

Malcolm Richland introduced the new vice-principal, Carl Shaner, and Mr. Wallner, who is a new member of the staff. The report of the nominating committee was read by the chairman, Mrs. C. F. Malone. The following had their names entered in nomination: Mrs. P. T. Underwood, pres.; Mrs. I. R. White, vice pres.; Mrs. J. A. Bynum, 2nd vice pres.; Carl Shaner, 3rd vice pres.; Mrs. J. S. Gable, recording secretary; Mrs. G. T. Arrasmith, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. M. Weir, treasurer; M. Richland, auditor; and Mrs. P. L. Ogle, historian.

The Tribute to Founders was read by Mrs. P. E. Humphreys, and those past presidents of the association who attended were introduced. The Life Membership Committee reported that they had selected two candidates for Honorary Life Memberships. Mrs. C. F. Malone was honored because of outstanding work in Parent-Teacher-Cub Scouting, and Little League. She is also a past president of the Fern-Greenwood association. Herman Boodman, who is an eighth grade teacher at Greenwood, was honored for his many years of work with the Boy Scouts, as well as his outstanding work in the field of drama at the school. Mrs. A. C. Turner, who is the Financial Secretary of the Twenty-third District, was introduced.

Refreshments were served by the third grade room mothers, from a beautifully decorated table which honored Founder's Day.

Elementary

Torrance Elementary School PTA will hold its regular monthly association meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.

At this meeting, Founders Day will be observed, at which time past presidents of the association will be honored and awards of life memberships will be made.

Mrs. J. Shidler, program chairman, also announces that the new Boy Scout Troop 732, sponsored by the Torrance Elementary School PTA, will be presented to the organization for the first time.

Of special interest at the meeting will be the revelation of the "Big Secret," namely, "Who will receive the Life Membership?"

Halldale

Mrs. E. E. Saleido, Halldale Ave. School PTA president, has been named recipient of the association's 1955 PTA honorary life membership award.

The presentation of this award for outstanding and unselfish service to youth and the community, the highest honor that PTA can bestow on an individual, was made to Mrs. Saleido at the February PTA Founders Day meeting held at Halldale Ave. School on Feb. 10.

Mrs. W. L. Wilson, Founders Day chairman, introduced Mrs. Don Wolfe, 10th District Founders Day chairman, who spoke on the rich heritage of PTA and in particular the underlying principles and objectives. As PTA president and past honorary award winners honored were Mrs. Amanda Bonwell, Halldale Ave. School principal, Lillian Morris, M. Corgdripe, E. R. Martin, J. Blackstone, Lillian Smith and Earl Comstock.

During a business session Mrs. William Overstreet, Ray Rhoads, John Andrade, E. N. Reese and Amanda Bonwell were elected to serve on the nominating committee. This committee will select the nominee for office for the 1955-56 school year.

Mrs. Irene Anania was ratified as ways and means chairman. Entertainment was provided by Halldale Mothersingers under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Adams. During the social hour refreshments were served by the second grade room mothers.

259th Place

This evening at 7:30 in the 259th Place School auditorium, the past presidents of the PTA will be honored at the regular association meeting. After a brief business meeting, there will be a skit based on the TV program, "Draught Night." The mothersingers group will also perform. Mrs. J. R. Stanton is the accompanist for the group. Soloists are Ethel Hansen and Lois Bowling. Chorus members are Mmes. C. Elpper, N. F. Irvine, W. W. Howe, J. R. Allen, E. N. Long, I. R. Buchan, J. S. McDonald, T. R. Biglin, C. W. Mulherne and R. E. Prandin. Mrs. G. Maddy will be the accompanist for the rest of the program. Mrs. W. N. Kepley Jr. will present an honorary life membership. Child care will be provided and refreshments will be served after the meeting.

During a recent board meeting at the home of Mrs. C. E. Asptille, it was voted that Mrs. A. O. Boderman fill the vacant auditor position on the board. Mrs. J. W. Creager will assist Mrs. Roul Gerhart as ways and means co-chairman. Three money raising events were discussed, a come and go breakfast, an ice cream social and a paper drive.

A BENEFIT BREAKFAST... is being planned by the Torrance High School PTA to be given Feb. 23 from 9 until 11 a.m. at the YWC. Proceeds from the affair will be used to make up a deficit in the budget. Serving on the committee for the affair are, from the left, Mrs. E. M. Whitcomb, ways and means chairman; Mrs. J. O. Hinds, PTA president; Mrs. F. W. Lane and Mrs. J. E. Rapavich, general chairmen.

CAMP FIRE UNIT IS ORGANIZED

Eight girls from the Meadow Park School have recently organized the Watanda Camp Fire group. Present at the organizational meeting were Cynthia M. Keyes, Harbor district Camp Fire executive, Mrs. Florence Brenden, leader of the new group and her assistant, Mrs. Frank Steele.

Officers elected for the coming year were president, Helen Butcher; vice president, Sharon Cruise; secretary, Ruby Brenden; treasurer, Rosemary Balaw; and scribe, Bobbie Jean Kilgore. Other members are: Joyce Brown, Lee Smith and Barbara Andrews.

CARD PARTY

Building committee of the Rebekahs and Odd Fellows lodges will sponsor a card party this evening at the Community Center on Market St. in Gardena. The public is invited.
