

Hilifers Circulating Petitions For New Street Lights in Area

By SUE BURK
FR 5-4549
A petition is being passed around the Heights area by the women of the Seaside Hilifers Club and if approved will give us street lighting in the Seaside Heights. If you have not seen the petition yet, please contact Virginia Johnson of 5210 Zakon Rd. or Mrs. Rose McClune, of 3320 Doris Way — Phone FR 5-5692.

Another little girl celebrating her birthday was Sandra Johnson of Zakon Rd., who just passed her seventh year. Guests at the party given in Sandra's honor were Irene Matthews, Donna and William Earl Burk, and Nancy Nix, Penny Leonard, Craig Ivester, Greg Eberle, Sharon Gunther, Rosemary McClune, Becky and Susan Bedrosian, Mike Reger, and Mike Shanks. Games were pin the tail on the donkey, with William Earl Burk taking first prize and Mike Shanks winning the booby prize. Drop the clothesline in a bottle game Linda Johnson first prize. Guests enjoyed birthday cake with blue icing and pink decorations with strawberry and vanilla ice cream.

Linda Johnson had her tonsils out recently. Linda had been ill with a bad cold this past week.

Sympathies are being extended to the Walker family of Avenue H this week. Glenn E. Walker, co-pilot of the ill-fated American Airlines plane that crashed near Springfield, Mo., was killed. He leaves his wife Bonetta, and children Mike and Leslie.

On the sick list this week are Larry and Mark Mitchell, Susan Milanowski, Jimmy Cairns, Mike Renz, Garry and Bobby Graham, Dick Beard, Carolyn Rotegard and Mrs. H. Miller, of Doris Way. Laura Thompson recent resident, now living in Beverly Hills, is in St. Vincent Hospital after undergoing a very serious operation.

The monthly meeting of the Cub Scout Pack 728-C met at the El Retiro Club house, March 18. The theme for March was "Knights of Yore," and all dens provided a variety of entertainment about knighthood and the Round Table with King Arthur. Bill Malan, assistant cub master, conducted the meeting and handed out numerous awards to the boys. He conducted in place of Bob Parke, who was ill. Margaret Whyte and Den 3 won the honor banner for March.

Master Greg LePore celebrated St. Patrick's Day with a party given by mommie in his honor. Greg, who resides with his folks at 5344 Linda Dr., is only 2½ years old, but already knows about the wearing of the green. Guests who partook of the beautifully decorated Irish cake with shamrocks and all, ice cream, and party goodies were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene LePore, Johnie and Cheryl Hahn, Margaret Ann Tralmer, Patty, Mary Beth, and Anne Briggs, and Monica Ryan.

On March 17, the second meeting of the Carol Belles, newly formed Carol Dr. Women's Club, met in the home of Marge Andrews. The house was gaily decorated in the St. Patrick's Day motif. Ella LaVigne and daughter, Leo Radney, were welcomed into the club as new members, and Betty Ann Freeman was special guest. Refreshments for the evening were in the St. Patrick's Day mood. The next meeting is to be held in the home of Betty Eblevans on Thursday, April 21.

Now starting his teenage years is Clifford Burk, of Zakon Rd., who passed his 13th birthday with a birthday breakfast, featuring the things he liked most to eat. Guests for the day were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Palmer and children; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Nolan, of Beverly Hills, with their son Dwane, and his newly-acquired bride. Clifford's most prized possession is a new wrist watch given to him by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burk.

Parents of Seaside children who are five or will be five on or before Dec. 1, 1955, are asked to drop by the Seaside School and fill out an application. All you need is the birth certificate or similar data to enroll your boy or girl in the coming September classes.

Somewhere between the sewing classroom and her car a bunch of keys were lost by Mrs. Betty Mitchell of Zakon Rd. If anyone found a bunch of keys on the school yards will you please contact Mrs. Mitchell at 5113 Zakon Rd., or phone FR 5-7621.

Do you have any broken down toys such as tricycles, wagons, or dolls? If so, please don't put them in the trash. Drop them off at the 5104 Zakon Rd. address of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Burk, who plan to repair old toys for needy children of our own area for next Christmas. Celebrating his fourth birthday, March 15, was Larry Mitchell of Zakon Rd. Guests for lunch, cake and ice cream, were David Clark, Butch Burk, and sister Mira, and brother Jimmy. Also celebrating his second birthday was Mark Joseph Mitchell, his younger brother. Mr. and Mrs. Pat Brady have a visitor in their home on Doris Way. It happens to be Mrs. Brady's father from the east.

Parent conferences are now at hand at Seaside School with a minimum class day for the older age group. All the kindergarten teachers are holding group conferences on reading, and the teaching of the subject in our schools. Mrs. Gellermann played hostess along with the kindergarten class for 25 parents. The parents were invited to the classroom to watch the children at work, then to the auditorium to watch a film on reading and the basic prinseries of oral conferences showing the educational growth of children of the higher classes. Sorry to report to you that Mrs. C. Coughlin, of the first grade, will be leaving us at the end of this school year.

After a question and answer period the parents partook of refreshments served by the class. Higher grade teachers are now holding the second of a
