

JITNEY DINNER MONDAY EVE

Annual jitney dinner sponsored by the Scout Mothers of troops 215, 115 and 115X of Lomita will be held Monday, March 14 in the Scout hall on Narbonne Ave.

Purpose of the 6 p.m. event is to become acquainted with new Scout mothers whose boys have recently joined the troops.

The Scout mothers held their last meeting March 8, at the home of Mrs. Ted Elliott of 2831 Fejoa Ave., Lomita.

GALA PARTY FOR WENDY

Wendy Lewis, who was celebrating her sixth birthday, was complimented with a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis, 1811 Santa Fe Ave.

Games were played after which a beautifully decorated birthday cake was served with ice cream.

Helping Wendy celebrate were Janis and Jody Mowry, Perky and Pam Hoffman, Janie Porras, Roseann and Christine Francesconi, Patty Clochline, Cecelia and Claudia Blahnik, and Bruce Lewis.

... Noted Homemaker

Connie Stout Selected As Torrance High Homemaker

Connie Phyllis Stout has been named the Homemaker of Tomorrow in the Torrance High school. She received the highest score in a written examination which tested the homemaking aptitude of the senior girls in her graduating class. Connie will receive a golden award pin, cook books for herself and her school and will be entered in competition to name this state's winner for the title of Betty Crocker American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

The local girl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rolland G. Stout, 132 Vista del Pargue. She is senior class secretary, member of the Tartar Ladies, Tri-High Y president and song queen. She has also been a member of the scholarship society for four years. Her favorite study is home economics and she plans to attend UC at Santa Barbara with home economics as a major.

California's representative in the national finals will be chosen from 282 school winners in the state. A scholarship of $1,500 will be awarded each state winner and she will receive a trip with her school advisor to Washington, D.C.

The scholarship to the young woman named All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow will be increased to $5,000. Each girl who took the test received a 24-page homemaking guide which will assist her in pursuing the career of homemaking.

YW COMMITTEE

YWCA public affair committee will meet Tuesday morning, March 15, at the home of Mrs. Walter Levy, 1624 Juniper, at 10. Mrs. John Parks and Mrs. Charles Mullen are co-chairmen. This is an open meeting.

League Will Hear Lecture

Mrs. Lorita Baker Valley will give the fifth lecture of her series for the Assistance League of San Pedro at the League club house 1441 West Eighth Street, at 10:45 a.m. on Tuesday, March 15.

She will discuss the second objective of our foreign policy: friendship and cooperation with Britain and the free nations of the west.

The three goals, as outlined in her January talk are: work with and through the United Nations; cement ties of friendship with Great Britain; cement ties of friendship with India.

Mrs. Valley will review the sophisticated and very funny New York hit play "Reclining Figure." The new and best selling books "Assignment Churchill" by Walter Scott, "The Four Winds" by Hallelujah, and "Mississippi" will be reviewed among others.

Tickets may be purchased at the door, and the coffee hour will follow the lecture.

Mothers' Club Elects New Officers

New officers of the Mothers' Club of Cub Scout Pack 953C, sponsored by Perry PTA, were elected Thursday evening, Mar. 3, at the regular monthly meeting. Mrs. Marvin Shockley, 4035 W. 179th St., was chosen president for the coming year.

Others who will serve with her on the executive board are Mrs. Phillip Brooks, vice-president; Mrs. Glenn H. Blake, treasurer; Mrs. H. D. Smith, secretary; Mrs. Wilson F. Willey, Ways and Means Chairman; Mrs. Harry Watkins, Hospitality Chairman; and Mrs. Andrew L. Hansen, Publicity Chairman; and Mrs. T. R. Jamison, assistant Ways and Means Chairman.

Mrs. Daniel Mangiagli, who has been president of the Cub Mothers' Club for the past year, conducted the business meeting and election. A discussion was held on the circus to be presented by Pack 953C on April 23, at Perry School, and also on the activities of the various dens. New members were introduced, and refreshments were served by Mrs. William Boell and Mrs. T. R. Jackson.

The purpose of the Cub Mothers' Club of Pack 953C is to aid and support the Den Mothers and the Cub Scouts in their activities whenever possible. The next meeting will be held on April 7, Thursday evening at 7:45, at the home of Mrs. Roy F. Dohner, 17311 Prairie Ave.

YOUR PENNIES WILL HELP... The Torrance 'Y' girls meet their goal for the 100th Endowment Fund to promote YWCA throughout the world. The girls will be on the streets of Torrance tomorrow and Saturday to collect your pennies. They will have crepe paper strips on the walk to catch your pennies and will also solicit with boxes. Shown with the paper strips and their boxes are, from left, Frances Cannon, Carol Isabelle, Donna Elliott and Donna Mahon.
