

Plans Announced to Begin 2nd Junior Riviera Bicycle Club

By MARY WEBB
FR 5-3051

Next Junior Riviera Bicycle Club meeting will be Saturday at 11 a.m. at the Riviera School grounds. The new and latest hour is to allow for Brownie and Cub meetings held on Saturdays from 10 to 11. Mrs. John Downing, youth chairman of the sponsoring Riviera PTA reported.

A new bicycle club, patterned after the original group, is being formed in Lower Riviera. Mrs. Downing added. They will meet at the same time and on the same dates, but at Vista del Parque near Via Buena Ventura, instead of at the school. The Torrance Police Department has given permission to use Vista del Parque for one block, in order to teach the children safety rules and conduct tests in safe bicycle riding. Traffic quiz questionnaires and safety books will be distributed at this meeting. Future meetings, said Mrs. Downing, will call for the following: to meet on the first Saturday of the month while the upper group meets on the third Saturday.

Mrs. Robert Herrick, of 109 Paseo de las Delicias, PTA safety chairman, will be in charge of the new group. Parents are needed to assist Mrs. Herrick, and are requested to call her at FR 5-1103.

Junior Bicycle Club members may purchase their distinctive club caps at any of the meetings. Mrs. Downing concluded, or at any Riviera PTA meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Hayes, of 421 Calle de Aragon, halted the arrival of a guest over the week-end of Feb. 5. He was Ray Hamada, former resident, who flew out to Southern California from his home in Huntsville, Ala., on business, and while here, dropped in to stay with the Hayes. And he brought good news to them and to the Hamadas' many friends here in Riviera. He and his wife, Ann, and their children Geoff, 7, and Debbie 5, will be moving back to this area before too long.

Donald Hickey, son of Mrs. Vara Grube of 408 Via Monte de Oro, hosted a Valentine party and dance at his home on Feb. 11. Donald invited all fellow students in the seventh grade at Riviera School.

Theme of the dance and party was highlighted with Valentine hearts in many colors: red, white, pink striped and others.

Mrs. Grube helped her son in serving them cake, sandwiches and teenage punch. The party, held from 7 to 10 p.m., was hailed a great success.

Novel and worthwhile side-light to the dance was the fact that young Don worked hard to earn the necessary money to prepare for the party all by himself. He collected, sold and tied old newspapers, and sold them to earn the capital to stage his party.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fife, of 278 Via Linda Vista, have joined the ranks of extra-thankful parents after a harrowing ordeal. About two weeks ago their son Ragan, 2, decided to help his mother while she cooked some carrots. So he climbed up to the hot stove, and in his eagerness to help, tipped the pan of carrots and boiling water all over the front of him.

Rushed to Children's Hospital in Los Angeles, he underwent treatment for 12 days, returning home Feb. 8. Mrs. Fife reports doctors still have work to do with him, but that he is getting along fine, and thankfully, the hot water did not touch his face. She wished also to thank her many friends and neighbors who have been calling and asking about her son. His brother and sister, Jamie 7, and Meredith 5, are happy he's home with them again.

Congratulations have been flowing in to Mr. and Mrs. William Blair, of 273 Via Buena Ventura, on the birth of their son, Marc William, born Jan. 7 at the San Pedro Community Hospital.

Young Marc weighed in at 9 lbs. 2 oz. He joins sisters Linda, 7, and Nancy, 4, at the Blair home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Salmen, of 252 Via Buena Ventura, helped their young daughter Lorene, 4, celebrate her birthday with a party at her home on Saturday.

Theme of the birthday party centered on a circus idea. A large cake decorated in red and white, and many other circus and clown ideas brightened the festive room.

Invited guests were Linda and Nancy Blair, Bruce Vorpapel, Bill and David Winterburn, Cindy and Tina Clark, Debbie and Diana Darby, and Stevie Raymond. And from Morning-side Park in Southwest Los Angeles came cousins Kenny, George, Allan, and Billy Tway, to help Lorene celebrate. With them were mother and dad, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Tway.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Clark, of 253 Via Buena Ventura, on Jan. 22 at 8:05 p.m., at Hawthorne Hospital, was an 8 lb., 6 oz. girl named Nancy Jean. She joins sisters Tina, 10, and Cindy 2½, at the Clark household.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clark of Hermosa Beach. Maternal grandparent is Mrs. W. F. Lane of Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Lillian Haddock has returned from visiting her former home in Milwaukee, and a side trip to Rhineland, Wis., where she visited with one of her two daughters who lives there with her family. Mrs. Haddock has now taken up her residence with her second daughter, Mrs. Will Zens, of 167 Via Los Miradores.

