

Homeowners Dance Attracts More than 200 Neighbors

By BEVERLY DYER
FA 8-1386

The Homeowners dance on March 12 was a huge success with a fine representation from both sides of the Boulevard. The hall was beautifully decorated in green and white. St. Patrick's Day decor under the direction of Phyllis Kelsey, who was program chairman. The midnight buffet luncheon was enjoyed by the more than 200 guests who were present. Ken Perkin's orchestra and the soloist, Barbara Michels of Hollywood, provided the very danceable background. Bill Swisher, the dance chairman, certainly did a praiseworthy job of organizing the affair.

Michael Gonta of 917 Felbar, was celebrating his birthday, but he wouldn't let us go on his age. But the Bob Schlegels of Onrado didn't mind announcing that they were celebrating their 7th wedding anniversary. Barbara looked like a recent bride in a lovely blue and white checked dress offsetting her pretty blonde hair and blue eyes.

Don Hughes of 1122 Felbar and R. Penner of 1216 Teri, won the prizes.

If it sounds as though Felbar St. was there again en masse, you can well imagine they were. They couldn't even locate a large enough table for them all.

The Frank Kellys entertained at a pre-cocktail party for their many friends on Felbar, and I understand it lasted long after they all returned from the dance.

Dr. and Mrs. Pyatt of 812 Cerise, also hosted a cocktail party for some of their friends preceding the dance.

We extend our sympathy to Johnny D'Orrnellas, of 805 Felbar, who was killed in New York because of the death of his father.

On Wednesday, March 9, Mildred Harding, of 2767 Onrado, entertained at a neighborhood Kaffe Klatch. The guests

Neal M. Burdick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nell M. Burdick of 1407 Cota Ave., has been named to the dean's list for outstanding scholastic work at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute at Troy, N. Y.

The sophomore in metallurgical engineering was honored for his scholarship during the first semester.

were Misses Lester, Murdock, Leono Warne, John Bohan, Al Armistead, Stewart Atherton, Paul Hardy, Don Barker, William Dickson, and William Drager.

A new bridge club called the Tally H was formed on March 10 when a group of friends met at the home of Edjen Capps, at 2850 Eldorado. The members of the group are Mrs. C. R. Zaborowski, Mrs. Kenneth Perkin, Mrs. W. K. Thames, Mrs. Jack Klinzing, Mrs. Rodney Clark, Mrs. Joe Peters, and myself, alternating with Mrs. Herb Harger.

Miss Barbara Helbert who resides on Eldorado and Miss Betty Jane Strohmman, of 1014 Felbar, attended the Flower Show at Hollywood Park, Saturday morning. In the afternoon they loyally came home to watch the Torrance High basketball game.

Mrs. E. W. Strohmman took 10 girls of Troop 1283 to a movie about the Cooperative Nursery which was given at the Crenshaw School on Thursday. The girls are all working on their Child Care badges for the Girl Scout awards.

Girl Scout Troop 1719 under the leadership of Mrs. Thomas Smiley has also been active. On March 9, Mrs. Paul Floreen, entertained the fathers and mothers of the girls in this troop at her home at which time Sgt. D. C. Cook and Officer G. Rethwisch presented a movie on narcotics.

Mr. Robert Clements of 3333 Opal, took the girls of this troop to the Humane Society and a local veterinary so that they might further their work on the Dog and Cat merit badges.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smiley, of 3101 Opal, drove her mother, Mrs. Marion L. Gordon to the International Airport from where she embarked for Palm Beach, Fla., to visit her brother. In this short time she has already visited both Key West and St. Petersburg, even though Palm Beach is her headquarters.

The C. Hardinghaus' were unable to attend the dance on Saturday night because of the prior commitment of entertaining a group of college day friends at their home at 808 Fonthill.

