

MR. MRS. ROBERT HINCHBERGER
... Leaving the Church

Zelona Fiedler Married To Robert Hinchberger

In an informal ceremony attended by relatives and close friends, Zelona M. Fiedler and Robert W. Hinchberger exchanged nuptial vows at 1 p. m., April 16 in the St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church with the Rev. John V. Hegarty officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Heneel of 25108 So. Normandie Ave., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Hinchberger of Wilbrington.

Baskets of white stock decorated the chancel and bouquets of the white flowers were arranged on the altar. Veils were marked with an arrangement of white flowers and satin ribbon. For her wedding, the bride wore a champagne colored gown styled with a long torso and flare skirt with which she wore pink accessories. An orchid corsage completed the costume.

Her sole attendant was Mrs. Tena Fenati who served as matron of honor. She wore a mauve gown with pink accessories complemented with a pink rosebud corsage. Raymond Heinrich served the bridegroom as best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 125 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. White and pink were carried out in the decorating theme for the reception with an arrangement of pink rosebuds and another of white carnations flanking the three tiered wedding cake which was topped with miniature bells and pink and white lilies of the valley.

Upon their return from a honeymoon in San Francisco, the couple will be at home at 1145 Broad Ave., Wilmington. The bride is a graduate of St. Louis Academy, Chicago, and the bridegroom is a graduate of Banning High School, Wilmington, and served 4 1/2 years in the Navy. He is secretary of the Wilmington Junior Chamber of Commerce and a past president of the CYO Wilmington chapter.

Out of town guests attending the wedding included, Mr. and Mrs. Don Ludwig and daughters, Jeffrey and Judy; Miss Aleen Cajune, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anderson and children; Richard Dolan, Mr. and Mrs. Mr. Jimmy Visceglia, Mrs. Mabel Drake, Mrs. Dorothy Eddy, Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Moore and daughters.

Alicia Gatti Heads Dance At Marymount

With the theme of "April in Paris," the freshman class of Marymount School of Palos Verdes, staged their annual Freshman dance at the school last Saturday evening.

The semi-formal affair found its theme carried out in spring flowers in a garden setting, with apple blossom trees set up around the main hall at the school. A fountain and lake on the stage of the hall was illuminated by blue lights.

Co-chairman and head of the decorations committee for the dance was Alicia Gatti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gatti, 4248 W. 178th St. Co-chairman with her was Mary Ann Richey, of Hawthorne. Other committee members included Pat Viefhaus, Rosemary Koehler, and Louise Smith of Torrance.

WINS SCHOLARSHIP

Another honor at the University of Redlands has been captured by Mickey Van Deventer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Van Deventer, 2203 Carson St. She recently won the scholarship as official accompanist for the university quartet. Mickey is in her sophomore year at the university.

National YWCA Week Being Observed in Harbor Area

With the theme "Forever Young and Brave," National YWCA Week is being observed in the Harbor District YWCA this week.

The Y-teens in the Torrance and Lomita area are using this week as a springboard for their annual Potato Chip Sale held in local markets until May 2.

Y-teen clubs meeting this week are: Monday, the Betas with Jackie Zittle as president and Mrs. Orvil Snow as advisor, and the Demoiselles with Pat Hogan as president and Mrs. Ruth Kelp as advisor. On Tuesday, three clubs met: the Hitoppers, Sharon Blackesley, president, and Mrs. B. H. Smith and Mrs. L. M. Pucher, advisors; Coquettes, Diane Bledsoe, president, Mrs. Harold Bledsoe, advisor; and the Torrettes, who are having a cosmetic demonstration. Jean Northey is the president while Mrs. Arle Black-

McFadens Are Spaan-Smith Vows Recited In Impressive Candlelight Ceremony Saturday, April 16

Romance of the Islands dominated the decorations at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William E. McFaden, 902 Catalina last Saturday evening when they entertained their not luck group at a luau. Mrs. McFaden greeted her guests wearing an Hawaiian costume. Hawaiian punch was served from a large bowl.

The buffet supper was served from a table beautifully decorated with anthuriums, shells and fish nets. Guests then ate on the floor in true island fashion.

After the dinner charades were played and record music was enjoyed. The McFaden's guests were: Messrs. and Mmes. Benjamin Roberts, Otto Willett, Lee Kendall, Gilbert Derouin and Mrs. Laura Felker.

Baskets of white stock, gladiol and carnations interspersed with white candles decorated the Lomita Presbyterian Church Saturday evening, April 16, for the wedding of Miss Evelyn Maye Spaan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Spaan, 2112-238th St., Torrance, to Paul Hynson Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith, 2550 Carson St.

