

Party-Going Residents Make the Past Week-end An Extra Gay One

By BETTY MITCHELL
DA 6-4458

Sweet 17—that's what Lydia Linn of Park St. is now. To celebrate her birthday she had a bang-up party recently. The celebration was held at her cousin's home across the street from her own. Dancing was on the agenda for the evening, with gift opening and refreshments adding their bit of festivity to the occasion. Enjoying the evening were Gaye Wilson, Bob Parker, Pete Richardson, Jo Anne Bunker, Bob Hinsey, Maurine Brinkerhoff, Bonnie Kordeck, Pat Docey, Calvin Viles, Gordon Reynolds, Ron Lynch, Don York, Carroll Awfeels, Kendal Baker, Held O'Hara, Johnny Nishimoto, Betty Nishimoto, Jerrel Wilkins, John Cowger, Dave Phillips, Lydia, and her family. The birthday cake was finally cut to the sound of many "Ohs!" and "Ahs!" at the sight of the huge white confection decorated in pink and blue.

Ladies who would like to see what the well-dressed woman will wear this coming year, will have an opportunity to observe current fashions on March 18, when the local WSCS holds a fashion show. Five models will parade various costumes from sportswear and casual dresses through suits, coats, and finally, party attire. Time for the program is 8 p.m. Musical entertainment and door prizes will be on the list. Admission to the affair is 75 cents, which includes refreshments to be served at the end of the evening. For tickets call Mrs. Gloria DeCaro at DA 6-5829.

Party-going seems to have been the mode of living for many residents this past week. Forty-seven couples agree with this since they were guests at a surprise housewarming held for Mrs. Bessie Dysart at her Danaha St. home. Hostess for the affair was Mrs. John Monaghan, who was ably assisted by Mrs. Martha Munn. Busy putting pink rosebuds on white sheet cakes for the party was Mrs. Opal Simon, also of Danaha St. No one could have been more surprised than Mrs. Bessie Dysart when the guests started trooping to her door at 1 p.m.

Among those participating in the surprise were out of town guests including Mr. and Mrs. Pat Stewart of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bowen, of Ojai; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McLean, of Riverside; Mr. and Mrs. Dysart, of Santa Ana; Lorraine Skill, of Santa Ana; Mrs.

New Job Won By McDonald

W. J. McDonald, of 1719 Gramercy Ave., has been promoted from assistant auditor to auditor at the Howard Supply, of Vernon. Harold E. Howard, president, announced last week.

A native of New York City, McDonald studied at Manhattan College and received a degree in business administration from Columbia University. He is a California licensed public accountant and member of the National Assn. of Cost Accountants. He is also vice-president of the Holy Name Society at Nativity Catholic Church.

Fire Destroys Bed

Smoking in bed apparently caused a fire which destroyed a mattress and bedstead at the home of Robert Wiler, of 3419 W. 18th Pl., Saturday, Torrance firemen said.

CLUSE VISITOR

Mars was 40 million miles from the earth in 1954, the closest in 18 years.

Viola Deaso, of Placentia; Mr. and Mrs. Hal La Rue of Lomita; Mrs. Sue Biermann, of Van Nuys; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hoffman, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Hoffman, of Long Beach; and Mrs. Pearl Mitchell, of Long Beach. The guests brought many lovely gifts for the guest of honor and then enjoyed a chat while eating cake and sipping coffee.

The new Junior League Baseball Park is going in on Pacific Coast Hwy. next to the new post office. Needless to say, it made a great many of us happy to have the park placed where it is convenient for boys in this area. Scrap lumber, pipe, pipe-fitters, and all available help is needed to have the park ready for use this season. If you are interested in contributing either time or material call Mr. John Monaghan at DA 6-5306.

Another surprise party was given Mrs. Mary Anne Anderson on Wednesday morning, when she arrived at the home of Mrs. Wanda Cornell, of Ward St., to find herself the guest of honor at a stork brunch. Co-hostesses were Mary Pearson, Wanda Cornell, Betty Chaudano, and Jean Cramer. Coffee and coffee cake were served, games played, and gifts opened revealing many lovely baby items. Favors for the party were cleverly contrived of storks made from safety pins and gum drops. Many friends joined in wishing Mary Anne the best of luck including Mmes. Lola Johnson, Mae Vedborg, Gloria DeCaro, Jeanette Lawrence, Lois Daniels, Peggy Gehres, Ruth Mairers, Betty Williams, Betty Holter, Alberta Johnston, Juliana Anderson, Melba Burgener, Bonnie Beck, Henriella Tenney and Helen Herrera. The clever ladies winning prizes were Gloria DeCaro, Mary Pearson, and Bonnie Beck.

Guests for the afternoon last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Don Dahl, now of Tujunga. The Dahls stopped first on Madison St., where they picked up Mrs. Dahl's mother, Mrs. Mabel Foster, and then went on to Danaha St., where they visited with Mrs. Ken Tucker. While there, other former neighbors dropped in including Mr. and Mrs. Bill Manis and Mrs. JoAnn Stark. The Dahls also made a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Langston, also of Danaha St.
