

SCOUT TRAILS

Three hundred Girl Scouts from the Harbor Area are preparing for the Junior-Senior Overnite conference on March 25-26 at the former quarters of the Grace Evangelical United Brethren Church at 635 West 17 Street, Los Angeles.

The theme of the meeting will be "Meet Your Future-Senior Scouting." It will be an opportunity for the Juniors to see and hear about the years ahead from those who have experienced it.

On Friday, March 25 at 5:30 p. m. the group will convene under Ellen McCrae, president of the Harbor Senior Girls Planning Board and Mrs. Tony Pusch, adult advisor of Lomita.

The speakers of the event will be Miss Sarah Salzer, West Coast Editor of the Magazine "Seventeen" and Miss Claudia Perkins, Program Services Director of the Girl Scouts Los Angeles Council.

The conference will be adjourned at about 3:00 p. m. on Saturday, March 26.

Due to the limited amount of reservations for the overnite only those sending in advance can be assured accommodations.

Local Scouts taking an active part in the planning of the proceedings are Carol Gooler, Mary Burke and Anita Wood of Senior Troop No. 398 in Waller.

Mother's Club of Browline Troop 532 met on Monday Evening March 14 at the home of Mrs. Margaret Tuggle, 1121 Hickory to discuss the results of the Cookie Sale and plan future events for the youngest Scouts.

Plaques will be awarded to the top three girls in the sale, they are Linda De Fields, Robin Dube, and Susan Yurkovich. The troop sold 61 cartons of cookies.

The group recently attended the May Co. Birthday party at the Shrine Auditorium and on Monday, March 21 will be the guest of the Edison Co., in Redondo Beach for Cookies and Chocolate and a visit with Mrs. Barbara Duffy of the company.

The Brownies are under the Leadership of Mesdames William Marleau and John Augustein and the Fern-Greenwood Ave. PTA sponsors them.

A bicycle trip to their Campsite in the local oil fields was held recently by the Junior High Girls of Scout Troop 1293. The site owned by a local oil firm is being developed by the scouts for an overnight.

On the fireplace they made, they cooked their own dinner and rested before returning to their homes. The group is under the sponsorship of the Madrona PTA. Their leaders are Mesdames E. Carl Osterlind and Elwood Stroman. During the recent Cookie Sale, this troop averaged better than four cartons per girl.

A Junior High Planning Board met March 16 at 5:30 p. m. when Girl Scouts of that level met at Madrona School.

There were two from each troop represented in the Harbor Area. On the program were pictures of last year's European Trip and Jan Hood, one of the girls from the Harbor who spoke on the trip.

Special guests were Loren's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Schwenk and children, Lou and Lee, and his grandmother, Mrs. Nellie Corser.

A number of important items were handled during the business portion of the meeting, including the election of officers for the coming year.