As the 300 guests gathered for the wedding, Mrs. James Willacy played wedding music and during the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. William Haddock sang "Indian Love Call" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The two bridesmaids headed the wedding entrance. They were Miss Kay Smith and Miss Marilyn Spaan, both wearing bouffant coral lace gowns over taffeta. Their nosegay bouquets were of roses and carnations.

Mrs. Merritt Rowe, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore ice blue lace over taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink roses and carnations.

Little Judy Rowe, niece of the bride wearing a white lace frock over ice blue was the flower girl and Denny Rowe, a nephew of the bride brought the rings to the altar.

Then came the bride on the arm of her father. She was beautiful in her gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta. The lace gown was fashioned with a fitted bodice and a small collar outlined with seed pearls. The lace skirt fell into a long train. The fingertip veil was held by a seed pearl lace tiara. The bride's bouquet was of butterfly orchids, carnations and stephanotis.

Jack Turner served as best man and ushers were Bruce Smith and Andy Spaan, Jr.

The Rev. Eldon Durham, pastor, officiated at the ceremony after which a reception was held in the church hall. A four tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bridal couple. The newlyweds then left for a honeymoon and upon their return they will reside at 1500 Denker Ave.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Smith are Torrance High school graduates and they attended El Camino college. She is employed as a dental assistant here and Mr. Smith is an employee of the Torrance Post Office.

Los Fiestadores Club Stages 'After Income Tax' Dance

"After the Income Tax" was the apropos and clever theme of the gala dance given Saturday evening by Los Fiestadores Club at Portuguese Bend club. Les Tonzier and his band furnished music for dancing.

The guest book table was covered with income tax blanks and guests came attired in "hard time" costumes. The theme was again carried out in the mixer dances when the various taxes were enacted by dance partners.

The committee for the dance included: Dr. and Mrs. Phil Halloran, and Messrs. and Mmes. Bob Almond, Bob Klink, and R. D. Bolin. The door prize, a patio chair, was won by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Morton.

A number of cocktail parties preceded the dance and after the dance Mr. and Mrs. Robert Triplitt, 1759 Calomir, were hosts at a breakfast. Their guests were: Drs. and Mmes. W. E. Grubbs, Phil Halloran, and Messrs. and Mmes. Bob Almond, Walt Clausen, Earl Clayton, Lloyd Jones, Bob Klink, Parke Montague, Bob Morton, Don Norris and Ralph Rugraff.

Palm Springs Weekend

A group of Torrance friends spent a recent week end at La Veranda in Palm Springs. Besides swimming, dancing, golf, and ping pong the group enjoyed the Circus Week parade.

In the party were: Messrs. and Mmes. Kenneth Miller, Robert Leech, J. A. Barrington, Robert Kerber, Robert Tolson, and James Post.

Coming up from San Diego to join the party were Mr. and Mrs. Don Meyer, former Torrance residents.

MR. STACEY B. STEVENS
... Recites Vows

Robison-Stevens Marriage In Las Vegas is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Robison, 2264 Sonoma, are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Janet Carol, to Stacey B. Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stevens, 22221 Moneta Ave. The wedding was solemnized last Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Wee Kirk of the Heather wedding chapel in Las Vegas.

The bridegroom was graduated from the local high school in 1952 and is serving with the United States Army. He will be discharged in May and will be employed at North American. The young couple are planning to establish a Torrance home.

FOUNDATION TO MEET TONIGHT

Harbor Area Exceptional Children's Foundation will meet this evening at 8 p. m. in the auditorium at the Toberman Settlement house, 131 N. Grand, San Pedro. Ed Foster, counselor at Dana Junior High school will be the speaker. Plans will also be made for a box social to be held Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Genevieve Foley, 6216 Via Subida.

To Avalon on Spring Cruise

Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Bauman aboard their "Meliss" joined members of the West Coast Yacht club for their annual spring cruise to Avalon last week end. The Bauman's had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Hank Heinlein and Jack Hudson.

The club members and their guests took over the Chit Chit club for their dinner dance. Mrs. Bauman and Jack Hudson won the dance contest and were presented with a trophy.

Dr. and Mrs. Bauman entertained at cocktails aboard their yacht before the dinner dance.

Student Fund Established

Wives of the El Camino College faculty instructors will provide assistance to financially embarrassed students of the college from a loan fund recently established by the Faculty Wives' organization.