In and around this area, three most interesting personalities are developing: an alcoholic actor fighting for a comeback, a country girl who was "Miss America" in the thirties, and still remain a "Country Girl"; and a bombastic, bigtime Broadway producer, Bruce Sutton, Carl Rogers and Dorothy Tunis in their rehearsals for Hampton Players' most ambitious presentation to date, "The Country Girl," which will open Friday Feb. 25 at Redondo Union High School auditorium. It will continue to play Saturday, Feb. 26, and again on the following Friday and Saturday, March 4 and 5.

Others in the cast, under the direction of Bob Farnsworth, include Ed Siani as Benie Dodd, Paul Oliver as Paul Unger, and Gall Swatman as Nancy Stoddard. John Rotolante as Larry, and Hal Douglas as Ralph.

Another Rivieran busy in the Hampton Players' coming show is Pat Wyatt, who will be backstage holding script. Another highlight promises to be the unique and intricate revolving set being designed and perfected by William Jackson, professional designer and stage manager.

Tickets may be secured at the door or by phoning FR 5-2371.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Connelly, of 113 Via El Chico, celebrated their eighth wedding anniversary on Tuesday, with dinner and an evening out with friends in the Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Handy, of 229 Paseo de Gracia, helped their daughter Susan, 8, to celebrate her birthday with a party at her home on Friday. Mrs. Handy prepared a birthday luncheon for many of Susan's friends. A favorite menu for eight-year-olds was prepared, including jumbo hamburgers, jello heart salads, carrot strips and red punch. Birthday cake, of white with red arrows and many red hearts.

Invited party and luncheon guests were Cecilia Jones, Martha Shidler, Barbara Ezabo, Cheryl Coleman, Julie Jenkins, Dianne Key, and Dianne Metzger.

Yet another club has come to light here. It's the "Teen-Ager Club," and it's been organized for about a year and still growing mightily. President of the club is Evelyn Schmid, 15, of 428 Calle Mayor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmid. Secretary is Pat Bernhardt, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Artuso, of 864 Calle de Arboles. The club's members include teenagers from high schools throughout this area, including Torrance, Mira Costa, Banning and others.

Purpose of the club, says s prexy Evelyn, is to find interesting and new things to do and see over the week-ends. One of their recent and different junkets was a trip on Sunday, Feb. 6, to Big Pines, where about 15 of their members enjoyed the snow, skiing and tobogganing. Chaperones on the snow trip were Mr. and Mrs. David Calvin, of Manhattan Beach.

February meeting of Riviera Cub Pack 656 commemorated 45 years of Scouting, with the annual blue and gold banquet held at El Retiro Park clubhouse Feb. 4. Nearly 90 Cubs, denmen and parents filled the clubhouse to capacity. Community singing followed the dinner, with presentation of awards being made afterwards.

Cub Scouts receiving awards included John Butterfield, two silver arrows and assistant denner stripe; James DeLancy, gold arrow; Charles Ella, wolf badge; Ted Gage, bear badge and one-year pin; David Ganges, denner; Brian Griff, denmer and two-year pin; John Hughes, one-year pin; John Minech, bobcat pin; John Gadge, gold arrow; Lynn Lamb, assistant denner; Michael Robbins, gold arrow and two silver arrows; and Skip Paul, den chief, received his denner cord.

Volunteers for the Red Cross drive for 1955 are being called for by Mrs. James Barnard, of 924 Calle Miramar, colonel for southwest Torrance. Anyone in Riviera wishing to help is asked to call Col. Barnard at FR 5-3850. She will then refer the volunteer to the major in charge of the volunteer's area.

Majors include Miss Peter Kiefer, Frank Cowles, Quinton Johnson, Melvin French, Jackson Pharris and James Hall.

Local Woman Named To AWS Secretary Job
Rose Latallade, of 2803 W. Camino College, it was revealed this week. Dave Parton, also of Torrance, will continue his full year term as commissioner of publications, it was indicated.