Gregg Perkin, of 2830 Eldorado, celebrated his fifth birthday on March 10 with a group of friends who participated in his birthday party. The theme of his party was centered around his cake which was decorated with cowboys. Those attending were Chris and Stephanie Nohr, David Fierce, Danny Miller, Pamela and Jeffrey Klinzing, Deldre Dyer, Nikki Harvest, Stephanie Capps, Bruce, John, and Stevie Day, and Donny Norris. Mrs. Jack Klinzing, Mrs. Dean Capps, and Mrs. Nell Day, called to wish Master Perkin a Happy Birthday.

The Glenn Kellys went with friends to a dinner-dance on Terminal Island on Saturday evening.

Scout Mothers Back Swimming Classes for Their Youngsters

By SUS BURK
FE 6-4549

On March 9, the Scout Mothers Club met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Honzik at Reese Rd. A treasury report by Marlon Colby let the mothers know that a balance of $80 was standing in the treasury. Mothers learned that a dear friend, Alma Kissel, was recently home from the hospital. Alma had suffered a relapse of pneumonia.

New ideas for the boys who wish to earn their swimming merit badges were set into motion. A chart will be made so that a certain number of boys will be able to go to the plunge each week; the chart will be made up of four different stages of swimming. Twenty-seven boys are now taking swimming lessons.

An Easter party will be given to the Old Ladies Home in North Redondo.

The Scout Mothers wish to start a "Scout Uniform Exchange" so that boys unable to buy new suits will have a chance to wear a good used suit to their meetings. Mothers are asking for donations of old Scout uniforms, (outgrown, shirts and pants), Call Margaret Whyte at Frontier 5-1869 to have your donation picked up.

Present at the meeting to partake of fancy dessert and coffee were Helen Morris, Sue Burk, Janet Wood, Virginia Naurmann, Margaret Whyte, Ellen Berry, Bonnie Evans, Emile Honzik, Marlon Colby, Madge Graham, and Martha Kalleck, who was welcomed into the club as a new member. The next meeting will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Burk, of Zakon Rd.

Little Vickie and Chuckie Combs, of Zakon Rd., are in the last stages of chickenpox. Mike Renz is up and at 'em again after his recent bout with chickenpox, followed by a tonsillectomy.

Mrs. Miller, of Doris Way, was seen working in her yard the other day. The very best of good wishes to Mrs. Miller, who is one of the dearest loved people of the Heights area. Mrs. Virginia Johnson of Zakon Rd. has been ill.

The Boy Scouts now boast of a new patrol formed for the boys of the Heights. The patrol will heretofore be known as the Beaver Patrol. Patrol leader is Larry Caudill, assistant patrol leader is Clifford Burk, and Bud Heptig is scribe. Other boys in the new patrol are Richard Nix, Bobby Hatan, Jimmy Hendon.

Mrs. Wilburn French was elected president of the Seaside PTA at a meeting held last week.

Other officers are Mrs. George Steele, first vice-president; Mrs. Albert Yackie, second vice-president; Mrs. Basil Lewis, third vice-president; Mrs. Robert Parke, fourth vice-president; Mrs. Charles Nollenberger, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Carl Benford, recording secretary; Mrs. Harold Burt, historian; Mrs. Bill Clary, auditor.

At the meeting, shop class exhibits were shown, including cabinets, window boxes, shadow boxes, book cases, made under the direction of Carroll Wright.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Savage, homemaker teacher, presented Rose Ann Willis, commentator for the fashion show given by girls in home economics.

The parents learned that Mrs. Patricia Mishens is now teaching seventh grade, replacing Horace Larsen, who recently resigned.

The Rev. Richard Miller discussed the love of home.

All present enjoyed gingerbread and whipped cream and coffee, served by room mothers from the classes of Beth Davis, Caroline Orman, Mrs. Blessing Moore, and Jeff Olsen.

Patrons Threatened
Sheriff's deputies were looking for a man who entered the Spotlight Cafe, 2078 S. Normandie Ave., early Saturday morning and waved a gun, threatening to "shoot up the place." After threatening customers for several minutes, he left, bystanders said.