Complimenting the Don Hall Frame memorial loan fund, the new financial provision will permit students to borrow enough money for such immediate necessities as books, supplies, or meals. "The fund is designed to help prevent students from dropping classes and sometimes entire programs because of the temporary need for money," Merl F. Sloan, director of student personnel explained.

Established on March 31, the fund was immediately placed into operation as a student received a loan on the first day.

Chairman of the committee working on the wives' project is Mrs. John McQuerry. Her committee members are Mrs. Albert Karr, Mrs. George Gerbner, and Mrs. Leo Christian.

Stanley F. Wilson is president of the Faculty Wives' club. All loans to students, both from the Don Hall Frame memorial fund and the new loan faculty, will be processed through the Student Personnel office. Application forms must be filed with and approved by Sloan or an assistant director of student personnel.

MR. AND MRS. PAUL SMITH
... Exchange Vows

Club Hostess

Spring flowers decorated the luncheon tables at the home of Mrs. Ralph McNeil on Fern Ave. Tuesday afternoon when she was hostess to her bridge club. Bridge games followed the luncheon.

Guests were Mmes. Laura Felker, D. J. Thomsen, Benjamin Roberts, John Oursler, H. L. Mitchell, B. T. Whitney, and Edward Rhone.

The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. John Oursler.

ARTISTS WILL BE PRESENTED

Hollywood Alumnae of Sigma Alpha Iota, national professional music fraternity for women, will present Gabor Rejto, cellist, and Eugen'ee Azar, pianist, 1955 scholarship winner, in a concert for the benefit of the scholarship fund, Sunday, May 1, at 8:00 p. m., at Immaculate Heart College, 2021 N. Western Ave., Hollywood. Accompanist for Mr. Rejto will be Alice Rejto.

Entertains

Mrs. Walter Levy held high score at the conclusion of the bridge games last Friday afternoon when Mrs. Burton Eastle entertained her club at her home, 3306 El Dorado Ave. Second high was held by Mrs. Edward Grubbs and low went Mrs. Joe Klink.

Miniature bouquets of spring flowers decorated the individual tables where luncheon was served before the games.

Mrs. Eastley's other guests were Mmes. Gerald Eastham, Cam Blakeley, Parke Montague, Phil Halloran and Charles Ragsdale.

ADDING INTEREST... to the Hobby, Art, and Flower Show, to be staged May 6, 7, and 8 at the Civic Auditorium will be the entry by the Harbor Aquarian Society when tropical fish collections will be shown. Unusual plants will also be a feature. Shown at the left is Mrs. John Almond with an unusual Easter lily species and center is Mrs. Sam Harris showing a fish net to Mrs. Charles Herron, JayCette chairman. In the background is one of the aquariums that will be displayed.

Aquarian Society Enters Hobby, Art, Flower Show

One of the outstanding displays to be entered in the Hobby, Art and Flower Show, May 6, 7 and 8, will be furnished by the Harbor Aquarian Society. This group will have on display in the auditorium their 25 gallon club tank, featuring numerous species of tropical fish, together with 12 smaller tanks which have been entered to date. This display will be located at the front of the auditorium on the left of the entrance.

The Harbor Aquarian Society will have their own judges at the show to judge the various displays of the club members. There will also be a judge from the hobby section of this show who will judge the Harbor Aquarian Society only. This group meets monthly, with the aim to help the hobbyist and to promote an interest in tropical fish as a hobby, as well as a public aquarium in the harbor area. Charles Wade is the president of this group, with Conley Church, vice president, and Mrs. Irene Harris, secretary.

The trophies which will be given out in each sweepstake division of the show will be on public display at a drug store in Torrance several days prior to the show. Street gimmicks will again be paraded up and down the streets of Torrance this weekend during Friday and Saturday, April 29 and 30. The Garden Club will have a representative from the Y-Teens giving flowers to the public, advertising the show.

JULIE IS FIVE

Julie Warren was honoree at a party given on Sunday, April 24, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warren, 4307 West 174th St., in celebration of her fifth birthday. Those enjoying games and refreshments with Julie were Barbara Tan, Donna Cooper, Cathy Schwartz, Tommy Grettum, Steve Blansge and Mitchell Brown.

Deadline for Hobby and Art division entries is May 1 and deadline for flower division entries is noon Friday May 6. Persons wishing to enter may call Mrs. Gordon Jones, hobby and art; Mrs. John Thuss, flower and Mrs. Thomas McCutcheon, floor plan.

Members of the Y-Teens donating their services on street signs are Rene Bradford, Sally Speck, Mary Lou Sass, Diane Allen, Jill Moore, Pat Meritt and Diane Larson.